Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

C. W. Clarke was looking after some business matters in Omaha a few days last week.

Orville McQuinn was a visitor in Omaha last Saturday, where he was looking after some business matters, driving up in his car.

H. H. Griffin, who has made his home in Union for the past few years, has moved to Nehawka, where he expects to reside in the future.

L. V. Davis, the well-known man from Elmwood, was a visitor in Union for a short time last Monday, driving over in his car to look after some business matters.

L. G. Todd and family visited at the home of Henry Born and family near Plattsmouth last Sunday, driving over in their car in the morning and returning home in the evening.

J. T. Reynolds, who lives southwest of Union and Oscar Hoback, who makes his home just over the line in Otoe county, shipped a car of cattle from Union to the Omaha market last Monday.

Robert Eaton began picking corn last Monday for Charles Bordman, who lives just across the county line in Otoe county. Bob is a worker and will make a good record in the corn field this autumn.

Mrs. Charles Hoback and little son, who are making their home with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, with the latter spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hoback, where they were dinner guests.

Joe Hill and brother shelled and delivered their last year's corn crop to the Farmers elevator last Monday. Although the corn is of excellent quality the present market price is only 65 cents as against almost $2 some time ago when cars could not be assured in which to ship it.

People from Omaha were in Union last Monday with a car of potatoes, which were sold from the car at $1.50 per bushel. Many people were buying at this price. We understand the local merchants have contracted for a car or more which will be offered at the same price.

Earl McGinnis and M. R. Jones, of Nebraska City, while on their way home from Omaha last Monday, hurried out the bearings of their motor-car north of town and had to go on home on the train. Securing a car they returned and got the damaged machine, stopping at Union to get about getting the motor repaired.

George H. Shrader, living a few miles north of town, was in last Monday morning securing some material for use in painting both his house and barn. Mr. Shrader is one who believes the matter of keeping his buildings well painted is the best insurance known against decay. He is painting the house white and the barn red, which makes a very pleasing contrast.

Will S. Hoback and two sons, John and Charles, departed a short time ago in their car for Kearney, where they visited at the home of Charles Hoback, Sr., who is a brother of Will Hoback of this place. They have been enjoying some excellent shooting during their stay in the west, having taken along their guns for the purpose of hunting.

Shown Some Fine Tubers
At the Bank of Union we saw some excellent samples of potatoes which were raised by Loy Clarence and brought from his home near Arriba, Col. by his father, John Clarence Upton weighing the largest of the bunch it was found to tip the scales at one pound and twelve ounces, while a good many of the others went well over the pound mark.

Last Sunday a number of people from the vicinity of Union went to Plattsmouth, where they spent the afternoon attending the reunion of the Frans family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. They returned home late at night, with a kindly feeling toward Miss Shackley for having provided them with such a pleasant occasion.

Grade Scholars Have Picnic
Those students in the city schools whose destinies are decided over by Miss Eva Shackley, together with their teacher repaired last Friday evening to the old settlers' picnic grounds, where they enjoyed a picnic and general good time. They returned home late at night, with a kindly feeling toward Miss Shackley for having provided them with such a pleasant occasion.

Enjoyed Visit With Friends
Last Thursday H. J. Miller and family were hosts to Oliver Miller and family, of Wabash and Ezra Miller and family of Chappel, who are visiting at the home of Ezra's parents, Oliver Miller and wife at Manly. They are brother and nephews of H. J. Miller and enjoyed their stay here very much.

Will Have Rally Day Sunday
The Methodist church will observe Sunday as rally day in all departments. The first meeting of the day will be that of the Bible school, and for this there has been sent out some hundred invitation cards. Following the Sunday school hour will be delivered the morning address by Rev. J. B. Kearns of University Place. During the afternoon the young peoples society will meet at its regular time and in the evening the Epworth League, followed by the regular service. It is hoped to have a large turn out at each and every one of these scheduled meetings.

Mrs. Becker Some Better
Mrs. A. L. Becker, who has been sick at her home northeast of town for the past few weeks and who has been nursed by her daughter, Miss Mary Becker, is reported as being so far improved that she was able to sit up in bed last Saturday and Sunday was able to be placed in her chair for a short time while her bed was rearranged. The many friends of this excellent woman will be pleased to learn of her improvement.

Secured Good Practice
H. J. Miller took a pretty good lesson in driving an auto last Monday when he went the round with Derwood Lynde, carrying the mail. This was the most that Mr. Miller had driven a car and afforded him excellent practice, starting and stopping at the different boxes, for the roads in many places are hilly enough to require using the brake whenever a stop is made.

Will Saw Wood and Say Much
The old saying of saw wood and say nothing is bunk. Especially is this true if your sawing is done by Blair Porter and Jay Austin. These enterprising gentlemen have been busy getting their machinery in condition and have their saw mounted to trucks, so it may be pulled anywhere there is a sufficient quantity of wood to be worked up. They will saw your wood all right, but while doing so they will say a "mouthful" too.

THE DAY OF ELECTION IS NEAR.

National elections tops everything now. Your mail is full of political pamphlets and cards, and you are ruminating for whom you should vote. Indeed it is difficult to decide, because so many issues are not clear enough. The situation is quite different, if you have to decide what remedy you should buy in case of stomach troubles. Here you know that there is only one dependable remedy, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. Everybody who takes it once will never think of trying some other preparation, because he will feel like Mr. George Ivich, who wrote us from St. Louis, Mo., on September 1, 1920: "Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine sure does me good." Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic is another excellent remedy. A reliable tonic is a necessity to repair exhaustion, rebuild vitality and brace up the nerves. Your dealer in medicine has these remedies in stock for you.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-45 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Will Engage in Dairy Business
Charles Bordman, who has been making his home on the bottoms southeast of Union, where he has been farming just over the line in Otoe county, has purchased a place for himself, known for some time as the Joshua Lynn place, and which lays just outside of Union to the northwest, where he will move in the near future and engage in the dairy business. The place has been occupied by H. G. Griffin.

Will Have Two Cars of Apples
R. D. Stine, the enterprising merchant, has contracted for apples to be shipped to Union, which are to be of excellent quality, hand picked and to be retailed from the car at $1.50 per bushel.

Began Picking His Corn
George H. Shrader began the task of picking his corn last Monday. He is the first we have heard of to commence, but as he has a lot of it to gather, and plenty of dry crib room in which to store it, he thought it advisable to get an early start.

RECOVERS STOLEN CAR
While attending a horse sale at Murray several weeks ago, Henry Timm suffered the loss of his automobile that he had left parked in the street in that village, and there was no trace to be found of the missing gas wagon. Sheriff C. D. Quinton has been working on the case at Council Bluffs. The sheriff at once informed Mr. Timm of the good news and the owner feels very well pleased over securing his car that had been figured as gone for good. The car, it is claimed, is in the possession of a man from Kansas City, who secured it after the car had been placed on the market by the party taking it. While the man who swiped the car has now been apprehended the owner is satisfied in getting the machine back in his possession.

the Union grounds. At the end of the ninth inning the score was found to stand seven to seven. In their half of the tenth the visitors were able to add two runs to their total, while the home team was not so fortunate. The final result of the game, therefore, was 9 to 7, in favor of the boys from Iowa.

Need of More Seats
At the Sciota school southeast of Union, where a Bible school class has recently been organized and church services are held Sundays, there are times when the limited seating space will not accommodate the congregation gathering there for worship. Many are said to be staying away on account of this fact and it would be a good idea if some one could solve the problem of providing greater seating capacity and more room.
