

LOCAL NEWS

From Monday's Daily. W. H. Puls of Murray was a visitor in Plattsmouth for a short time this morning looking after some business.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, was in the city today, called here to look after some business matters at the court house.

Louis Hallas the efficient and gentlemanly bookkeeper in the Murray State bank, was a visitor in Plattsmouth at the home of his parents for over Sunday, returning to his work this morning.

Will Gobelman of Louisville the popular salesman in the Diers Bros. store of that place, was a visitor in the county seat yesterday, being one of the team who played the closely contested game here.

Mont Robb of Union was a visitor in Plattsmouth for the day coming up on the early train to look after the loading and shipping of some grain for the Haynes Grain company, which he represents, of Omaha.

Dr. R. F. Brendel of Murray and Will Seybold of near that city were in Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon attending the ball game between Louisville and Plattsmouth and visiting with their many friends here.

Mrs. H. E. Ford of Cedar Creek, was a visitor in Plattsmouth for the day and the guest of friends, coming down on the early train and on her way home stopped for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Hass of Oreadopolis.

Geo. P. Meisinger of near Cedar Creek, was a visitor in Plattsmouth this afternoon, having spent the morning in Omaha looking after some business matters and returned via this place, at which the folks met him in their car.

F. W. Campbell and wife from east of Murray, was called to Plattsmouth this morning to look after some business for the day. Mr. Campbell is beginning in the seeding of his winter wheat crop, which will comprise of some fifty-five acres.

L. F. Trihue and wife were visitors for a short time in Plattsmouth last evening while on their way from a visit at the home of J. H. Brown of Murray and the friends where they had been spending their Sunday and were on their way to their home in Omaha.

This morning W. G. Boedeker of the Bank of Murray, L. H. Puls of the Murray garage, and A. Gansmer of the Service Store of that city were visitors for a few moments in Plattsmouth, looking after some business matters and continuing their journey to South Omaha, where they were destined to look after some matters which they had in hand in that city. They were driving the new Viele car which Mr. Gansmer had but recently purchased from Mr. Puls and which is the last word when it comes to an excellent car.

From Tuesday's Daily

Fred Brandt of Louisville was a visitor in Plattsmouth today, coming down on the morning Schuyler to look after some business matters at the court house.

J. M. Patterson, of Union, cashier of the bank of that place, with Mrs. Patterson were in Plattsmouth in attendance of the funeral of the late Mrs. Wayne Dickson.

G. W. Cheney and wife of Union, were in the city this afternoon attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Wayne Dickson, formerly Miss Cleo Applegate of that place.

James T. Reynolds and wife, of near Union, prominent people of this county, were visitors in Plattsmouth last evening, coming to attend the recital at the Parmele and to look after some matters of business. They drove up in their auto.

A WORD ABOUT MERCHANDISE.

To the People of Plattsmouth: We know some people are always skeptical as to the merchandise of any new concern that might start business in their city. Although our store is new to the city of Plattsmouth, we are old timers in this vicinity and wish to remind you that G. R. Kinney Co., Inc., has been located in Omaha nearly four years. In that time we have established the largest retail shoe trade in that city. We have accomplished this only by fair advertising and giving the best possible merchandise for the lowest possible prices.

We want to impress upon the minds of the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity that any merchandise purchased at any of our seventy-four stores must be satisfactory and is absolutely guaranteed. In other words, YOU must be satisfied or your money is refunded. We encourage comparison of merchandise at the same price. "Buy where your dollar speaks the loudest." We love clean competition. G. R. KINNEY CO., Inc.

MURRAY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bible school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Subject of sermon, "Laying Aside Every Weight."

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services. A. G. Hollowell, Pastor.

METHODISTS RAISE $500,000 IN STATE

Nearly $500,000 has been taken in benevolent collections by Nebraska Methodist churches during the last year, the treasurer reported to the state conference at the First Methodist church this morning.

Of this $432,702 is expended outside the state in foreign missions and such enterprises and in this state $57,440 is expended.

The conference will adjourn this afternoon after a week's session and will meet again in Omaha next year. The number attending this year was 350.

A resolution was adopted today to place a copy of the ten commandments on the walls of every school in the state.

