Ed Lewis was a visitor in Plattsmouth Monday, going up to search for a suitable place to live, it being his intention to move to the county seat for the winter. In order that the children may have the school advantages, he has an offer of employment in the Burlington shops, but the matter of his moving hinges entirely on his ability to secure a suitable place in which to live...

Union Not Without Joy Earl Wolfe and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their home. The youngster came last Monday morning to give happiness and comfort to its parents. The whole household is surely happy over the arrival and all concerned are doing nicely. May the young man be a continual blessing to his parents and all with whom he may come in contact.

Fished in the Nishabotna E. E. Moore, an employee of the Willis garage, accompanied by his family, John Noel and J. T. Cooper and their families, drove into Iowa on a fishing trip last Friday. They crossed the river at Nebraska City and spent three days fishing in the Nishabotna river in the vicinity of Hamburg, Iowa, and the Missouri state line. The cool weather has stimulated fishing and the crappies are biting fine, so it scarcely seems necessary to state they enjoyed themselves a great deal, especially when we tell you that they caught upwards of ninety pounds of fish.

Announces Coming Marriage Cards are our announcing the coming marriage of Miss Dee Garrison, of Union, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison and Glen Todd, of Murray, which is to take place at the Garrison home on Wednesday, September 29th.

CORN! With a bumper corn crop coming on, now is the time to start that corn crib. The uncertainty of cars makes it doubly necessary for you to have ample storage room. Corn is very valuable property and should be properly cared for.

Union Plays at Julian With a number of the players gone and others on the sick list, the Union team managed to put up a very good exhibition of the national game last Sunday at Julian, when all the ex-officio and honorary members were pressed into service, regardless of whether they had had any practice this season or not...

Accidentally Drinks Poison Word was received here Monday telling of the accidental drinking of wood alcohol by Charles Woodward at his home in Crofton, Nebraska. Mr. Woodward had been taking medicine for some ailment and during the night when endeavoring to get the bottle of medicine he made a mistake and got the wood alcohol, a considerable amount of which he swallowed...

Epworth League Gives Picnic That the barriers might be broken and all given opportunity to mingle and will and become acquainted with each other, the teachers, as guests of honor, and the members of the Epworth League enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the home of Geo. Everett one night last week. The big feature of the occasion was a waffle roast, with popcorn balls and toasted marshmallows, which went to make up a very appetizing meal.

Met With Mrs. Hansel The W. C. T. U. society of Union met Tuesday of last week with Mrs. J. C. Hansel, where they enjoyed an excellent program, the leader being Mrs. J. C. Snavely. The subject was "Temperance and Labor." After a lengthy round-table discussion by the ladies, Mrs. Hansel served a delightful luncheon that was one of the crowning features of the afternoon.

Attended the Races. R. D. Shine, "Hek" Davis, Derwood Lynde, Wm. Irvin and O. T. Davis drove to Omaha Thursday last week and attended the Ak-Sar-Ben races, which they enjoyed very much.

Public Notice At a meeting of the village board of Union, a complaint having been filed against the practice of coasting on the side walks within the incorporated limits of the town, it was the sense of the Village Board that a request be made to parents and guardians of children that they forbid them from further use of the sidewalk for coasting.

VILLAGE BOARD. THE SWEETEST VOICE The famous French writer, Fontenelle says that we find no sweeter voice in all the world that which chants our praise. Among remedies there are a few preparations which can proudly say that they hear such sweet voices every day. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine has belonged to them for thirty years, because everybody who takes it must confess that there is no better remedy for stomach troubles, poor appetite, constipation, headaches, etc.

Appreciate Kindnesses Shown Them While Here Editor Journal: The twenty-ninth annual meeting of Cass county's W. C. T. U. has "home history" and I wish to add my appreciation and thanks to that of the Resolutions committee to all who so kindly contributed to its success; to the press for faithfully advertising and reporting its work; to the speakers and musicians who furnished entertainment for mind and ear; to those who contributed such profusion of flowers to please the eye, and "last but not least" the ladies who served such delicious "casts" and at the same time prepared for any emergency inviting as special guests the ministers, sheriff, county attorney and physician.

CASS COUNTY GIRL WEDDED IN HAWAII

Ceremony Performed at Fort Shafter That Unites Miss Mary Hungate and Lieut. F. W. Bennett.

