These are halcyon days for politicians.

Gold pens have been manufactured in America for 80 years.

:o:

Will the death of MacSwiney help the cause of Ireland? Perhaps.

:o:

Wood for pianos is kept in the seasoning process, as a rule, for 40 years before it is used.

:o:

All clouds are within six and a half miles of the earth. Above that heighth they do not exist.

:o:

Thirty-five private secretaries are employed to look after the private correspondence of the pope.

:o:

Dr. Brendel is the man to vote for if you want a good capable representative in the legislature.

:o:

The man who is always waiting for something to turn up is usually asleep when it finally comes along.

:o:

The former kaiser has grown sadly ungramalical. He signs himself "I. R." when it should be "I ain't."

:o:

When it comes to mud slinging, the G. O. P. campaign committee has a steam shovel tied to the post.

:o:

Woh in reality is responsible for Lord Mayor MacSwiney's death. England n odoubt, could have saved him.

:o:

Cuba threatens that sugar will get up again. But it is merely a threat, with nothing whatever as a sound basis.

:o:

The persistent warm weather has enabled the women to wear their furs almost up to the beginning of winter.

:o:

The trouble with the folks who are always giving the farmer advice is that they have nothing else to give him.

:o:

Isn't it too bad that the hens do not lay a lot of eggs while the price is high, and lay off laying when the price is low?

:o:

Usually, when you find an author sneering at movies you have merely struck a writer who can't get his scenarious over.

:o:

You need not buy any fuel this winter. When you feel cold, think of the rent you are paying and you'll get hot all over.

:o:

The fuss over the league of nations will be greater after the fourth of March than it is now, regardless of what ticket is elected.

:o:

If elected as representative, Dr. Brendel will be found supporting every measure that is good for the people and against all that is bad.

:o:

W. F. Moran is the man to favor for senator. Make up your mind to vote for him. He is able, honest and candid in all his deliberations.

:o:

Close observation and careful inquiry has convinced us that a woman doesn't care anything about the way a hat fits her head if it fits her face.

:o:

A Philadelphia juryman was fined for going to sleep in the box. If this punishment generally prevailed the jails would be filled with jurymen.

:o:

There will be no monkey business in state affairs if John H. Morehead occupies the executive chair again. Honesty in state affairs is his slogan. The voters know him.

:o:

John H. Morehead should be elected next Tuesday. And he will be, if all those who desire a good, clean administration, vote for him as they should.

:o:

Lloyd George says he believes the United States will join the league of nations after the November election. Dave must have firm faith in the candidacy of Cox.

:o:

It is pleasing to find now and then among the moving picture stars a real womanly spark, as for instance, Mrs. Charlie Chaplain says she can't stand her husband's friends.

:o:

A vote for W. F. Moran is a vote for the right man for the state senate.

:o:

The rolling pin has flattened out the steam roller as a political weapon.

:o:

Governor Cox says that if the country doesn't accept the league, there will be hard times.

:o:

The candidate who wants to capture the woman vote ought to invent a non-skid hairpin.

:o:

Nothing so upsets the even tenor of a woman's ways as the insinuation that her hat isn't on straight.

:o:

A vote for John H. Morehead means a vote for a gentleman whose whole heart is wrapped up in good will for the People of Nebraska.

:o:

Plattsmouth should give Dr. Brendel a large majority. He is no new citizen in Cass county, but has lived at Murray for many years.

:o:

Plans are being discussed for the celebration of Armistice Day. Perhaps we had better wait until after the November election and see whether we have cause to celebrate.

:o:

Sylvia Pankhurst has been again pinched—we mean arrested—for publishing seditious literature in England. Sylvia, it seems, is not so much interested in suffrage as in front page publicity.

:o:

Wooden ships are being offered by the government at $12 per ton and no takers. Will the government kindly bring a batch of 'em up the Missouri river to Plattsmouth? We can use them for apartment houses.

