Success for Governor Cox looks brighter every day.
 Sugar is down to $14.50 wholesale. Its time long-sweetening was also taking a tumble.
 Census figures are mighty uninteresting after you know the population of your own home town.
 It was an unfeeling married man who declared that his wife is pensive when she is expensive.

With 27,000,000 women voting, approximately 25 carloads of paper will be used for ballots.
 Marse Henry Watterson says write it "Unbeatable Cox" and Marse Henry is a mighty good political forecaster.
 A month from now, the papers will be full of post election editorials, telling what happened, and how and why.

Judge Wray, candidate for governor will get a good many votes in Cass county, but hardly enough to elect him.
 Pershing has been decorated again. It is fortunate that he has a broad chest on which to carry all his ribbons and medals.

Jim Reed says that John Sharp Williams' talk about a "Senatorial Oligarchy is all rot. What is it, then, Mr. Reed? Pray tell us.
 An Englishman preparing to commit suicide wrote his farewell in seven languages. He evidently had a cosmopolitan bunch of friends.

The republican party does not expect to elect Harding by discussing the issue but expect to elect him by flooding the country with money.
 Just as soon as we can find time we are going to write a song entitled, "It's Hell to Be Leiserson". It will be sung as a solo by William J. Bryan.

The foreign commerce of the Latin-American republics last year aggregated almost $5,000,000,000 against slightly less than $3,000,000,000 in 1913.
 Mr. Edison's invention by which one may communicate with the dead may, if perfected to a high degree be useful in getting central after 8 o'clock at night.

A salesman who makes his territory in a motor car tells the Journal he wishes the farmers would cut their corn so the traveling men can find the small towns.
 The farmers or the south who are crying for forty cent cotton have a long wet spell ahead. Cotton may go higher, but it will not reach the forty cent mark.

Harding showed cowardice in not attempting to answer the questions propounded by the World Herald. Why? Because he could not, and dared not attempt it.
 A shipment of $10,000,000 in gold arrived here a few days ago on the steamer Olympic from Cherbourg and Southampton. Most of the bullion was consigned by the Bank of England to the Federal Reserve Bank.

Governor Morehead paid a high compliment to Judge Wray, non-partisan league candidate for governor, in his speech Friday night. He said he was a clean, good man, and very popular in his home county and vicinity.
 "Making Laundrying An Art," says a headline. A great relief to everybody if laundry drops back to art rates. Lately laundry prices have been climbing up almost to a level with the huge sums commanded by cobblers and tailors.

Lord Mayor MacSwiney, who laid old "Doc" Tanner in the shade a long time ago, as a long distance faster, is still "weak but conscious," firm in the conviction that he can hold out "sometime longer" and then get well if the British government will just turn him out of jail.

Perhaps the matter could be compromised by supplying Senator Harding with a portable front porch.
 It is foolish to expect Harding to keep the peace of the world. He can't even keep peace in the republican party.
 Every once in a while and occasionally from now on you are going to hear something drop with a dull, sickening thud.

The upward march of women's skirts must be stopped or they will not be able to wear their husbands' socks any longer.
 Russia went "dry" October 21, 1914. Just think of the condition some of the "old soaks" must be after all these years of "dry rot."

The navy has turned the old battleship Massachusetts over to the army to be used as a target for trying out the 12-inch coast-defense guns at Pensacola.
 Newspaper editorial says "Mayor MacSwiney is giving us the latest wrinkle in self-determination." It would be more appropriate to say self-extinction.

Uncle Sam reduced his gross debt $237,000,000 during the month of September. Uncle Sam is getting along so well financially that he can afford to drop taxes a few pags.
 The women who managed suffrage campaign in Nebraska accomplished one thing, anyhow. They gave their male friends an example of organization and executive ability that will stand as a record for years to come.

A New York girl is suing a medical specialist in that city for $75,000 because he bit her on the neck. Before passing judgment on the merits of the claim we would have to see the neck. However, it must be admitted that $75,000 is rather a stiff price for just one bite.
 Those who weep for the death of baseball at the hands of gambling assassins may still derive considerable comfort from the fact that several men like Charles Comiskey are still alive—and furthermore, that Comiskey is still in the game, and the Attels and Cicottes and Jacksons are out.

A few articles are being excerpted from the clothing cut price sales "as the prices of those garments are fixed, retail as well as wholesale, arbitrarily by the manufacturers." The supreme court has ruled this practice unlawful, but evidently the ruling was much less arbitrary.
 "It's an awful thing for a young girl who thinks she is doing a sensible thing by getting married to realize inside the first twenty-four hours that she has made a terrible mistake." Like a bolt out of a clear sky the blow comes, for the husband in the case is Kid McCoy, who had married only eight women before her.