M. D. Cameron, Omaha, was made a member of the conference board of stewards.

Bishop Homer Stuntz spoke at the First Methodist church Sunday evening. Visiting clergy occupied all Methodist pulpits of the city and other churches. —Omaha News.

WILL VISIT IN WEST

This morning Misses Mary Sedlak and Mary Krajci, who have been with the M. E. Smith company for a long period, thought they were entitled to a vacation and have concluded they will spend a month at Cheyenne, where they have relatives and the bracing atmosphere of the mountains will be a tonic to put the young ladies in excellent condition to return and take up the work here after the month of rest.

GUESTS OF RELATIVES HERE

Christopher Jensen and wife of Creston, Ia., were visitors in Plattsmouth since last Saturday, the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lutz of this city, Mr. Jensen being a cousin of Mrs. Lutz. After having enjoyed a very pleasant visit, Mr. and Mrs. Jensen departed this morning for Omaha and will then go to Florence and afterwards to De Sota, where they will visit at the home of grandfather George Michaelson for a short time before going to Blair, which will be their last stop before returning to their home in Iowa.

FRIENDS GIVE FAREWELL PARTY

On the departure of Miss Lena True of Cedar Creek who departed this morning for Glenwood, Ia., where she will be employed at the Institute at that place, her many friends in and near Cedar Creek gave this young lady a farewell reception at the home of her parents. The evening was pleasantly enjoyed with games, music and song. The home was decorated very beautiful for the occasion, and every one present enjoyed the occasion fully. There were present for the evening besides the guest of honor, Miss Lena True, the following: Misses Marie Schroeder, Sophia True, Gladys Phelps, Mabel True, Lella Duff, May True, George Schroeder, Jack True, Ray Denham. The refreshments which were served consisted of sandwiches, sweet pickles and fried chicken and pop. The lunch was eaten in the open by the side of the lake and boat riding included a portion of the evening's enjoyment.

BANDITS HOLD UP PLAYERS

Omaha, Sept. 14.—Two armed and masked bandits held up and robbed about twenty men who were gambling in a private apartment here yesterday, escaping with about $7,000, according to a report reaching the police today. The report, however, was not made by any of the hold-up men's victims, it was said.

FAVORS VERDICT AGAINST OLSON

Fremont, Sept. 14.—There is general satisfaction with the verdict returned against John K. Olson, but expressions of regret are heard because of the immunity granted Mrs. Sophie Lueken, who was held under bond on the same charge as Olson.

H. B. Lueken, the victim, who is seventy-eight years old, recovered entirely from his wounds and was about the court house during the trial and is very active for a person his age. He was a good witness but he did not hear the testimony of his wife, escaping during the trial, who occupied all day Saturday with applications for naturalization he did not pronounce sentence on Olson.

CALIFORNIANS THRU NEBRASKA

Omaha, Sept. 14.—Forty prominent business men and politicians of California, headed by National Committeeman William H. Croker, passed through Omaha early this evening on their way to Marion, Ohio, where they will call on Senator Harding. They are going to try to persuade the presidential candidate to give up the idea of making an extensive campaign tour and cling to the "front porch" policy.

Mrs. Frank Rebal was a visitor with friend in Omaha this afternoon going on the early afternoon train.

Mrs. F. L. Cummins was visiting with friends in Omaha for the afternoon.

Mesdames E. C. Lewis and Jess Wurga were looking after some business matters and also visiting with friends in Omaha for the afternoon.

Mrs. Rose Kirvanek was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where she was visiting for the day with her son and daughter.

W. E. Countryman and Harry Beemer of Takamah, is in the city for a short time, having come down yesterday to take home a corn harvester, which Mr. Countryman had on his farm near Nehawka.

Two girls wanted at the Perkins House. Apply at once.

The New Fall Suits

---worth seeing, ---worth wearing!

It's an important mission—choosing the right Fall clothes. You want to be sure that they will bring you good appearance, and the assurance of long, satisfying wear. See the new Fall

Kuppenheimer Good Clothes

—the are an investment in good appearance!

$40 and More

John Campbell of Murray, was looking after some business in Plattsmouth for the afternoon.

IS ON HER VACATION

Miss Sophia Sievers, who is one of the efficient operators at the telephone exchange is at this time on her vacation and is visiting at the home of her sister, Miss Anna Sievers who is the chief operator for the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company at their exchange at David City. After having completed there she will return coming via Ashland where she will visit at the home of Harry Smith and family for a few days before again taking up the routine of her work here.

