ARGUES AGAINST FEDERAL CONTROL

President of Business Association Believes It Would be Forerunner of Worse Things.

New York, Oct. 14.-Return of New York. Oct. 14.—Return of presentation of claims against said es tion would be but the forerunner of of October, A. D. 1928, and the tin federal control of the fundamental limited for payment of debts is of sources of production such as steel, year from said 5th day of October coal and copper, declared Alba B. Witness my hand and the sent of Johnson of Philadelphia, president said County Court, this 4th day of of the railway business association, September, 1920. n an address tonight at a banquet (Scal) s13-4w. of the American manufacturers' ex-

"The national welfare requires us to stabilize the railway situation," said Mr. Johnson, "because we are to in a conflict to preserve the principle of individual ownership of property and of individual opportunity. The railways are the first trench."

The speaker said his address could be summed up in "a golden text" as follows: "Transportation is a business. It is the business of business men to put the transportation business on a business basis. Let us get business with a business program for

Mr. Reeves said that in this country there is one automobile for every fourteen inhabitants whereas in the remainder of the orld there is only one car for every .840 inhabitants.

American automobile manufacturers, Mr. Reeves declared, favor allowing foreign-built cars to enter he United States on the same terms that American cars are allowed to enter other countries.

L. S. Rowe, newly appointed diector general of the Pan-American mion, told the exporters that capi tal must be more freely invested in Latin-America before American trade can hope to obtain a permanent foothold in these countries.

Otto H. Kahn, financier, speaking at the afternoon session, advocated a taxation revision and recommended hat congressional committees b authorized by the law to have as sociate or auxiliary members who could attend all hearings and make actober, 1929, and for discharge and authoritative reports. He said that attendance of senators and representatives at committee hearings was "necessarily sporadic" because of the press of other duties.

Mrs. F. A. Stohlman Returns From 3 Months' Tour-Visits Many Points of Interest.

Mrs. F. A. Stohlman returned las week from a three months' tour or the Pacific Northwest. Mrs. Stohl man left several months ago to visit her daughter, Msr. H. A. Fisher, who In the matter of the estate of Em- resides with her husband, Rev. II. A. Fisher in Pocatello, Idaho. While in the west she visited many points of interest and saw scenery which is second to none in the world.

Shortly after coming to Pocatello. Mrs. Stohlman went to Yellowstone 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m., is assigned National Park, a distance of about for hearing said petition, when all 160 miles from Pocatello. Tourists

On the way back to Pocatello, Mrs. Stohlman stopped off at Idaho Falls me of Idaho's rich fruit and farming ountries. Here she was met by Rev which was celebrated out in a grove and Rev. Fisher preached the mission sermon on that Sunday.

On Monday morning three cars left Idaho Falls headed for Heise Ho Springs, 300 miles away. The deep and swift Snake river had to be crossed on a ferry boat. Dinner was eaten in the timber and then the party numbering 14, including Mrs. Stohlman and Rev. and Mrs. Fisher. began to climb mountains and cliffs about 4,000 feet high. It was a wonderful scene from the top of the heights. Looking down a solid wall of rock about 3,000 feet, the mile roads in the distance appeared like city blocks. After coming down from the mountains all went for a dip in the natural hot water natatorium. The following day the part; left again for Pocatello after a most enjoyable trip.- Louisville Courier.
