ED. W. THIMGAN,

Phone 35-B

Murdock, Neb.

John Angwert drove to Lincoln last Thursday. Edward Thimgan was called to Lincoln last Thursday to look after some business matters.

Matthew Thimgan was looking after some business matters in the county seat Monday, driving over in his car.

Louisville and Murdock played ball yesterday, and as both teams are playing good ball, it must have been a good game.

John Kruger and wife, who have been visiting in Murdock for some days, left the latter part of the week for their home at West Point.

J. Johansen was a visitor in Lincoln last Thursday, going to take a load of hides to market and at the same time looking after some other business matters.

W. O. Schewe and Will Klyse were visiting in Omaha last Thursday, where they attended the Ak-Sar-Ben races, which they report as being rather tame.

Rev. A. Brauchle and wife, who have been spending some weeks at Elcelesor Springs, Mo., returned home last Monday, after having enjoyed their stay at the health resort very much.

John Angwert and family, accompanied by the former's mother, Mrs. Louis Angwert, were visiting in Council Bluffs, Iowa, last Sunday, having driven over in Mr. Angwert's car.

There is always something to preserve the building, porch floors, front doors, implements and many other things. Let us suggest the right kind of materials for your purpose.

"Save the surface and you save all—paint and varnish." Paint for every purpose at the DUSTERHOFF SHOP.

Henry A. Tool and Jerry E. McHugh were in Plattsmouth a few days since to consult with the county attorney relative to the matter of voting bonds for the securing of electric lights in Murdock. They were informed that the laws permit of voting of bonds for such purpose if desired.

F. W. Nolting, wife and children, Ellen and William, were visiting in Murdock and at the home of Herman Bornemeier near Alvo during the past week. They arrived here, accompanied by Miss Grace Nolting, who is a teacher in the Alvo schools this year, and who will make her home with her uncle, Herman Bornemeier and family, at Alvo.

Henry Guthmann, cashier of the Bank of Murdock, who with his family has been spending some time in the west, returned home on last Thursday. During their trip they enjoyed a visit at the home of Mr. Guthmann's brother, Charles and family at Boise, Idaho, where the hearty inn and invigorating atmosphere afforded them exceeding pleasure. Their arrival here was just right for the little ones to get back in school at the opening of the fall term.

Had His Glass Replaced.

The plate glass which was broken in the window at the east side of the office room in E. W. Thimgan's garage, has been replaced by the insurance company, and once more presents as good an appearance as ever. The installation work was done by representatives of the Western Paint and Glass company, of Lincoln.

Will Decorate Their Home

Henry Timm, residing northwest of Murdock, has engaged Max Dusterhoff to paint the exterior of his country and decorate the interior in most approved style. When the improvement is completed and Mr. Timm sees the changed appearance he will realize more than ever that it pays to "Paint and Varnish."

Murdock Schools Well Attended

The students attending the Murdock schools now total near the one hundred mark and a little later the enrollment will doubtless be further increased. With the opening of school last Monday, 27 were enrolled in the high school, 26 in the grammar grades, 29 in the intermediate department and 20 in the primary classes, making a total of 93, with some ten or more yet to come. The successful consolidation of the schools here is making it possible to have better educational advantages and afford opportunity for students to get a high school education without having to go away from home for it, and that at a minimum of expense.

Will Attend State University.

During the past week a number of young men from Murdock and vicinity were at Lincoln, where they registered as students in the state university for the coming year. Most of them were students there last year. Those to go from here were Will Meyers, Gale Glen, John Paul Pickwell and Carlton Zink.

Prouder Than a First "Louie"

Sure, that aptly describes the condition of Lacey McDonald, carrier on rural route No. one, on the Murdock at this time. The reason! Last Tuesday there came to the McDonald home a young American who calls Lacey father and Mrs. McDonald mother. The youth and his mother are getting along nicely; but as to the father, although he is still carrying the mail, we can't say if he will ever recover completely.

Opening Lyceum Number Soon

The Lyceum Bureau series of entertainments secured for Murdock during the coming winter will soon open, the first number being scheduled for October 5th, with others to follow at regular intervals. A number of enterprising citizens are behind the movement, which is headed by O. J. Pothast. In prior years others have carried the lyceum proposition to a successful issue, and no doubt the present management will do likewise, although success is assured only when the whole community takes hold of the matter.

Murdock is a good lyceum town and generally lends its support well to any wholesome entertainment.

Finished Seeding His Wheat

Louis Bornemeier thinks there is no danger of getting too much of a good thing and has seeded 125 acres to wheat this fall. He has been at the job for some time and says both he and the horses are nearly worn out. But they got the wheat in just the same.

