Bankers Are Not Profiteers!

While almost every commodity in the world is doubling and trebling in price, the price of money has remained practically the same.

Bankers are not profiteers. They make their money by handling a large volume of business. Their earnings are modest on the money invested.

They do thousands of things for the citizens of every community without remuneration.

The enormous burden of making income tax returns for our customers and the caring for the immense amount of work in connection with Liberty Bond sales are real services to the Nation.

A bank must make a certain profit or it will not interest either capital or the right kind of leaders.

This bank wants every man to make enough margin of profit so that the necessities of life, a home and a reserve for old age can be provided.

Let us justify your patronage by good service and fair treatment.

Bank of Union

UNION NEBRASKA

Mrs. Clarence Dodds of Omaha spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. H. M. Shoemaker, of Union.

Lemuel Barritt, who is attending the state university at Lincoln, was a guest of his parents in Union over Sunday.

Dr. R. M. Swab spent the week end with friends at Omaha and returned home on the early train Monday morning.

Ivan Balfour completed his corn picking today and considers he is lucky to have completed the work this soon.

Last Tuesday J. B. Bramlett was a passenger to Plattsmouth, where he went to serve as a juror in the district court.

R. D. Stine was a visitor in Nebraska a few days ago, where he was looking after some business matters in that rushing city.

Emercy Hathaway was called to Nebraska City last week to look after some business matters making the trip via the Missouri Pacific.

Attorney D. O. Dwyer of Plattsmouth was looking after some legal business in Union last Friday, being a visitor here between trains.

Mrs. E. Fuller was a visitor in Nebraska City last Saturday, where she was the guest of friends and was also looking after some shopping.

Miss Naomi Mougay, who is attending the state university, was a visitor at the home of her parents northwest of town for over Sunday.

Miss Helen Chapman who is a student at the state university at Lincoln, came down for a visit at the home of her parents for over Sunday.

Miss Verna Harris who is employed in Nebraska, with the Sheldon Manufacturing company, was a visitor at the home of her parents in Union over Sunday.

A. H. Austin was a visitor in Lincoln for a number of days last week. He was the guest at the home of his daughter, and enjoyed the visit greatly.

J. C. Wheeler of Pawnee City, who has been visiting with his parents just east of Murray, was a brief visitor in Union last Monday, stopping between trains.

Matthew Gering of Plattsmouth, was a very brief visitor in Union last Monday while on his way to Nebraska City, where he had some legal matters to look after.

Mrs. Kate Smith of Omaha, was a visitor in Union for a short time last week, being the guest of her mother, Mrs. H. M. Shoemaker of this city, returning to her home Monday morning.

Robert Roddy who is attending medical college at Omaha, was a visitor in Union at his home near here last week, remaining from Friday to Sunday and returning to his studies.

Among those visiting and shopping in Nebraska City last Monday were the Mesdames D. C. LaRue, Blair Porter, Wm. Craig, and W. H. Marks of Union, and Mrs. Hugh Robb of Wyoming.

George W. Leach, father of E. E. Leach, has been confined to his bed for the past few days with an attack of the grippe, which has been rather stubborn to treat, but Grandpa is making some improvement.

Earl Merritt, the painter and decorator, is busily engaged this week finishing the two rental properties of Mrs. Rachel Pell, and when the papering and other inside work is completed, the houses will be in excellent condition.

Miss Geraldine Liston, who makes her home at Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union for a short time last Sunday while on her way to Elmwood where she went to visit with relatives and friends.

Last Saturday John Frans went to Plattsmouth and returned with his brother Kemper Frans and Ellie LaRue, who are employees at the Burlington shops. The boys spent Sunday at home and return to their work on the train Sunday evening.

C. F. Morton has some seventy acres of corn picked and is getting along very nicely. He himself has to pass the buck on the other fellow, as he was called to serve as a juror in the district court to the county seat this week.

Mrs. Vesta Clarke and daughter, Miss Lydia, were spending some time last week at Fairbury, where the former had some business matters to look after regarding some property which she has there. The daughter was visiting during the time with friends of that city.

Iva Mougay, who has been living at Crowhart, Wyoming, for the past two or three years, arrived in Union and spent some time visiting with relatives and friends here. Iva thinks there is no place just like Wyoming, and on the other hand knows there is no place just like Union.

Miss Jessie Todd assumed the duties at the postoffice, for the postmistress, Miss Lydia Clarke, while she visited during a portion of last week at Fairbury and also while she looked after some business matters at Nebraska City. Miss Todd makes a very efficient and clever official.

Mrs. Charles Renner of Eagle was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Swanson for over Sunday returning home on the train Sunday and was accompanied by Mr. Swanson, who returned home on the midnight train and thus was not able to attend meeting Sunday evening.

