Entertained Murray Teachers

Last Friday evening the Community Club of Murray gave an entertainment in Plus and Gansmer hall in honor of the teachers of the Murray schools, and all the districts surrounding Murray. The Caldwell orchestra of Plattsmouth, entertained with several numbers of delightful music. The weather that evening was delightful for joy riding, making it possible for the people from the surrounding districts to be present on this occasion. It was, perhaps, the largest number of people ever gathered in the hall.

Mrs. Pauline Young gave the address of welcome and Miss Van Duzen, our principal, responded felicitously.

Miss Peterson, county superintendent, talked on the subject of "Parents and Teachers Club Meetings." Mr. DeWitt Hatt gave a short but very appropriate talk on co-operation of parents, teachers and children.

Refreshments were served after the "bread line" to make it possible for the waiters to serve all the guests.

Nearly all the members of the boards of six districts were present, and were honored with front seats. All the ten lady teachers present were seated on the platform; and may we be permitted to say, presented a fine appearance.

The ladies of our community deserve much praise for getting up this joyful reception for our teachers, who are imparting knowledge to our children that will be useful to them through life.

An expression of thanks was given the Caldwell orchestra for their part in making this entertainment a success.

Collision of Cars at Crossing
At the same time McGinnis Churchill was driving east and passing the crossing where Frank Reed lives, nearly a mile east of Murray, the road maintaining truck was going south and they collided at the crossing with the result that the light car driven by Mr. Churchill was caught on the side and pushed some twenty feet before the truck could be stopped, as the brakes failed to work promptly. Considerable damage was done to the car but as the truck was heavier and was not struck in a vital point, was uninjured.

Enjoy Pleasant Afternoon
The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church of Murray, were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. C. C. Carroll and assistant hostesses. The afternoon was occupied by the ladies in looking after the work of the meeting and devising plans for the work of the church. A delightful program was had and the very pleasant afternoon brought to a delightful ending by one of the most exquisite luncheons that could be served. Something near seventy members of the society and their friends were in attendance.

Cars More Plentiful
With the decline of the prices of grain, there is no more cars for the moving of what is offered. Last Tuesday for the first time, Manager T. S. Barrows of the Farmer's Elevator company of Murray, was not wanting cars for shipping grain, it being the first time for more than a year.

Grading Done For Walks
Through the kindness of Frank and Joseph Marsok, W. H. Puls, George Nickles, John Farris, G. M. Minford, and W. G. Boedeker and others, the strip of land on which the walk leading to the school, was graded last week and placed in readiness for the laying of the cement walk which is to be built.

Home Again and Mac Happy
Mrs. G. W. McCracken and little daughter Elizabeth, who have been visiting at their former home at Orient for the past two or three weeks, returned home last Saturday evening and were met in Omaha by Mr. McCracken, who could not see much joy in life running to the drug store and home without seeing the wife and little Elizabeth. All is serene now and life goes along like a song.

Young Man Schafer is Here.
Philip Schafer, that wholesome young man, who is always the embodiment of good nature, is a bit more blithe than usual just now, and all on account of the arrival of an eight pound boy which arrived direct from his storkship last Saturday evening. Both the father and mother are happy and the baby is doing nicely.

Mrs. Harry McCarroll Better
Mrs. Harry McCarroll, who has been very sick at her home near Union, is reported as being considerably improved, but still suffering and not as yet well. It is hoped by her many friends that this good lady will continue to improve and that she may soon be enjoying her accustomed health.

Will Erect Tanks Here.
The Standard Oil company has unloaded tanks at Murray and will have foundations therefor constructed as soon as they can get their masons here to do the work. When this work is completed, they will open a general distributing station here. It is not expected a filling station will be installed for the time being, as the cars will be unloaded and the tanks looked after in the beginning by representatives of the Plattsmouth office.

A Boy and Some Joy.
Frank Marler, who was a member of the 89th division and occupied a position as wagoner, one of the really dangerous places in army life, is rejoicing over the arrival of a young American, who has come to call him father. There is sure joy in the household over the arrival of this youngster and all concerned are getting along nicely.
