

ARRESTED FOR TRANSPORTATION OF BOOZE

TED LEWIS, CLAIMING NEBRASKA CITY AS HOME, GIVEN JOLT IN COUNTY COURT.

From Monday's Daily. This morning in county court before Judge Beeson, a young man giving the name of Ted Lewis and his residence as Nebraska City, was brought before the court charged with transporting liquor contrary to the law of the state of Nebraska.

The capture of Lewis occurred last evening when County Attorney Cole and Sheriff Quinton gave chase to the Ford sedan of the prisoner and overhauled him near the Allison farm south of Murray. The two officers were out motoring and while at Murray saw the gentleman who was suspected of being engaged in the transportation of the contraband juice of the corn accordingly when Lewis saw the officers he decided that what he needed was solitude and lots of it and accordingly hit for the road in his car with the officers making a close second.

RED CROSS TO MEET AT WEeping WATER

On Saturday Afternoon, October 23, at 3 o'clock—Meeting is to Arrange for 4th Roll Call.

The various Red Crosses branches of Cass county will meet at Weeping Water on Saturday afternoon, October 23rd, to arrange for the Fourth roll call and for the election of officers for the ensuing year. It is hoped to have a full meeting at this time in order that the plans for the coming year. It is hoped to have a full meeting at this time in order that the plans for the coming year may be fully discussed.

The home service department of the Red Cross is becoming one of the most important branches of the work and its aid in caring for the sick or needy or unfortunate former service men and their families is something that should be more appreciated.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TO FREMONT ELEVEN

To the Tune of 25 to 0—Games to Weeping Water Friday—Legion Game Here Next Sunday.

The Plattsmouth high school football team, playing in Fremont yesterday afternoon, was defeated by the score of 25 to 0, but the game was far more interesting throughout than the score would indicate.

The contest was very clean and sportsmanlike in every way and the locals, while regretting to lose the battle, felt that they had been treated royally by their opponents and are pleased over the clean and pleasing manner in which the game was played.

For the Plattsmouth team, Hallas, McCarthy, Schneider and Wescott were the chief stars in making gains for their organization and in blocking the plays of their opponents.

The local team will visit Weeping Water on next Friday afternoon and play the high school team of that city.

The Fremont team is one of the best high school teams in eastern Nebraska and one that has made a very pleasing record so far this season and bids fair to be one of the contenders for the state championship of the year.

Interest in local football circles also centers in next Sunday's opening game between the newly organized American Legion team and the Havlock Bollermakers.

BOYLES COLLEGE, Lincoln Business College, Omaha, Nebraska; Lincoln Business College, Omaha, Nebraska.

Willing to class himself as a good fellow of the burg.

Last Friday evening was a very happy occasion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustin in this city. It was the thirtieth anniversary of the wedding of these good people and a number of their friends had assembled at their beautiful and hospitable home to help them do justice to the occasion. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bailey and son, Warren; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams and family; Mrs. Edith Clements and son, Harry; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wallinger and Mr. and Mrs. Treat, of Calloway, Nebraska. The evening was spent in a social manner, the game of Somerset being indulged in. Delicious refreshments were served.

On last Friday evening as Thor Boyles was driving to Lincoln in his big Hudson car and while about four miles from that place or near the turn that goes to Bethany, he struck the cement side of a bridge. The car was going at sufficient speed so that the fenders and running board on the right side of the car were completely scraped off and the side of the body badly dented and scratched. Mr. Boyles was severely injured, being badly cut by broken pieces of glass. A young fellow came along in a Ford car about this time and took Mr. Boyles to a hospital in Lincoln, where his injuries were attended to. While they were very serious, he is getting along all right at present. Mr. Long of the garage had the Hudson car brought back to this place Saturday for repairs. The accident was due to the fact that a car passing had stirred up so much dust that Mr. Boyles was unable to see the bridge in time to miss it.

He reports good crops and prosperous conditions through that part of the country. Walter F. Cook and family returned last week from Colorado, where they went last spring with the intention of making their future home. Unfortunately they got located in a section of the state where conditions were not the best and crops not abundant, and became dissatisfied.

EAGLE Beacon

A gloom was cast over the entire community last Thursday evening, when it was learned that one of the most esteemed of our older citizens, J. C. Benz, had suffered a stroke of paralysis, which occurred at about 6 o'clock. He had enjoyed his usual health, and had just returned from a stroll down town when Mrs. Benz, his nearest neighbor, heard a peculiar noise and ran to his assistance. He evidently realized what was coming and rang the telephone but was unable to speak. Mr. Oberle suspected trouble and hurried up the alley, just as Mr. Betts came home and quickly notified in assisting. Dr. Lozger was called and he was put to bed and made easy. He lingered, conscious, but unable to speak, until about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, when the end came peacefully and apparently without pain. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the pastor, Rev. Chadwick, and the remains will be laid to rest beside his wife in Camp Creek cemetery.
