WILL PRESENT 'THE WISHING RING'

Loyal Workers of Christian Church Will Give Entertainment at Parmele, October 20 and 21.

"The Wishing Ring," a highly pleasing musical fantasy, is to be presented under the auspices of the Loyal Workers of the Christian Church at the Parmele Theater, October 20 and 21.

Amateur productions always attract most interest and the board desires to take advantage of this fact in presenting this pleasing composition.

"The Wishing Ring" is more than the average entertainment. It is a musical extravaganza and requires a large cast, elaborate costuming and much scenic lighting effects.

The production is somewhat on the order of "The Bluebird" and "Peter Pan". It represents the dream of two small children, who, wandering through "Story-hood Land" make the acquaintance of Simple Simon, Marjorie Daw and many others. The plot is consistent and clever, interspersed with tuneful music and pretty spectacular feature. The cast will contain about 150 people, representing Nymphs, Roses, Corn-flowers, Daisies, Sprites, Snow-drops, Suffragettes and many other interesting creatures of Story-book fame.

All of the principal roles are assigned and rehearsals will begin Monday evening, October 4th, at 7:30 at the Christian church.

ST. MARY'S GUILD ENJOYS FINE TIME

Mrs. J. H. Donnelly Hostess to Members of the Ladies Organization at Her Home in Omaha.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the St. Mary's Guild of St. Luke's church, enjoyed a most delightful entertainment as the guests of Mrs. James H. Donnelly at her home 911 Lathrop street, Omaha, and the occasion proved one of unforgettable pleasure to the ladies.

Mrs. Donnelly has been for many years closely identified with the work of the Guild while a resident of this city and her interest in the work of the organization is still very keen, and in order to enjoy one of the pleasant gatherings of the organization is noted for, Mrs. Donnelly had invited the old friends to meet at her home.

The trip from this city was made by auto, the members of the party leaving shortly after the noon hour. Almost every member of the guild was present and had a number of the friends who were invited to join the pleasant pilgrimage to the metropolis.

The beautiful Donnelly home was well filled with the guests and the natural beauty of the rooms enhanced by the use of cut flowers that added a pleasing touch to the scene.

The time was spent in visiting and two of the former members of the guild, residing in Omaha, Mrs. J. W. Peters and Mrs. Emily Plumage, were also in attendance to meet their former co-workers in the church activities. During the afternoon several very enjoyable minutes were spent in music, Mrs. Henry F. Goss presiding at the piano and the members of the party joining in singing the songs with which all were familiar.

At a suitable hour the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Gretchen and Miss Violet Dodge, as well as several of the Plattsmouth ladies, served a most dainty and delicious two-course luncheon that proved the climax of a day of the rarest enjoyment.

In addition to the Plattsmouth guests a number of the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Donnelly in Omaha were present to take part in the pleasant afternoon.

FUNERAL OF AUGUST NOLTING

The funeral of the late August Nolting will be held on Friday afternoon from the St. Paul's Evangelical church at 2:30. The cortege will leave the home west of the city at 2 o'clock for the church.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

The Henry Dooley home in South Park was the scene of a pleasant surprise. The occasion being the little son, Kenneth Clair's 6th birthday, when thirty of his little friends came. He received several nice presents from them. The afternoon was spent in games and music, being much enjoyed by the little folks. Mrs. Wu, Folk assisted Mrs. Dooley in entertaining the children. Ice cream and cake was served. A little token was given to each of the little ones as a remembrance.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION FROM GREENWOOD FIRM

To our friends and patrons of Greenwood and vicinity: At this time we take the opportunity to thank you for your generous patronage during the season just passed.

Since we are better equipped with our newly installed machine and our up-to-date business methods, we extend a hearty invitation to you for your continued patronage and we will render our same unexcelled service.

Come in and place your order for the winter's supply of fruits and vegetables. As we purchased heavily before the sharp advance in staples last spring, we are amply prepared to take care of your needs.

We have just unloaded a car of salt, consisting of crystallized blocks, barrel, table and a specially prepared salt for the curing of meats. Thanking you again, we are, At your service, NEWKIRK MEAT MARKET.

Mrs. W. F. Nolte and little child were passengers this afternoon for Omaha to spend a few hours in that city consulting a specialist.

CONGOLEUM

GOLD SEAL ART-RUGS

"That Seal Guarantees you Satisfaction,"—says the salesman as he points to it on the rug.

"We have no hesitation in recommending CongoLeum Art-Rugs because nothing else serves so well where a low-priced, long-wearing floor-covering is desired.

"They are waterproof, sanitary, and quickly cleaned with a damp mop. The smooth firm surface does not take up dirt or stains.

"They are wonderfully beautiful and in good taste for every room."

"Every one is sold on the basis of Satisfaction Guaranteed or your Money Refunded."

SECURES A DECREE

The case of Claus Speck vs. Charles Hixon, in which the plaintiff asked that the defendant be ordered to turn over to the plaintiff the real and personal property belonging to the plaintiff and of which Mr. Hixon had possession. In the petition of the plaintiff it was stated that in March 1916 an oral agreement had been entered into by the plaintiff and the defendant and in which the defendant was to farm the land of the plaintiff who was to supply all stock, machinery and supplies, and the defendant was to share in the profits of the farm. It was alleged that the defendant had failed to turn over a part of the proceeds of the farm and the plaintiff asked full possession of the farm and stock. The court found in favor of the plaintiff in the case, the defendant defaulting, and the possession of the farm and stock and a judgment for $428.71 in favor of the plaintiff entered.

FENCE YOUR FARM THE APEX WAY DON'T WASTE TIME AND MONEY DIGGING POST HOLES

APEX Steel Drive Posts

Apex Posts are Easy to Set and They Last Twice as Long as Wooden Posts

WHEN ordinary posts are used it takes many days and sometimes many weeks to build fences. Many farmers have been neglecting to make necessary fencing improvements because of the time and expense connected with getting the posts set. And time is figured a mighty big expense by progressive Farmers. It only takes a few hours to set a line of Apex Steel Posts—they are driven into place with a few strokes of the sledge as you unload them from the wagon.

Apex Posts are Real Economy They are big, strong, heavy gauge posts—with a ground bar brace that keeps the post permanently plumb.

Take no substitutes for the genuine Apex Steel Drive Posts
