WINS CONTEST OVER CUSTODY OF PAUL LEMKE

MRS. F. R. GUTHMAN AWARDED CARE OF CHILD SHE HAS RAISED FROM BABY

From Thursday's Daily.

The Nebraska supreme court yesterday handed down their decision in the matter of the custody of Paul Lemke, a minor, and awarded the custody of the child to Mrs. F. R. Guthman of this city, an aunt of the dead mother of the child, and who has had the care of the child since his birth.

The decision of the supreme court in reversing the judgment of the Lancaster county district court, is one that will meet with universal approval in this city where the members of the Guthman family and the occasion of the taking away of the lad brought untold grief to the aunt who had carefully reared the boy.

Last summer the father, Frank Lemke, a wealthy Lancaster county farmer, secured a writ of habeas corpus in the court of Judge Stewart at Lincoln and armed with this order one of the Lancaster county authorities took Paul to Lincoln where he was placed in the home of the father. On the hearing in the court at Lincoln, Mrs. Guthman was represented by Attorney Matthew Gering of this city but the custody of the father over the child was sustained by Judge Stewart.

Mr. Gering appealed the case to the high court of the state and secured a sweeping victory and reversed the decision rendered by the court a high compliment is paid to the aunt for her devotion and care of Paul Lemke and the court pointed out that the home is most important to the welfare of the child, more important than that of the rights of the father in the custody of the boy. The court in its decision made provision for the religious and educational training of the boy according to the wishes of the father.

During his nine years Paul has been brought up by the Guthman family, he has been as a child of the household, and owing to the desire not to prevent his rights in the estate of his father, who was quite wealthy, no action of adoption was undertaken by Mrs. Guthman.

Better Sires—Better Stock.

A "better sires—better stock" campaign is being conducted by the farm bureaus of forty Nebraska counties in an effort to improve the quality of stock kept on general farms. Many farmers realize that it pays to use nothing but pure bred sires. It costs no more to feed an animal of good breeding than it does a scrub and the results are much more gratifying. The use of pure bred sires to produce animals for the feed lot is of much importance, as most feeders realize. To encourage the use of better sires, farm bureaus award an emblem to farmers who use nothing but pure bred sires.

One hundred and fifty members of the Richardson county farm bureau, meeting at their annual banquet here, voted to join the state campaign for new farm bureau members. Among the speakers of the evening were Dan Riley, Falls City banker and president of the University of Nebraska Alumni association; J. A. Crawford, Beardsville, Kans., manager of the Nebraska farm bureau membership campaign; J. L. Wyrrill, Richardson county agricultural agent, who reported on the year's work of the farm bureau; R. E. Holland, county agent leader; J. O. Schrover, director of the Nebraska farmers union.

VISITING IN THE CITY

From Thursday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNurlin are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spreick of Norfolk, Neb., who arrived here Saturday to spend a few days. Mrs. Spreick is the foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNurlin and the visit has been one thoroughly enjoyed by all the family. The trip to this city was made on Monday and Mr. Spreick reports very rough and muddy roads on the trip. On leaving Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Spreick stopped at Missouri Valley, Iowa, for a few days visit and came from there to Plattsmouth. They are expected to leave tomorrow for home and if the weather conditions permit Mr. and Mrs. McNurlin will accompany them.

OFFERS IMPROVED TAX LEGISLATION

Secretary W. H. Osborne of State Board of Assessment Suggests Needed Changes.

Secretary W. H. Osborne of the state board of taxation and equalization says of needed legislation:

"One of the big jobs ahead of the legislature that convenes in January will be the amending and altering present revenue laws to meet new conditions brought about by the new constitution. For instance, proposal No. 28, of the new constitution amends Section 5, Article 10 of the old constitution and places the county tax limitation at 50 cents on the one hundred dollar actual valuation. The limitation under the old constitution being $1.50 on the assessed or one fifth value, it will be seen that the members of the constitution had in mind, that while they did not say that property should be assessed at its actual value, instead of one fifth value under the present law, that they have provided the means by which the legislature will be compelled to change the old method of assessing property.

"In the event that the legislature enacts a law placing it at its actual value it will be helpful to the citizen who under the present limitations are unable to support their county government, as they will be able to raise 50 cents instead of only 20 under the present law. This will necessitate the changing of practically every section of the revenue laws in this respect.

"Proposal No. 26 amends Section 1, Article 9, and provides a uniform and proportional tax on taxable property and franchises; and permits the classification of other property, such as insurance and other property taxes other than real estate taxes.

