D. A. R. HAVE PLEASANT TIME LAST NIGHT

GATHER AT HOME OF MRS. E. H. WESCOTT AND ENJOY VERY PROFITABLE MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily.
Last evening the members of Fontenelle chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, enjoyed a most delightful session at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott on high school hill, and one in which the membership found a great deal of pleasure as well as profit in the interesting facts of history that were discussed. The subject of study for the chapter for the winter season is that of "Noted Persons in History" and the topic of the evening was that of "George Washington," as the first of the great figures of American history.

Miss Bernice Newell had a very interesting paper covering the life and character of the great general and first president of the American republic and one that was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Earl A. Stanfield also gave a review of the D. A. R. magazine, the official publication of the society of the descendants of the early residents of the republic.

As guests of honor of the evening the ladies of Fontenelle chapter had with them Mrs. J. B. Martin and daughter, Miss Edith, and the latter gave a very interesting account of her visit in New England during the past summer and a few points on the history of the early settlement of that band of pilgrims on the rocky coast of the New England states.

She told of the colonial homes which are there and many of which are filled with the relics of the first settlers and personal effects of those who came to this country as a party of pilgrims on the Mayflower. In her remarks Miss Martin told of the witchcraft period in colonial history and of the traces that can still be seen of the period in the architecture and finishing of the homes which bear signs supposed to frighten away the supposed witches from the various hearthstones.

Many pictures were shown by Miss Martin of the homes at Plymouth as well as the reproduction of a piece of tapestry which had been used in furnishing one of the pilgrim homes which the pioneer had prepared for his bride from old England.

The celebration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims that is being observed over the United States and England was brought to the mind of the ladies by the announcement of the fact that in the spring a boat modeled on that of the original Mayflower, and peopled by residents of Boston, England, will sail for this country and land at Cape Cod, where the vessel bearing the hardy pioneers first made their landing.

At the conclusion of the interesting discussion and outline of the early history of the country, the ladies were treated to a very enjoyable luncheon served by the hostess and which brought to a close the most pleasant evening.

WEEPING WATER

Republican
Nick Halmes came down from Omaha Monday evening to look after Mr. Wiles' elevator for a few days and load out some corn as there are a few grain cars available now.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Clark were at Union Sunday to visit their son, William's wife, who is very poorly and came up from Kansas City for a stay at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Frans near Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Parr Young and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jameson returned Monday night from a four days' auto trip in the Young car to Custer county, where they visited at the Troy Jewell home near Ansley. They found Troy suffering from a broken collar bone received from a mix-up with a horse. When they left he was getting along O. K.

Miss Bernice Wickersham and Captain Herbert Terrel Slade of Memphis, Tenn., were married Tuesday, October 12 in this city at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wickersham. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. Riley of the Congregational church and occurred at 2 o'clock, being witnessed by some eighty guests. The event was one of much social interest and the nuptial service a pleasing and pretty one, a brief simple ring ceremony being used. The vows were taken before an arched bower of foliage in the living room.

The Mendelssohn march, played by Mrs. Harry Shepherd of Kansas City was used, the bridal party making its approach to the altar over a white carpeted aisle. The only attendants were the little ring bearer, Jack Robinson and little flower girl, Dorothy Butler. Preceding the ceremony a group of pleasing musical selections were enjoyed; a piano solo entitled "Sunbeams," by Mrs. Carl E. Day of this city; a vocal solo "O Perfect Love" by Miss Myrel Argabright of Peru, Nebraska and a vocal solo, "Beloved, It is Morn," by Mr. John Leder of Waverly, Nebraska. The bridal couple made a most striking appearance and charming couple, the bride in a costume of white brocaded silk crepe with bride's veil; the groom in olive drab officer's uniform of the service in which he is assigned and holds rank in the peace time pursuit of engineer in the Mississippi River commission. The bride carried Ophelia roses; the flower girl, who wore a dress of yellow organdie, carried yellow roses; the ring bearer was dressed in white. The mother of the bride, who with Mr. Wickersham stood in the receiving line following the ceremony, wore a dress of plum colored chiffon tulle with braiding and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The bride's going-away costume was a three-piece navy blue Duvelyn suit with hat to match.

GET onto the facts and you'll get off the fence

Right from the start Spurs let you know what you're smoking. Plain as day, on the back of the package, it says: "In Spur Cigarettes the good tobaccos from the Orient are properly mixed with Burley and other home-grown tobaccos."

In your language that means "good old-time tobacco taste." Haven't you just been hankering for it? Those good tobaccos are rolled in satiny, imported paper—and crimped, not pasted. That's something to know, too. In smoker's talk, crimping means "easier drawing, slower burning, better taste." Examine a Spur and see how it's made.

And as the finishing touch, Spur's fragrance and freshness are sealed and delivered in a three-fold package—rich brown and silver.

Hop off the fence—and land on Spurs.