WOULD LOCATE HERE

This morning Messrs. Frank Uhlir of Table Rock, and Joseph Marcek of Shubert, arrived in the city, having in mind of engaging in business here. The gentlemen are both excellent market men and have had vast experience in the market business. They would like to acquire a business already running, but will look over the ground with the idea of ascertaining the justifiability of engaging in the business. They are liking the town and the appearance of life and business here, but will deliberate for a short time before making an investment. Plattsmouth is always willing to invite capital and give encouragement to all laudable enterprises.

POULTRY WANTED!

WE WILL BUY CHICKENS AT ED LUTZ'S STORE ON

SATURDAY, SEPT. 18

AND WILL PAY Hens, per lb. 27c Springs, per lb. 28c Old Roosters, per lb. 14c

SWIFT & COMPANY Remember Saturday Lutz's Store

-Base Ball-

Plattsmouth Red Sox

-vs-

Thurman, Iowa

PLATTSMOUTH BALL PARK

Sunday Afternoon

September 19th

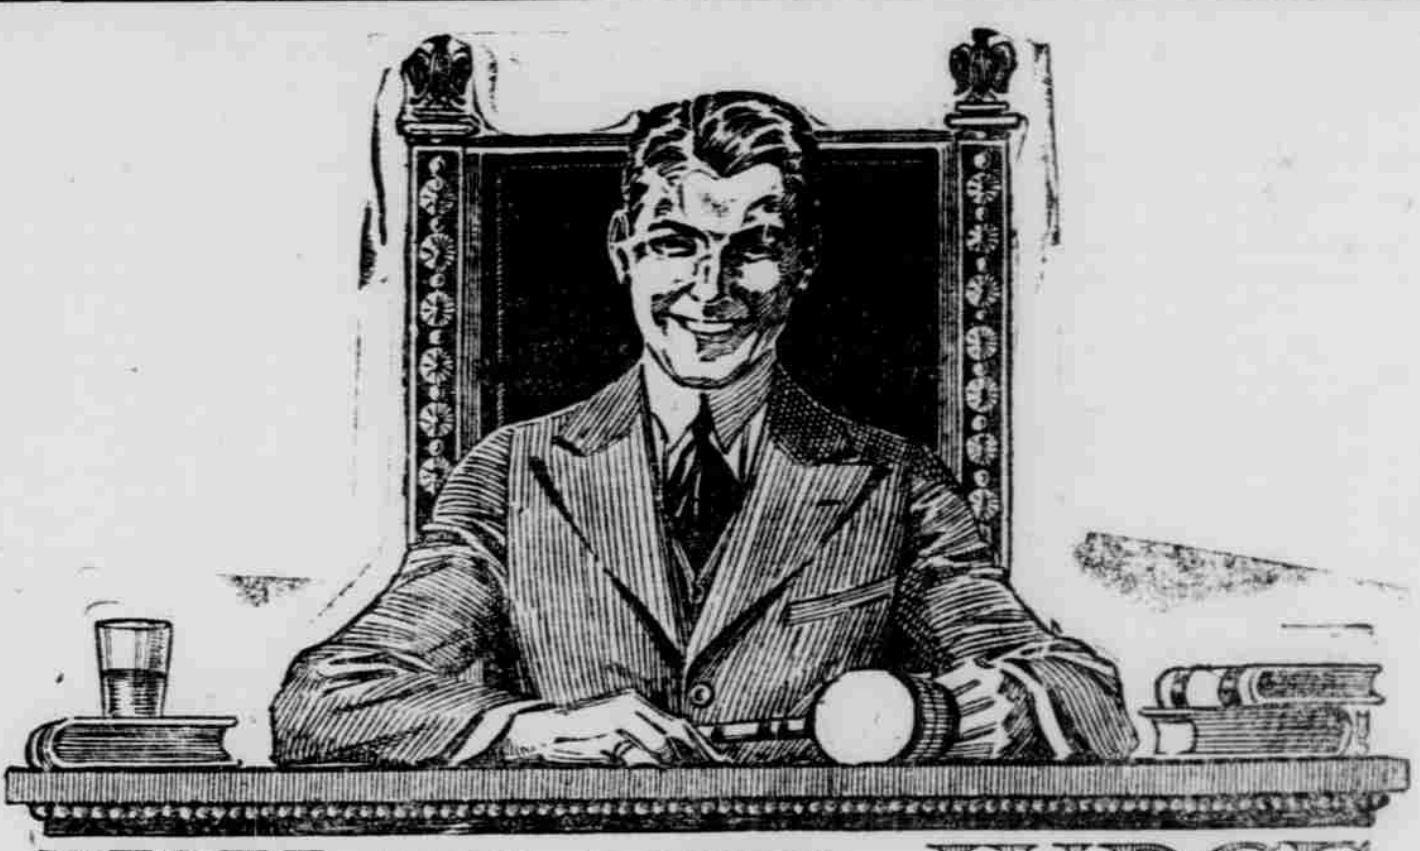

This is the third game between these two teams this season—two very close ones, so this will be a battle to the finish for supremacy.

AMERICAN LEGION DANCE

Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 56, American Legion, will give a dance at Coates hall on next SATURDAY NIGHT

September 18th Everybody invited. Music by Eagles Orchestra. The usual admission charge. Don't fail to be there. Saturday night.

Proceeds to Club Home Fund

YOU BE THE JUDGE

Long Pant School Suits for boys 14 to 19 in dark neat cassimers, stylish cut and make, $23.50 to $35 Young men's suits in browns and greens, $27.50 to $45

YOU'VE heard so much about profiteers and profiteering that you would almost be tempted to distrust your own brother if he was in the mercantile business. There's some of it, unfortunately, that is true, but there's a lot of it is absolute "bunkum." The big majority of the merchants you deal with are fair—as fair as you could be if in their place. Our goods and our prices speak for us. We want you to be the judge. Come in and we will gladly lay our evidence before you.

Men's Suits

A good suit—what we call a good suit costs right around

$50.00

We have some for $35 and $40 and some for

$60 and $75

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