"This will enable the legislature to enact a state income tax law if they desire, and provide for a separate rate of taxation for different classifications of property. For instance in Minnesota, property is classified and assessed at the following rates: "Fifty per cent of full value for iron ore whether mined or un-mined; "Twenty-five per cent for house-holds and furniture; 33 1-3 per cent on live stock, agricultural products, stocks of merchandise, manufactures, articles and unimproved real estate, and 40 per cent on all remaining property.

"Money and credits are separately assessed at their full value and a flat rate of 3 mills is applied for taxation.

"Theoretically, it is argued that a lower rate on such property as monies, credits and other intangibles, will have a tendency to bring it forth and share in the burdens of taxation, whereas if it is taxed according to value, and at the same rate as other property, a large proportion will never reach the tax lists.

"The county assessors have never been able to obtain a very large amount of this class of property on the tax rolls, for the reason that the legislators have never given them authority to examine the records of the banks for verification. It was assumed that the legislature would give added powers in this respect to the tax commissioner, and with a lower rate and added powers and effort, it will compel the holders of this class of property to list it. The new constitution also provides an exemption of $200 for household goods."

GRAND OLD MAN REACHES 90 YEARS

THEODORE HEIM OF LOUISVILLE PASSES 90TH MILESTONE OF LIFE'S HIGHWAY

Our old and highly esteemed friend, Theodore Heim, has been receiving the congratulations of his many friends in the community this week, as on last Tuesday, November 9, 1920, he passed his 90th milestone. It might be difficult to realize that Mr. Heim had really attained this grand old age were he not so alert mentally and able to account for every year of his past life with very remarkable clearness of memory.

His children were all present upon this occasion and the birthday dinner was given the Sunday following at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spangler which is the old farm home of Mr. Heim and was his first home in Nebraska. The birthday cake was baked by his daughter, Mrs. John Group in the afternoon, the grandchildren of this vicinity and all who were able to be present, came in to add their congratulations, and ice cream and cake were served. During the afternoon, the family passed the time very pleasantly in reminiscences and conversation and sang several selections in chorus, after which Mr. Heim stepped out and in his own way thanked his children and family for their love and devotion as expressed by this occasion and said words could not tell how greatly he appreciated it and that his heart was full of gratitude. His remarks were received with cheers by the family and altogether it was a delightful time and will even remain a beautiful memory to them all.

Theodore Heim was born in the southern part of Germany, November 9, 1830, near the imperial city of the Hohenzollerns and lived there until he was 23 years of age when he left his native land and embarked for America, June 2, 1853, and after a lengthy voyage, landed in New York, July 27, of the same year.

Mr. Heim settled in Wisconsin in 1853, on August 6th, at Summit, in Waukesha county, where he engaged in farming. On December 4, 1856, he was married to Miss Lavina Regula, Watertown, Wisconsin. Mr. Heim was born in Rome, N. Y., July 6, 1826. In 1873, he sold out in Wisconsin and came to Nebraska, crossing the Missouri river on the ferry at Plattsmouth, with their family. Mrs. Heim's sister, Mrs. Frank Standen and family had already settled in this vicinity on the old Standen place south of town and on June 16, 1873, they arrived at that place.

Mr. Heim then purchased the old farm southeast of town where they resided until 1893, when they purchased a comfortable home in Louisville and retired from active farm life to enjoy the fruits of their years of usefulness and industry. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on December 4, 1906. On January 17, 1918, Mrs. Heim passed from the activities of this life at the age of 81 years, 6 months and 11 days, greatly honored by all and deeply mourned by her family and large circle of friends.

Following the birthday dinner for Mr. Heim, his daughter, Mrs. Group, entertained a number of relatives and old friends of her sisters on Monday afternoon at her home and the time passed swiftly in conversation while a delicious luncheon was served consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Since the death of his companion, Mr. Heim continues to reside in their old home and it would be a joy to any housekeeper to see how neatly things are kept with a place for everything and everything in its place, as Mr. Heim carries into his household the same methods that characterized his labors, wherever engaged and which helped greatly to make his life a success.

Mr. Heim is hale and hearty and his figure is erect and commanding. He is a sturdy type of manhood and exemplifies that right living makes for a long and happy life. He and his wife passed through the battles of the pioneers and did their part nobly in transforming a barren country into a land of happy homes and prosperity.