Wm. Highfield and Harry Gouchenour of Plattsmouth, were in Union last Monday installing a new line service for the merchants here, which enables them to use a switch in going from one room to another, thus making the matter of the lights more efficient, cheaper, and more convenient.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rutledge, who are making their home in Syracuse, were visitors in Union for a short time between trains, while on their way from a visit at the home of the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rutledge of Nebraska. Mr. Glen Rutledge was the editor of the Union Ledger, when the paper was last published in Union.

John Banning and wife of Lindsay, arrived in Union last Saturday evening for a short visit. They spent the time at the home of relatives and being the guests Sunday with the mother of Mr. Banning, Mrs. E. A. Hanning, who lives south of Union. Mr. Banning departed on Monday evening for his home in the north while Mrs. Banning remained for a visit at the home of her folks, Henry O'Donnell and mother, near Union, where she will spend the week.

Will Make Extended Visit.
Yesterday, Wednesday, J. D. Cross, the manager of the Farmer's store, departed for the west, where he was called to see one of his brothers, who has been sick for some time. Mr. Cross will visit while he is away at the home of his brother, D. L. Cross of Brush, Colorado, and also at the home of his other brother, J. B. Cross at Kersey, Colorado. After having spent some time at the home of his brothers he will also visit at the home of his sons, Ray and Carl Cross and families, who are now making their homes at Arriba, Colorado, and where he expects to spend Thanksgiving.

Was Home For The Day.
On account of the arrangements for what is known as College day, the Methodist church at Wabash asked for the date of last Sunday which was the one on which the Baptists of Wabash hold their services, and they graciously conceded the date. Rev. W. A. Taylor, whose date was to preach there that day, was able to remain home with Mother Taylor for the Sunday.

Met With Mrs. C. F. Harris.
The Woman's Christian Temperance union met at the home of Mrs. C. F. Harris last Wednesday afternoon, where they enjoyed an excellent program. One very interesting portion of the exercises being a reading of Miss Gussie Robb, who was the delegate to the state meeting that was held at David City a short time ago. Miss Robb gave a very accurate and interesting account of the doings of the state convention.

Following this was discussion of Anti-Narcotics, which was participated in by all the members present and made most interesting by Mrs. E. J. Mougay, who was the efficient leader. The meeting was concluded by the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess, Mrs. C. F. Harris.

Loses a Valuable Cow.
On account of feeding to heavily on the last crop of alfalfa, which had been touched by the frost, a valuable cow belonging to Mr. L. G. Todd, died. Mr. Todd is the loser by one hundred dollars by the death of the cow.

Here is the Man For You.
Charles Osborne, who is the mail clerk running between Lincoln and Union, has demonstrated many a time that he is made of the right kind of stuff. Many times he would assist in the barber shop of Ira Clarke during the time he was here. There being no surplus of work in the shop during the time of corn picking he put on his overalls, went to the home of E. E. Leach immediately on his arrival in town, and picked corn until noon, and in the afternoon did the same until just time to go to the train to take his run, thus able to make an extra twenty dollars per week.

Try Frans Brothers For Estimates.
Notice the attractive ad for the Frans Brothers Lumber company in this issue. Should you be desiring anything in this line, give this firm an opportunity to furnish you estimations on what is desired. They are in position to give you very interesting figures and will be pleased to do so.

Enjoyed the Day Together.
At the home of W. L. Hoback last Sunday, were gathered the families of Charles Hoback and John Hoback, the sons of this worthy couple, and under their hospitable roof the three families enjoyed a very pleasant time in sociability and at the dinner which Mother Hoback and daughter, Miss Lelia, served. The day was one of pleasure and such many family reunions should be.

Are Making a Great Campaign.
The Epworth League of the Methodist church of Union, are very active in the work of the campaign to "Win My Chum," and are conducting a series of meetings for that purpose at the Methodist church this week. There is being presented each night a very interesting program and much interest is being aroused in the work of the young people. Drop in in the evening and enjoy the meeting and become a member if you are not one already.

Had to Pay to Vote in Virginia.
Stephen Copenhagen but recently returned from Virginia, where he has been visiting for some time and tells of much excitement in the section over politics. He says that there was a poll tax exacted from the ladies in order that they could vote and when they had paid the amount they looked upon the matter as though they had a right to vote as they pleased, even if their husband did vote the other way. Mr. Copenhagen says the voting of many a wife on opposite tickets had caused a number of divorces, even before the election had come.

Will Serve Dinner and Supper.
The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church of Union will give their annual dinner, supper and bazaar at the M. W. A. hall, Thursday, November 25th. Everybody cordially invited. 21 T's w.

Union School Notes.
Last Friday marked the end of the first quarter of the school year.