Visitors from Oklahoma

Herman Dierks and family, of Oklahoma, in which state Mr. Dierks is engaged in the sale of Veile automobiles, recently made a trip to the factory in the east, and on returning drove by way of Murdock that they might visit at the home of J. H. Buck, of whom they are relatives. Their stop in Murdock and visit at the Buck home was one of pleasure. They left Thursday for their home in the south, driving a new Veile, which they had secured at the factory. Mr. Dierks reports conditions prosperous in the south.

Will Have Car of Peaches

The Murdock Mercantile company announces that it will have a car of fancy canning peaches on the Rock Island tracks Tuesday, for sale at exceptionally low prices of $3.50 per bushel. These will be the justly famed yellow Elbertas, and without doubt will be quickly gobbled up at this price. Those who contemplate buying peaches for canning or preserving will do well to get in on these before they are all gone.

Murdock Gets Three Banners

At the state convention of the Evangelical association held in Lincoln, the church at Murdock was successful in capturing three of the banners hung up for the best work of various auxiliaries of the church. The Woman's missionary society, which raised something over $2,000, received a banner for that. The Young People's association raised $840, and for this took the banner in their class. Then along came the Message Bearers with a report of having raised $160, which captured the banner for their society. Now it was not just luck that the banners all came to Murdock, for it took work and it took cash to swing the awards this way. They say "money talks," and it certainly does its share of hollering for Murdock. In all a total of some $3,000 was raised by the different auxiliaries during the year and the church is to be congratulated on having such willing workers and generous givers. In this connection it might be well to mention that a collection box is maintained at the Bauer store, for the relief of starving babies of foreign lands, including all countries of Europe. One cent will provide food for a baby one day. How many can you afford to feed daily?

Estray Notice

I have taken up on my farm four and one-half miles south of Murdock a hog weighing about 160 pounds. Owner please call, pay for keeping and get the hog.
WM. WESTFALL.

Stop the Decay.

While driving through the country I find many homes and barns needing painting badly. Ask us for estimates on work, also see us for paint if you desire to do the work. We will cheerfully furnish estimates either way. New building standing exposed to weather, unprotected, begins to decay at once. Protect them now. "Save the surface and you save all." Paint and varnish. This is a fine time to have your painting done, weather being all one could ask.
MAX DUSTERHOFF.

UNEARTHED SOME EVIDENCE OF A PLOT

Morgan Believes They Have Clue to Supposed Radicals—Plot Premeditated, Mead Declares

Hackensack, N. J., Sept. 17.—Identity of the blacksmith who shot the horse found dead near the scene of yesterday's explosion in New York's financial district, is known to the department of justice, according to a statement made here tonight by William M. Mead, chief clerk in the office of J. P. Morgan and company. This blacksmith he added, claims to know the man who owned the animal.

"We feel that the plot was premeditated," declared Mr. Mead, "and that a deliberate attempt was made to destroy the building of J. P. Morgan and company and to kill and injure as many people as possible. The most likely story of the explosion is that a red wagon drawn by a horse stopped at the left side of the curb facing east on Wall street and directly opposite the center of the Morgan building. Aman most likely then set a large bomb enclosed in the wagon to explode at 12 noon and the wagon walked away."

"We have found parts of the wagon and shoes of the horse. These shoes are expected to aid in solving the mystery of the tragedy for we have found the blacksmith who shot the horse and who claims to know the man who owns the animal."

"A peculiar incident of the whole affair, is that a letter was received on the fifteenth, the day before the explosion, warning everyone to stay away from Wall street between 2 and 3 o'clock on the sixteenth. This letter came from Buffalo and was sent by a lawyer who was believed to have been in the employ of a prominent foreign concern."

MARRIED THIS AFTERNOON

From Saturday's Daily. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short of this city departed for Omaha, where they went to be present at the wedding of their son, Earl Short to Miss Irene Craven, which occurred a three o'clock at the Saint Patrick Catholic church. Following the wedding was a reception tendered to the newly weds at the home of Mrs. Gorman, at 3320 Douglas street, Omaha. A fuller account of the wedding will be given in these columns at a later date.

George Everett was a visitor in Plattsmouth today, coming up from his home at Union in his car.

Frank Schlegle of Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in the city this afternoon, coming up to look after some business matters for a few hours.

J. H. Meyer and Fred McElevie both of Auburn, passed through this city from Omaha, driving to their home two cars which are for the garage at that place.

A. J. Harris and A. G. Hackenberg were passengers to Pacific Junction this afternoon, where they are attending the ball game which is to be played here Sunday afternoon between the Red Sox and the team from Thurman, Ia.

Care For That Corn!

This is the year in which we are blessed with a full crop. The small grains have been cared for; some of the wheat you had to put in the corn cribs. Now look for the biggest crop of corn in years. Prepare now to take care of it. We have an abundance of good crib lumber. Do not allow "Husking Time" to find you unprepared to properly care for the crop.