They reared a family of eight children, six daughters and two sons. They are, Mrs. Elizabeth Poe, of Red Cloud; Mrs. Jennie Young of Hastings; Mrs. H. J. Wehrly, of Denver; Mrs. John Group and Mrs. J. C. Spangler, of Louisville; Mrs. Hugh Selver, of El Reno, Oklahoma; Frank Heim of Naples, S. D., and Charles Heim of Louisville. It was ever the care and anxiety of the parents that the children might grow into useful members of society and they have lived to see them meeting their full share of life's responsibilities and become honored citizens, successful and happy in their own homes. He has 34 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

Since his early manhood Mr. Heim has been a Jeffersonian democrat. For sixty-six years he boasts that he has never quavered in his support of the democratic ticket. When election day came around he would walk up to the polls and vote a straight democratic ticket. This year, how-

Mrs. Annie Dollie Gaster Begins Action in District Court Against Woodmen of World.

From Thursday's Daily.

This morning action was filed in the district court by Mrs. Annie Dollie Gaster against the Sovereign Camp, Woodmen of the World, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $2,000 as the value of two beneficiary insurance policies carried by the husband of Mrs. Gaster, Albert Gaster, in the Woodmen of the World, and on payment of the balance of the Sovereign camp of the order has refused favorable action.

In the petition of the plaintiff, as filed by her attorney, Matthew Gering, it is stated that on September 16, 1918, Albert Gaster became a member of the Woodmen of the World by joining the order at Plattsmouth and was issued a policy covering the payment of $1,000 on his death and which was made payable to his wife, Annie D. Gaster, and it is further stated that on April 20, 1920, Albert Gaster was issued a second policy in the same company covering the payment of $2,000 on his death and that the deceased had complied with all the requirements of the order as to membership and the payments on the policy had been continued until his death. It is alleged that on June 6, 1920, the holder of the policies died at his home in the city of Plattsmouth and following his death the proofs of death were prepared and submitted to the Sovereign camp, but that payment of the claims had not been made.

The petition asks for the payment of the sum of $2,000 on the two policies as well as the sum of $500 for attorney fees and the costs of the action.

The answer of the fraternal association has not been filed but it is understood that one of the defenses offered is that Albert Gaster died as the result of poison administered by his own hand and which as a suicide they refused to pay the amount of the insurance policy.

The case is one that will produce many interesting points of law covering the collection of the insurance policy and the outcome of the case will be awaited with interest.

TWO YEARS SINCE ARMISTICE SIGNED

November 11, 1918, an Occasion Long to be Remembered—Dawn of World Peace.

From Thursday's Daily.

Two years ago today, on November 11, 1918, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon the crash of the great artillery, the rattle of the machine guns, and the noise of the great conflict on the western front of the allied armies died into restful quiet for the first time since August, 1914.

The event will remain in the minds of the present generation at least as one of the periods of the greatest rejoicing in this country as well as in the war torn countries of the old world. It gave to these countries a period of rest from the drain of men and wealth that the unrelenting hand of war had demanded from the people and gave the opportunity of opening the way to a peace that would allow the world a chance to reconstruct itself along the lines of progress.

The great issue in the war that was heralded from ocean to ocean was that it was to be the last war in the history of the world in which the great civilized nations were to be engaged in. It was for this purpose that the great sacrifices were made and without its accomplishments the war was without any great purpose, it was to be the end of the domineering ambition of the German emperor to rule the civilized world by force of arms.

In the cause of bringing permanent peace to the world 80,000 American men gave up their life on the western front, joining in death 2,000,000 French, 622,000 British, 364,000 Italians, 20,000 Belgians, 1,611,105 Germans and 800,000 Austrians who were offered on the altar of war.

In the face of these sacrifices are we not doing a noble work in dedicating our efforts to bring about an understanding that will make these great wars impossible in the future and insuring peace among the nations. The voice of the silent heroes in Flanders fields and Picardy hills are calling us today in the cause of peace on earth so that the sons of the future wars will not have to follow their footsteps over the battle fields of the world. Are we measuring up to the sacrifices made for us by those who sleep over there in death?

EXHIBITS SOME FINE MISSOURI APPLES

From Thursday's Daily.

This morning Edward C. Ripple returned home from Missouri where he has been for the past five weeks engaged in handling the apple harvest in the famous Cushman orchard near Webb City. Mr. Ripple brought with him an exhibition of fifteen varieties of apples as well as sweet potatoes, winter radishes and persimmons when he has on display at the store of C. E. Wesscott's Sons. They are sure tempting to the eye of the purchaser and give an idea of the great fruit crop of the "show me" state.

Mr. Ripple is having a car load of apples shipped to this city which should be here tomorrow and which embraces a stock of especially selected apples made by Ripple himself for the Plattsmouth people. A large portion of the car has been contracted for and those who desire to make purchases should be on the job when the car arrives. Mr. Ripple will have his advertisement in some way when the car arrives and all those seeking apples will have a chance to buy the best the market affords.

