M. E. Church Notes

Sunday, October 10th was rally day for the Sunday school. A pageant entitled "The Coming of Truth" was given during the hour usually devoted to the Sunday school and morning worship.

Beginning next Sunday, October 17th, we are to conduct a series of special meetings, continuing till November 3rd. Miss Jennie Brubaker of Omaha, a trained deaconess, will be with us during the entire time. Also we are to have with us during the first week, a minister from one of our churches in nearby towns, a different one each night. This will give you a chance to hear some of the best talent we have, and we anticipate some stirring messages. Will you not plan your work so as to take part in these meetings, and get all the good for yourselves and children that they ought to provide?

Again I wish to state that this church and its pastor stand in this community to be of all the service possible, in every way possible. If we can be of service to you in any way, please let us know. We will do the best we can. It looks like the immediate future holds serious problems in store for us. We believe that the things the church stands for will be of the greatest service in these critical times. Let us try God's method of solving and meeting these things. Sincerely yours,

ERNEST A. KNIGHT,
Minister.

Last week while we were in Elmwood, I noticed a car standing on the street, which looked like it was old enough to vote, and making an inquiry, we were informed that it was of the vintage of 1904, and a charm drive brush, which indeed looked like it had had many a brush, with hard usage and had not entirely recovered either. Still the brush was running and giving excellent service at that. It was said that it was the car which Dr. Jones, who lived in Murdock a number of years ago, has owned and operated when he was practicing medicine.

"MADE LIFE WORTH LIVING" SHE SAYS

Felt Like She Couldn't Stand Her Troubles Much Longer, Says Burlington Woman.

"Since I started taking Tanlac, I have already gained fifteen pounds in weight," said Mrs. J. M. Madsen, R. P. D. No. 2, Burlington, Iowa.

"About seven years ago I began to suffer with indigestion and I suffered so much that I was afraid to eat anything at all. I was gradually losing weight and going down hill all the time. A little over a year ago I had an attack of influenza that left me almost a nervous wreck. I was subject to constant sick headaches and spells of dizziness that made me so faint I couldn't carry on my housework. I was very nervous and restless and many a night I would get up out of bed and walk the floor and in the mornings I felt completely exhausted. My nerves were so unstrung that I felt I could not stand it much longer.

"I decided to try Tanlac and with the very first bottle I began to feel better. I have taken seven bottles now and I feel like an entirely different woman. My appetite is just fine and I can eat anything I want, and nothing ever disagrees with me. I am free from those awful sick headaches and fainting spells. I sleep like a baby at night and wake up in the morning with more energy and vitality than I ever had before in my life, and it is now a real pleasure for me to do my housework. I advise anyone who is in the condition I was to take Tanlac. It has certainly made life worth living for me."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke and Company; in Murray by the Murray Drug company, and the leading druggist in every town.

The only attendants at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Geary and Miss Mary Wetenkamp and the family of Rev. Pontius. Following the ceremony the members of the party adjourned to the C. D. Geary home where the newly weds will enjoy an over Sunday visit and will return to their future home in the metropolis Sunday evening. Mr. Manners and family had been at Alvo and were returning home when meeting an auto going the opposite direction, and to avoid this car, Mr. Manners endeavored to turn to the right and was compelled to take the side of the road where there is a ditch or risk a collision with the other car.