The Journal has at last hit upon a plan for estimating the feminine vote in the next election. If it's any help to the professional politicians of either party they are advised! You can figure just what to expect of the feminine vote if you can tell which ones are going to vote the way their husbands vote and which ones will vote a certain way just to kill the husband's vote.
 Since Senator Harding has declared himself emphatically against the league of nations, 20,000 women voters have come out in favor of Governor Cox and the league of nations. Women generally all over the country are for the league of nations, and since the senator spoke in Omaha, many male voters have changed from Harding to Cox.

In the death of Judge Estelle, Omaha loses one of the most prominent citizens and lawyer. He was dean of the district court, and had been on the bench for many years. He was a gentleman in every sense of the term and was loved by every one who knew him. The writer knew Judge Estelle personally, and we deeply regret his demise.

HOW MONEY RAISED WILL BE SPENT

Salvation Army Tells of Work That Will Require Funds—Plattsmouth's Share is $800.

The financial appeal made by the Nebraska State Salvation Army Advisory Board comprised of Messrs. Hon. A. L. Sutton, chairman; Robert S. Trimble, Robert H. Manley, John W. Gamble, Hon. John L. Kennedy, A. C. Scott, Dr. E. C. Henry, Hon. Charles Leslie, Hon. W. G. Sears, H. R. Bowen, Joseph Rapp, Dr. Floyd Clark, Dr. S. McElonehan, Allen H. Turkey, Walter W. Head, Hon. Ed. P. Smith, J. W. Patterson and Hon. Lincoln Frost, is generally regarded throughout Nebraska as a very fair and economical appeal, the total amount asked, $219,798, being a little more than a third of the amount requested last year. Furthermore, the quotas was assigned this year by the State Advisory Board on a per capita basis, so that each county is asked to pay its share regardless of the amount contributed last year.

The careful studies made by the various county Advisory Boards show that it will be necessary for the Salvation Army to care for 200 girl mothers and their children this coming year. To adequately care for them the Advisory Board is asking for $65,549 to provide a building that will be available within a few months. For the maintenance of this property $17,500 is asked, making a total of $83,049 to redeem 200 repentant Magdalenes.

To care for their disabled officers who cannot save money on their inadequate salaries, the Advisory Board has requested $3,000.
 Each city in Nebraska which has a local corps of Salvation Army workers will be asked to support that corps, in addition to the state budget.

To cover all emergency relief and to handle additional relief work that comes in each county where there is no corps established, $15,000 is asked.
 $6,200 is asked for administration purpose.
 For training officers for Nebraska, to administer men's social work, women's social work, young people and children's work, the Free Legal Aid Bureau, the missing friend and relative bureau, the county welfare bureau, and the anti-suicide bureau, $4,000 is asked.

Convinced that many young girls are led into lives of shame largely because of improper surroundings in large cities, the Salvation Army will have a boarding home in Omaha, the lot purchased from the fund raised last year. Here young women and girls from the various counties in the state, exclusive of Douglas county, may secure homelike environment, three good meals a day, a private room and laundry facilities at from $7 to $10 per week. This home will be self-supporting.

WILL ORGANIZE FOR WORK

The Boy Scouts, who have been long forward to the commencement of the winter work, will have an opportunity to get busy at once. Scoutmaster Rev. A. V. Hunter announces that the scouts will meet with him at the high school tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock to perfect their plans for the winter season. All members are requested to be present as the matters to be taken up are important and every scout should be interested. A very interesting season of work is planned.

 You will then deliver such certificate to the county treasurer with proper fee to re-register such car in his own name. A dealer should follow this same procedure, the only difference being that there is no fee as per Sec. 13, charged against the dealer for a new dealers certificate.

Fred Leidig was up from Hickman Sunday and Monday loading his household goods and moving to his new home. He thinks he is going to like it fine down there.
 S. E. Allen and wife returned last Friday on a three month's visit with relatives in Canada. They enjoyed the trip and the visit while there, but are glad to get back home again.

George Trunkenholz has rented the building recently vacated as temporary quarters for the Bank of Eagle and has opened an auto garage and repair shop.

 A shocking accident occurred on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Westlake, which might easily have proven fatal. Mr. Westlake went to back his car out of the garage when, without his knowledge, his little one-year-old baby toddled into the doorway and was struck. The car passed over the baby's ankle, crushing it badly and bruised his head somewhat. It was feared there might be internal injuries, but Dr. Longacre says a careful examination does not reveal such.

Carl Ankersen went to Omaha Saturday to have an x-ray taken of his wrist, which showed that the bone was broken. Carl remained at the hospital several days for treatment.

