ROADMASTER IS STRUCK BY TRAIN

Motor Car of Roadmaster of M. P., Collides With Engine of Work Train Near Weeping Water

M. L. Melson, Missouri Pacific roadmaster on this division was instantly killed Saturday morning just this side of the O street crossing south of town when his motor car collided with the engine of the pile driver work train.

The engine with nothing but a tender attached was backing out from Avoca bringing workmen out to the bridge on which they were working. The crew were not conscious of having reaped their grim harvest of death until they stopped at the bridge and discovered the wrecked motor car still clinging to the rails and partly telescoped upon the tender.

It is presumed that Melson was hurrying to get into Avoca in plenty of time ahead of the north bound Omaha passenger and as he had plenty of time for that, thought there was no other danger.

In his immediately family he leaves only the wife to survive him. He had been roadmaster on this division for three years. He made his territory much of the time on the trains and only a short time ago in speaking to railroad men here about his motor car remarked that it "would be the death of him some of these days."

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENJOYS HALLOWE'EN

Splendid Time is Had at Annual Halloween party Held at the Church Parlor Thursday Evening.

The Epworth League enjoyed a very delightful time at their meeting on Thursday evening which was in the nature of a Halloween social and one that was enjoyed to the utmost by everyone who was present.

The church parlor, which were the scene of the pleasantly arranged and well executed party, were decorated with the decorations of the Halloween season, in a color scheme of black and orange and carrying out the spirit of the occasion in a very pleasing way.

The program was given over to a delightful program of games as well as musical numbers and recitations that served to pass the time most delightfully. Instrumental numbers were given by Mrs. John T. Lyon and Miss Helen Westcott as well as vocal selections were given by John Lyon, Rev. A. V. Hunter and Jesse Perry. Miss Gladys Elliott and Mrs. Triverly were present and favored the company with two splendid readings.

The program had been arranged to include many of the well known Halloween games and bobbing for apples as well as the rendition of ghost stories served to keep the members of the party in a very merry mood until the hour for departure homeward.

Miss Velma Elliott, 4th vice-president of the league had arranged the entertainment and in the serving of the refreshments of apples, popcorn, doughnuts and sweet cider, was assisted by Miss Freda Osterstein.

The gathering was one of the most delightful that the society has enjoyed for many months and it was with regret that the members of the party witnessed the passing of time that brought the pleasant gathering to a close.