An account of the wedding of Miss Mary Taylor Hungate, a graduate of Nebraska university and Lieutenant Floyd Wesley Bennett, which took place September 4, at Fort Shafter appeared in the Honolulu Star Bulletin. Miss Hungate, whose home was in Albion, Ia., was graduated from Nebraska university in 1915. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. The account follows: One of the prettiest wedding ceremonies ever performed at Fort Shafter, took place at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the nurses' quarters of the Tripler general hospital, when Miss Mary Taylor Hungate, dietitian of the medical department, U. S. A., and First Lieutenant Floyd Wesley Bennett, U. S. marine corps, were married. Official witnesses to the wedding were Miss Helen C. W. Hartman and Commander Philip Emrich of Pearl Harbor naval station. The Episcopal ring service was performed by Rev. J. Knox Bodal of Schofield barracks. Bennett's wedding march being played by Mrs. William Harding. The bride's only attendant was Little Miriam Emrich, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Philip Emrich, who carried the wedding ring in the center of an old-fashioned nosegay of pink and white flowers. The bride wore a pink and white dress sustained throughout—pink carnations and African daisies in the living room. A basket of sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses formed the centerpiece in the dining room. There were pink candles in crystal holders and a profusion of palms and ferns. The bride was dressed in pussy willow tulle, embroidered in silver. She wore a white angora and panne velvet toque to match, with a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses and orchids. The gift of the groom to his bride consisted of a white pearl ring in platinum with diamonds. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Hungate of Albion, Ia. She received her training as a dietitian at the state universities of Nebraska and Kansas, being graduated from the former with the degree of bachelor of arts in 1915. Entering the army service in the early part of 1916, she served as head dietitian at the American base hospital No. 51 in France for one year. Upon returning from Europe to the states she was sent to the Walter Reed general hospital in Washington, D. C., as head dietitian, being transferred to the national capital to the Hawaiian department in January of this year. Lieutenant Bennett received his preliminary training for the United States marine corps at the naval academy in Annapolis, Md., and served as captain in the Fifth regiment of the second division, American expeditionary forces, being transferred to the Hawaiian department in February of this year. THREE FORD DRIVERS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Find plenty of grief trying to navigate flivver with too many "white mules"

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday morning a craft of the species of "flivver" which was propelled by three young men whose erratic actions were dominated by two strong draughts of "white mules" steered their craft into the middle of Main street and being in a semi-conscious state, drifted about the city until the county attorney, who was notified, called officer Jones, who placed the three under arrest and housed them in the city "Bastille". Officer Jones and Chief Manspeaker, who has been on duty during the night, were both in bed and when notified, officer Jones got immediate action and placed the men in safe keeping. Chief Manspeaker was soon on the scene as well. One of the men, Humphrey Lynch, had sufficient money to meet the occasion, invested one hundred and five dollars in Plattsmouth bonds as a guarantee that he would appear for trial, when in reality it meant that he would not appear, but would forfeit the bonds. In the evening he returned with another one hundred and five dollars, which liberated John Jones and they departed for Omaha to secure the third levy of like amount to satisfy the dignity of the law in the case of Frank Ryan, who at this writing is still waiting for the necessary coin to give him his liberty. Better follow the advice of Ralph Waldo Emerson and hitch your wagon to a star and not "white mule."

FOOTBALL DAYS ARE FAST APPROACHING

For First Time in Number of Years This City Will Be the Center of Football Activities.

The members of the Plattsmouth high school, who are members of the football squad and a greater part of the boys of the school are interested in a greater or less degree in the work of the team. Mr. Bell, the director of athletics at the school is busy working out the squad and the line up for the opening game of the season has now been practically determined upon. The opening game will be held on Friday, October 1st, when the Ashland high school team comes down to battle with the local pig skin handlers, and the members of the school are anxiously awaiting the opening game to get a line on the playing ability of their team. This is the first time since 1907 that the Plattsmouth high school has had a foot ball team and known since 1914 that the game has been played in this city as the husky team of that season was the last effort to maintain the sport here, and a very fine showing was made by the team that year. The opportunity of enjoying the exciting sport will be very much appreciated by the lovers of the athletic sports.

RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

The announcement is made from Washington, D. C., of the appointment of Major Buehler Metcalfe, to be an assistant to the attorney general of the United States in the clearing of cases growing out of settlement of war claims and contracts. There have been but few men in the state of Nebraska that have enjoyed the popularity of "Ollie" Metcalfe and as a newspaper correspondent he was very prominent over the country prior to the war. At the outbreak of the war Mr. Metcalfe, who had been on the border in 1916 with the Nebraska national guard, was commissioned as captain in the 6th Nebraska infantry and assigned to the machine gun company of the regiment, and in which there were a large number of Cass county men. While at Camp Cody, Captain Metcalfe was transferred to the 133rd infantry when his company was made a part of the 126th machine gun battalion, and during the remainder of the stay of the division there Captain Metcalfe was acting as instructor in liaison work at the division schools. While at Camp Dix, N. J., he was promoted to the rank of major and sent to the general staff offices at Washington. Captain Metcalfe was very popular with the members of his organization and the associations were very pleasant between the men and their commanding officer.