:o:

James D. Baker of Otoe county, is one of the best men in either Otoe or Cass county. And his election as float representative would reflect great credit upon both Otoe and Cass counties. He is a man of the people.

:o:

The Pullman company showed a surplus of four million dollars for the last fiscal year. That was mere pocket change when compared with what the Pullman porters would be able to show if their resources were recapitulated.

:o:

Jimmy Cox showed his fighting spirit by attacking Senator Lodge on his own home lot as "the arch conspirator of all the ages." That's almost as strong as Senator Harding's description of him as the "leader of the poison squad."

:o:

Miss Alice Paul is wasting time and energy in issuing calls for a convention to be held in Washington next February for the formation of a woman's party. The women folks will never get far away from the men, politically or otherwise.

:o:

There will be a turkey shortage this Thanksgiving, we are told, because the turkeys overate of the abundant grain crops last summer and didn't mature. This also made for a short grain crop of which the bakeries will inform us later.

:o:

The time is at hand when the fair sex is going to play a conspicuous part in the political affairs of the commonwealth. Ere the next democratic state primary is held there ought to be at least 100,000 women in the state qualified for suffrage, and it may go considerably in excess of that figure by the time the senatorial primary is held in 1922.

:o:

Five years ago, let us say, a corporation found one million dollars sufficient for its needs in financing expansion or purchasing new equipment, borrowing at 4 per cent interest rate and assuming a yearly interest burden of $40,000. Today, because of the depreciation of the dollar, it must borrow $2,000,000 to make the same purchases, and is willing to pay double the old interest rate, or 8 per cent, thereby burdening itself with a fixed annual interest charge of $160,000—actually four titmes as great as inthe days before the war.

WHOLE COUNTY IS TO VOTE ON COMMISS'RS

Number of Voters are Laboring Under Impression Only Vote for Men in Their District.

Within the past few days there have been a number of inquiries received at the Journal office relative to the question of voting on county commissioners. A great many have the impression that the commissioners are to be elected in the various districts which they are to represent but this is a false idea gained doubtless from the former law that prevailed in this state.

For the past six or eight years the candidates have been selected at the primary election by the voters of their respective districts, but when it comes to the general election their names must appear on the ballot over the entire county and to be elected they must receive a majority of the votes cast in the county, irregardless of the number their home district may pile up for them.

The impression has gone out here that it will not be possible for the Plattsmouth people to vote for Fred H. Gorder or William Atchison, the candidates in the third district, but such is not the case and every voter will have the opportunity of voting for the candidates for county commissioner, regardless of what district he may reside in.

The candidates for commissioners are C. F. Vallery and G. L. Farley in the first district and Fred Gorder and William Atchison in the third district and if you vote in Cass county you will pass on the merit of these gentlemen, all of whom are among the best qualified men in the county.

GOVERNMENT GETS INTO "BUILDING TRUST" CASE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Appointment of Joseph Kaufman as special assistant to the district attorney at New York to conduct a federal investigation into the alleged combinations in the building materials market in that city was announced today by Attorney General Palmer.

This is the federal government's first step in the direction of prosecution of alleged violation of anti-trust laws among building materials dealers.

Department of justice officials said information gathered by the United States attorney's office in New York had disclosed evidence which they believed pointed to combinations in violation of the Sherman law.

Mr. Kaufman will co-operate with the New York state legislative committee which is conducting an investigation into the situation.

M'SWINEY DIED A MARTYR, COX SAYS

En Route With Governor Cox, Middletown, O., Oct. 27.—Governor James M. Cox today "came back" to Middletown, the little city where about thirty-five years ago he was a cub reporter and a high school student.

Cox is attacking Senator Harding more sharply than ever.

Cox charges the republican candidate "is trying to get the presidency under false pretenses."

"I am not particular whether Senator Harding fools Johnson or Taft, but I do intend to see that he does not fool the American people on one of the greatest issues in the history of our country," the governor said.

Before leaving Cincinnati, Cox made a statement on the death of Terence MacSwiney.

"MacSwiney dies as a martyr to his cause," he said.
