W. C. T. U. HAS A FINE MEETING

Large Attendance Present to Enjoy Observance of Temperance Program at W. H. Newell Home

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the W. C. T. U. enjoyed one of their most successful meetings at the pleasant home of Mrs. W. H. Newell on North 5th street, and on this very enjoyable occasion Mrs. Newell was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. H. C. Leopold.

The occasion was the annual "Temperance" program and the ladies had invited the ministers of the city to be present on this event and four of the representatives of the churches were in attendance. Rev. A. V. Hunter of the Methodist church, Rev. Father W. S. Leete of St. Luke's church, Rev. A. G. Hollowell of the Christian church and Rev. H. G. McClusky of the Presbyterian church.

The meeting was opened with the devotional service led by Mrs. A. G. Hollowell and in which the members of the party joined and was followed by the short program of the afternoon. Each of the ministers gave a brief resume of the temperance movement and their opinion as to the benefits of temperance to the nation and to the people.

During the afternoon Mrs. E. H. Wescott, gave two of her delightful vocal selections the accompaniment being played by Mr. Wescott, while Father Leete also gave a vocal numberthat was much enjoyed. Mrs. A. J. Beeson, one of the talented elecutionists of the city, afforded the members of the party two very high class readings that were much enjoyed by the members. Mrs. W. S. Leete read the history of the temperance movement in the east in the year 1808 and in which her grandfather had been actively engaged and which was one of the first of its kind in the United States.

The hostesses at a suitable hour served very dainty refreshments which proved a pleasant feature of the afternoon's entertainment and brought to a close one of the thoroughly enjoyable gatherings of the society.

FAR-FAMED NON-PARIELS MAY COME

Omaha's Leading Semi-Pro Football Team Clamoring for Armistice Day Game Here.

There is strong probability that Omaha's crack semi-pro football aggregation, the Nonpariels, may be seen in action on the local grounds this season. At any rate the stars from the Nebraska metropolis are clamoring for a game with Plattsmouth's American Legion team Armistice day.

The Nonpariels are one of the classiest teams in the state and by defeating Havelock the local team has been favorably mentioned in the Omaha papers as a contender for the state semi-pro championship claimed by the Nonpariels.

The action of Governor McKelvie in publicly proclaiming Armistice day a legal holiday throughout the length and breadth of the state, for celebrating the anniversary of the ending of the war will mean the closing of many enterprises for at least half if not all day, and there is little doubt but that the recreationbent public would welcome the advent of a football game of such proportions as might be expected when an irresistable body comes into contact with an immovable force.

The Nonpariels are to meet the Havelock Boilermakers at Rourke park in Omaha Sunday.

While a definite meeting has been arranged for Armistice day, it seems quite probable the local fans will be given opportunity of seeing the Nonpariel stars in action here this season.

VISITING RELATIVES HERE

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. John Brady and daughter, Miss Leona, arrived in the city this morning for a short visit here with relatives and friends for a few days, as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brady. Mrs. Brady and daughter have been visiting at Chicago and also at Watson, Mo., with relatives and friends and after a short stay here go to Lincoln and Denver for a visit before returning to their home at Casper, Wyoming. They report Mr. Brady and Jesse Brady and family as feeling fine and enjoying life very much in Wyoming.

DIES IN LINCOLN

From Tuesday's Daily.

Frank L. Streets of this city received the announcement this morning of the death in Lincoln today of his father, Aaron Streets, an old resident of that city. The deceased was eighty-six years of age and has not been seriously ill up to this time although his health has not been of the best. The death came very suddenly and was a great shock to the son in this city, who left for Lincoln this afternoon to attend the funeral services. Mrs. Frank Streets and children will leave tomorrow morning for Lincoln to attend the services. The interment will be at Lincoln where the first wife of the deceased is buried.

It is said that Harding will make General Leonard Wood secretary of war, which is all right, but what does he intend to do with the other battle-scarred veteran of many a matrimonial fight Lillian Russell?

IOWA ROLLS UP TREMENDOUS REPUBLICAN MAJORITY

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 2.—Iowa today rolled up tremendous majorities for the heads of both national and state republican tickets, seemingly breaking records that have stood for decades.

With slightly more than one-fourth of the 2,360 precincts of the state heard from Senator Harding was leading Governor Cox more than three to one, indicating a majority, if later returns maintain the pace set by earlier ones, of from 400,000 to 500,000.

Senator Cummins, on the face of returns from one-sixth of the state, was leading Porter two to one and Kendall, the republican candidate for governor, was leading Herring, his democratic opponent, almost two to one.

Cummins' enormous lead was a surprise to his staunchest supporters. Seldom in the history of Iowa has there been such a strong battle waged against a senatorial candidate as was waged against Cummins. He was attacked principally for his part in making of the Esch-Cummins railroad bill and two weeks ago many republican leaders expressed concern over the situation, although they maintained the senator would win.

Results in the gubernatorial race reported early also were a surprise, it being believed that the race between Kendall and Herring would be much closer than present returns indicate that it will be.

Latest returns follow:

For president: 629 precincts out of 2,360 give Harding, 175,142; Cox, 57,666.

For United States senator, 449 precincts give Cummins (Rep.) 104,595; Porter (Dem.) 51,113.

For governor, 432 precincts give Kendall, (Rep.) 95,643; Herring (Dem.) 51,469.