Tuesday, Rev. N. F. Horn and several members of the Christian church met at Mrs. Upham's home on main street and weather boarded the east side of her building, putting building paper underneath it. When the building on the corner was torn down it left her building exposed making it very cold. These kind hearted gentlemen evolved this plan to make Mrs. Upham comfortable and their kindness will always be remembered by her. Such deeds exemplify the spirit of the Master and make religion a practical thing to be desired.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stoner was celebrated the end of the past week with a family dinner and reunion of it left her building exposed making it very cold. LOUISVILLE

Courier

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Seybert and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Bethany, drove down last Sunday for a visit with old time friends and neighbors. They were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Reinhart and supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Nichols.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Lehnhoff and family of Lincoln drove down Sunday to visit with their relatives in the country and were dinner guests at the home of their cousin, Henry Ossenkop. Dr. Lehnhoff's visit was also professional as he came to see his uncle, John Ossenkop, who is in failing health and is in a serious condition at the home of his son, Edward in the country. He has been under the care of a man nurse, but he was obliged to go to do hospital work and Dr. Lehnhoff sent down a woman nurse, who is giving Mr. Ossenkop excellent care.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dunn have returned from an auto trip to Iowa, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Guy Stiekmeier and family, at Bedford, Iowa. They were accompanied on the trip by their daughters and sons-in-law, who were here visiting them, making a family party. Those who drove with them were Mr. and Mrs. John Slander and little son, Frank of Louisville; Mrs. Claude Brand of Nehawka, and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Sinsabaugh, of Topeka, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Stiekmeier formerly lived in Louisville, but returned to Mr. Stiekmeier's old home in Iowa about ten years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and party also visited other points in Iowa, including Clarinda, Shambaugh, Shenandoah and Gladwin. They found the Iowa roads smooth and beautiful and say it was a great pleasure to travel over them.

Dr. B. F. Brendel, the veteran physician of Murray, was in Louisville Monday looking over the political field. Dr. Brendel is the democratic nominee for state representative from the Seventh representative district. He tells us that he has never before asked for a political office and that it was only by the urgent appeal of his friends that he filed for the position, and then only when he saw that other name had been filed on the evening of the last day of filing. In fact County Clerk Sayles was called from his home at 9 o'clock at night to go to the court house to record the filing. Politically, Dr. Brendel is on the wrong side of the fence for the Courier to give him its support, yet we feel free to say that should he override the republican landslide that seems inevitable this fall, he will represent the people of Cass county fairly, impartially and intelligently.

COUNTIES SUED FOR DEATH OF WIFE AND BABE
 Tecumseh, Neb., Oct. 12.—Suits aggregating $50,890 for damages have been filed in the district court at Auburn and Falls City against Nemaha and Richardson counties, jointly. The plaintiff in these cases is Ray Hanika, a Nemaha county farmer.

With his wife and baby Hanika was driving in an automobile along the road which constitutes the line between the counties. A cave-in in the bridge approach extending into the roadway was not marked and could not be seen by an automobile driver. Hanika alleges. His car struck this approach and rolled down an embankment. Mrs. Hanika and the baby were killed and the plaintiff claims he was seriously injured.

The confessions are said to have implicated officials of several distilling companies and politicians at various parts of the country and to have revealed plans to make Chicago the center of their proposed scheme. The information placed at the disposal of the federal authorities by Sadler is said to have disclosed the bootlegging already carried on in Chicago by the whisky ring and been so extensive as to have netted those engaged in the operation close to $1,000,000.

 Chicago, Oct. 12.—Government investigation of the activities of a ring of whisky dealers operating on a national scale has begun as the result of confessions obtained from several Chicago saloon keepers, it was declared by federal agents today.

MASONIC INSTRUCTION SCHOOL AT YORK ENDS
 York, Neb., Oct. 12.—The Masonic school of instruction which has been in progress the past two days came to a close yesterday. The school was in charge of Robert E. French of Kearney, grand custodian. Grand Master Joseph Vranichburg was present for a part of the sessions, as was also a large delegation from other lodges in this part of the state. A banquet was served by the York lodge to the visitors at which about 200 were seated. At the conclusion of the banquet the master's degree was conferred on one candidate.

FRENCH CABINET ACTS TO CUT COST OF LIVING
 Paris, Oct. 12.—The cabinet today adopted a program to reduce the high cost of living in France. Departmental councils of consumers are to be established with a central council in Paris.

The use of fish is to be encouraged and many fish markets will be opened, while the exportation of dairy products and cheese will be prohibited. The importation of frozen meats has increased and the system of distribution has been improved.

Approval of a ban on serving meals during the evening in hotels and restaurants was not adopted because it was thought the measure would only increase the prices of substitutes. Stricter enforcement of food laws and suppression of profiteering has been promised by the cabinet.
