Well, at least, we can spend four years in repentance.

Big business is again in the saddle. Hope the saddle is not on a bronco.

Missouri will have four democratic congress men when they had about 16.

If you don't think you can do it, try it anyhow. You may fool yourself.

Twice as many women as men obtain divorces. Certainly, do you know why?

If cold weather could hold off until March, it would find a lot of people still unprepared for it.

The winners are going to have one heluva time deciding how they stand on the league of nations.

The new king of Greece is only 19 years old. Still, he ought to have some enough to leave monkeys alone.

Some of Dr. Frank Crane's wonderful sees: "Bird flying, kites, airplanes, girls in pink. Pink what?"

Congress will meet on December 6th and remain in session until March 4, and adjourn for the inauguration.

Now that it is all over with, let's forget politics are all right in their place, but too much of it is a handicap.

We know a woman who believes every word her husband tells her. However, they have been married only 24 hours.

Jack Dempsey will get $300,000 win or lose, when he fights Carpentier. This old world surely does reward brains.

It is pretty certain that it is not an editor in the country who won't breathe a sigh of relief that the elections are over.

From the Debs vote, it appears that the American people do prefer a president who is in a position to give his full time to his presiding, after all.

Democrats of Missouri will perhaps learn something by their overwhelming defeat. They probably deserved it. People will not stand for dishonesty in office.

When General McMillan ran for president against Abraham Lincoln for his second term, in 1864, he carried but one state, New Jersey. The south did not vote.

So much newspaper space is taken up with Chicago murders that people are beginning to wonder if Chicago has forsaken all the lesser but equally interesting crimes.

Verily, these are hard times. This morning we met a man so poor that he can't afford new inner tubes and doesn't know where his next gallon of gasoline is coming from.

There will be one woman in congress, Miss Alice M. Robertson of Oklahoma, who defeated Hon. W. W. Hastings, one of the state's oldest democratic congressmen.

As the returns come in from backwoods counties in various states, it makes it worse and worse for the democrats. Why not make it unanimous and be done with it.

A Paris doctor says men could get along very well without their stomachs. Probably the women could, too, having abandoned that well known road to a man's heart.

A humane society officer in Boston says it is a shame to slaughter beautiful wild animals and skin them for their furs. It is not a circumstance to the way tame husbands are skinned for furs.

New York leads the country with 925 American Legion posts and 73,000 paid up members.

With the election out of the way, you may as well commence to think about next year's garden.

Every Canadian soldier settler is entitled to a soldier grant of 100 acres of land in the Dominion.

Among other clarifying results the election seems to have definitely settled the status of Victor Berger.

Secretary Wilson wired Governor Cox, among other condolences, that "truth crushed to earth will rise again."

Prince Paul who is seeking the throne of Greece, ought to bear in mind how Athens dealt with another man named Paul.

Despite the election results, the league of nations is an issue that will not die down. No question is settled until it is settled right.

So different is the art of cutting women's kid gloves that most of the principal cutters in Paris are known by name and reputation.

The plucked eyebrows have gone out of fashion. However, other ways of being foolish will be discovered by clever people who set the silly styles.

If you are, as a good many other people are, paying taxes on more property than you own, the only thing you can do is grin and bear it.

The nation's present, to Senator Harding on his 55th birthday was the presidency. Now let us see if he has sense enough to appreciate the gift.

Exports have figured that it costs nearly $100 to outfit a college football player nowadays, at the outset, exclusive of the hospital and bandage upkeep.

Frankly we have tried hard to think up something mean enough to say about the republican victory, but up to this time the effort has been a complete failure.

DOES GOOD WORK

From Tuesday's Daily.

A great deal of credit for the prompt manner in which the fire at the Hotel Wagner was handled yesterday, is due Mr. Fred Wagner, the proprietor of the hotel, who immediately after the flames were discovered hurried to the stairway in the latter shop, took charge of the fire fighting force until Mr. Saffin, chief of the fire department, arrived. Mr. Wagner has his home in the hotel in the best of shape and at one had a stream of water pouring on the flames and in a short time had the fire under perfect control so that very little damage was done although it might easily have developed into a very severe fire. In addition to his work at the seat of the fire Mr. Wagner had two men stationed on both the second and third floors of the hotel ready for action in case the fire should spread from the barber shop.

It's more like a Smoke!

There's no one else like Spurr's in a nutshell. It's what an American Legion man said after he had puffed a Spurr for a moment or two.

He knew cigarettes. Found how comforting a good one is. Had 16 months in France. And he knew what he was talking about when he said:

"More Like a SMOKE!"

That's because you can taste the good tobacco in Spurr's. You get the aroma of a new and delicious blend of the finest leaf grown in Turkey, fine Burley and other home-grown tobaccos.

Unmarred by starch because the seam is crimped not pasted.

Longer and sweeter in the smoking—slower in the burning. Fresh and fragrant as you open the pack, because it's triple-wrapped.

Priced to be popular and packaged to be select.

See for yourself—"more like a SMOKE."

LEAVES FOR MINNEAPOLIS

This afternoon Mrs. Annie Britt departed for Minneapolis, where she expects to make her home for an indefinite time and has closed the home here for the present at least.

Mrs. Britt has made her home here for practically her entire life time with the exception of a few years spent in Omaha, and her departure has occasioned a deep regret among the host of old friends who will greatly miss her society. Mrs. Britt has been very active in the work of the St. Luke's church here and her spare time from her work in the offices of her brothers, Drs. T. P. Livingston and J. S. Livingston has been given to the work of the church and her departure will leave a place in the church life that will be hard to fill.

Mrs. Britt will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Keller, whose health has not been the best for the past few weeks.

Harding has a reputation throughout the country as being a second McKinley. He himself has often said he saw little resemblance, yet close friends of both see a parallel in their tariff-views and in their willingness to be guided by advice, and in some of their mannerisms. Both have grave countenances and probably no one ever slapped either on the back.