A HAPPY EVENT

From Thursday's Daily.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kuykendall was made happier yesterday when a bright-eyed little daughter arrived there to make her home in the future and the event has brought a great deal of happiness to the proud parents. The mother and little one are both doing nicely and the manager of the lighting company is feeling very much elated over the new Miss Kuykendall who has come to share the home with them.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

Meeting at Elmwood is Quite Largely Attended and Much Interest Taken in Work of Organization.

The twentieth annual convention of the Cass County Sunday School association was held on Monday and Tuesday of this week at Elmwood, the sessions of the convention being held in the Methodist church in that city.

The meeting was quite largely attended by representatives of the Sunday school of the county and those who were in attendance were more than pleased with the delightful manner in which the Elmwood people entertained them. The entertainment committee consisted of Mrs. Goodridge, Miss Ida McFall, Miss Nora Evelyn and Miss Marie Stewart, and these ladies had arranged a very pleasing entertainment for the visitors to the convention.

The meeting was called to order by the president, A. J. Schwab, while Jesse P. Parry of this city, the secretary took the proceedings of the gathering.

The election of officers of the association was held on Tuesday and the following were chosen: President, Joseph A. Capwell, Elmwood; Vice-President, Jesse P. Parry, Plattsmouth; Secretary-Treasurer, George P. Shackley, Avooca; Supt. Children's division, Mrs. Robert Alford, Elmwood; Supt. Young People's division, Miss Marie Stroemer, Avooca; Supt. Adult division, Luther Pickett, Plattsmouth; Home division, Edith Atchison, Elmwood; Visitation, W. H. Porter, Union; Teacher's Training, Mrs. Fred Zink, Murdock; Missionary, Miss Rachael Standen, Louisville; Pastors, E. E. Elliott, Louisville; Temperance, Rev. L. W. Scott, Elmwood; Administration, C. C. Wesscott, Plattsmouth.

The Elmwood churches assisted in the pleasures of the convention by the serving of a big basket dinner on Tuesday noon at the church and the result was that the visitors were treated to a feast that they will long remember.

STATE SHERIFFS' ASSOCIATION

The State Sheriff's Association will meet at Grand Island on December 9th, according to the announcements sent out by Sheriff C. D. Quinto of this city, president of the association. The sheriff's held their meeting last year at Omaha and had some big time at the gathering and they are expecting to more than equal the meeting at the forthcoming gathering in the western city this year. With the convention at Grand Island on the 9th it will be a good place for the evil doers to stay away from.

MEETS WITH SERIOUS ACCIDENT

From Thursday's Daily.

John Cory, Proprietor of Perkins House, Falls from Ladder and is Badly Bruised.

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday while John Cory, the proprietor of the Perkins House, was engaged in putting up a stove in the dining room of the hotel he was unfortunately enough to fall and receive very severe bruises and injuries that have confined him to his bed since the accident.

Mr. Cory, at the time of the accident, was standing on a step ladder and was being assisted in handling the long section of stove pipe by Carl Gschlager, when, without warning, the ladder on which Mr. Cory was standing slipped and the unfortunate man was thrown to the floor, a distance of several feet, striking on his way down a serving table, which caused several very severe bruises on the head and shoulders. Mr. Cory has suffered greatly since the accident and his side seems to give him a great deal of pain and it was feared that he might have sustained internal injuries but an examination failed to disclose any.

The patient is still confined to his bed and from the present indications will be compelled to remain there for several days at least.

DEATH OF GEORGE HICKS FROM CANCER

Old Time Resident of Near Cedar Creek Dies at University Hospital in Omaha.

From Thursday's Daily.

This afternoon the body of George A. B. Hicks arrived in this city from Omaha where Mr. Hicks died on Tuesday evening at the University hospital where he has been for several weeks taking treatment for his malady, that of cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Hicks was fifty-five years of age and had for years been a familiar figure in and near Cedar Creek where he has made his home and up until a few months ago was employed in the sand pits near that place, ceasing his labors only when the fatal malady had made such severe inroads on his health as to make his working longer an impossibility.

The departed gentleman leaves to mourn his loss one brother, William J. Hicks, of Cedar Creek, and a large number of warm friends who share with the brother, the sorrow that his death has occasioned. Mr. Hicks was never married and the brother is the sole surviving relative, one sister having preceded him in death. The burial was had at the Oak Hill cemetery.

HAS HAND INJURED

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday while J. H. McMaken was assisting in the moving of the large boiler that is being installed at the high school, he was unfortunate enough to have his hand badly mashed and two fingers of the right hand were badly bruised, making it necessary for Joe to wear his hand in a bandage. While very painful, the injury is not thought to be serious however.