Miss Scrivens, our new teacher, was elected to act as our class sponsor.

Charlie Micham was absent from school on Thursday on account of illness.

We are taking up the "Rime of the Ancient Mariner" in our English work now.

The domestic science girls are making very interesting notebooks on meat this week.

The high school wishes to extend a very hearty welcome to Miss Scrivens, our new teacher.

Miss Vera Debes Dornier of Elmwood, was a visitor in high school last Friday between trains.

Fifth and Sixth grades—Iola McQuinn and Lena Rakes are absent from school on account of illness.

The Reviewers, classed their courses in reading and will now take up the study of geography.

We have our Thanksgiving decorations up now and are all looking forward to Thanksgiving with much anticipation.

Seventh and Eighth grades—The seventh grade has finished some very interesting and attractive booklets on South America.

We had all of our examinations last Friday and when the day was over every freshman heaved a sigh of relief and thankfulness.

We wish to thank Miss Peters and Miss McCarroll's room for the parade they put on last Thursday morning, for we all enjoyed it very much.

Primary room—The gymnasium is open now and as well as the other rooms enjoy playing there during recesses and noons while the weather is so cold and stormy.

Third and Fourth grades—Mary Donnelly Robb is still out of school and is taking treatments in Nebraska City. We hope she will soon be able to come back to school and take up her work again.

Miss Gussie Robb visited the school Thursday and distributed flags through all the grade rooms. All the rooms wish to thank her very much for her interest in us and for the flags which mean so much to all true Americans.

Thursday morning we and the pupils of Miss McCarroll's room surprised the other rooms with a very gaily decorated parade. All the children wore or carried the flag and marched through the other rooms amid much applause and delight.

High school notes—Freshman notes: Mildred Clark, our class president, resigned last Tuesday. Florence Thacker has been elected to fill the place. Our class officers now are: Florence Thacker, president; Daniel Reynolds, vice president; Ina LaRue, secretary and treasurer.

We wish to thank the high school for inviting us into the assembly Armistice day to enjoy a short program which consisted of a short talk by Mr. Severny; the Flag Salute; Somewhere a Voice is Calling; The Star Spangled Banner; by Ray Fahlander and Alice Todd; Duet—Tumble Down Shack in Athlone, by Ina LaRue and Mildred Clark.

THE W. R. C. LADIES HAVE A FINE TIME

MRS. C. TUNGATE OF OMAHA HOSTESS TO DINNER PARTY IN HONOR OF LOCAL LADIES

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Plattsmouth post of the Woman's Relief Corps enjoyed an occasion of unusual pleasantness when they were the guests at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tungate 3104 California street, Omaha.

It was a very happy event for all the members of the party and the opportunity of spending a few hours with the hostess, who is the only living charter member of the Plattsmouth W. R. C., and who was for many years one of the most faithful and devoted workers in the patriotic society while a resident in this city.

The occasion brought back the memories of the past years in the old home when Mrs. Tungate had been active in the work of the organization and her royal hospitality afforded the members of the party demonstrated that she still retained a deep feeling of friendship and interest in the work of the old friends and associates.

The very attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Tungate had been charmingly arranged in decorations of the fall flowers, the stately chrysanthemums prevailing in the decorative scheme and in the table decorations the flowers made a pleasing note in the beauty of the table. The center piece was a large pyramid of the choicest fruits and at each plate tiny silk American flags were used as favors, and with the snowy linen and sparkling glass and silver made a scene of the greatest beauty. At 6 o'clock a very delightful 3-course dinner was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Mural Manchester of Omaha and which came as a most enjoyable feature of the pleasant afternoon.

The ladies enjoyed a very pleasant time in visiting as well as in the many pleasing musical numbers given by Miss Genevieve Whelan, who is attending the conservatory of music in Omaha and who was one of the members of the party and the members of the party also spent some time in singing the old songs as well as in dancing.

In honor of her long and faithful service in the corps, Mrs. Tungate was presented by the Plattsmouth ladies with a beautiful silk flag and standard, the presentation speech being made by Mrs. George A. Dodge and to which Mrs. Tungate responded very feelingly and the beautiful flag will be long treasured by the recipient as a token of the high esteem felt for her by the old friends in Plattsmouth.

Those attending from this city were Messrs and Mesdames John Fight, T. W. Glenn, Mesdames Val Burke, L. B. Egenberger, F. G. Egenberger, Robert Troop, Mrs. Woodrey, Michael Whelan, Alice Cowles, George Dodge, Elizabeth Forbes, J. C. Petersen, Messrs. R. B. Windham and Ashby Jacks. Mrs. E. S. Barstow of Omaha, a former member of the post, was also a guest of the afternoon.