ROAD NOTICE To all whom it may concern: The Commissioner appointed to close a road beginning at eighty rods east and about twenty rods north of the southeast corner of Section nineteen, Township eleven, Range fourteen, County Lincoln, Nebraska, is hereby notified that the said road will be closed without reference thereto. GEO. E. SAYLES, County Clerk.

allowance. The time limited for the presentation of claims against said estate is three months from the 31st day of October, A. D. 1920, and the time limited for payment of debts is one year from said 31st day of October, 1920. Witness my hand and the seal of said County Court, this 10th day of September, 1920. ALLEN J. BREESON, County Judge.

BUYS A NEW OVERLAND Jeff Salsberg of Mynard, last Monday purchased from the Pollock Parmele agency one of the light four Overland cars and has taken it home for use. Mr. Salsberg will find this one of the most serviceable cars for a light car and has been given the most strenuous tests, standing under the strain well. Mr. Pollock is disposing of many of these cars.

Omaha Auditorium

Tuesday Evening, October 12th, 1920 By special arrangements, we are able to offer our patrons during Subscription Week, which is from September 13 to 18, inclusive, choice seats, available in advance of the public sale date.

Be sure to hear Caruso

You shouldn't miss hearing the greatest tenor the world has ever known. Whether or not you're going to the Caruso concert come and hear his magnificent voice on the Victrola. Such a voice as you have never heard before. And reproduced on the Victrola in such perfection as you never thought possible. These are some of the numbers Caruso will sing in concert; and you can hear him sing the self-same arias on the Victrola.

88339 Elisir d'amore—Una furtiva lagrima Donizetti 88061 Paggiacci—Vesti la giubba (On With the Play) Leoncavallo 88054 L'Africana—O Paradiso (Oh Paradise!) Meyerbeer

Wouldn't you like to hear these Victor Records? Come in today—no obligation.

J. W. CRABILL

Poultry Wanted!

Wanted, a car load of live poultry, to be delivered at poultry car near Burlington freight depot, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on Monday, September 20th, one day only, for which we will pay cash as follows:

Hens, per lb. 28c Springs, per lb. 28c Old Cox, per lb. 14c Ducks, per lb. 22c Geese, per lb. 24c Turkeys, per lb. 25c

Will be on hand rain or shine, and take care of all poultry offered for sale. Yours truly, W. E. KEENEY