Hiatt & Tutt,

MURRAY, : : : NEBRASKA

Mrs. T. S. Barrows was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, where she was having some dental work done and was looking after some shopping as well as visiting with friends.

Cashier of the Murray Bank and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roedecker, were visitors in Omaha last Thursday where they were both visiting and looking after some business matters.

Do not forget the Thanksgiving dinner which is a feature of the fall season at the Lewiston church. Come and enjoy the day and also assist the church, and meet your many friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shrader of Omaha, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Eldeline, were the guests at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother Henry C. Long and wife.

Do not forget the bazaar in the interest of the Otterbein church which will be given at the home of Mrs. L. Rusterholz, Saturday afternoon and evening, November 20th. Come and get a good supper.

Attorney C. A. Rawls and former merchant of Murray, James W. Holmes and their families of Plattsmouth, were the guests at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. Will S. Smith for dinner last Sunday.

Henry Rice was out last Saturday looking after the feathered tribe, and induced four geese to return home with him. They were somewhat stubborn and had to be killed before they would give obedience.

Wm. Rice, who has been making his home at Wayne, where he has been farming for a number of years, returned to Murray a few days ago and will engage in husbandry in Cass county the coming season.

The telegraph wires, which have been in the way preventing the work on the new addition to the elevator, were changed one day last week and thus the workmen were enabled to proceed with the work on the building.

Frank Schiltensler shipped from his feeding lots last Tuesday, two cars of cattle of the finest quality, which went to the stock market at South Omaha, and brought good prices under the conditions which now prevail.

Mrs. A. J. Walker and daughter, Miss Marie, will spend the winter, until after the first of the year at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, and later they will depart for the south and will visit in Texas for the remainder of the winter.

Last Saturday, T. J. Brendel went out to the river for a short time and was able to land sixteen ducks, which he considered as being very good, and if we were to pass on the matter we would say that was an exceptional good bagging of game.

J. H. Burton, who has been confined to his room since last summer on account of a fall which fractured his hip, was able with the aid of his crutches, to go as far as the gate last Monday. He will soon be able to be out again, though the weather is not the best just now.

Thomas Jamison of Lincoln, who was looking after some business matters in Omaha for a short time last week, dropped down to Murray last Friday for a short visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Brendel, and remained the guest of the family until Sunday afternoon.

The car situation is again not as easy as it was a short time ago. When the prices went to pieces and the farmer was busy picking his corn, the demand for cars was not as great as formerly, and the grain cars were diverted to another section, making it just now difficult to secure what is needed to move the grain.

Glen Todd was both engineer and conductor on an odd train last Monday evening. He had been to Omaha and while there purchased a span of horses and a span of mules, which he coupled on his auto and led the operation from the stock exchange building to his home home two miles south of Murray and made the time in a little over two hours.

A few days ago Ralph Kennedy, who is handy at anything, completed the laying of a floor and later hung some rooms of paper at the home of Roy Creamer.

The roads leading to the Lewiston church are badly in need of dragging before the Thanksgiving dinner. Will some interested man volunteer this service as his part?

Mrs. R. P. Nickles Entertains

Mrs. R. P. Nickles very pleasantly entertained the Lewiston ladies aid Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting the final arrangements for the annual Thanksgiving dinner to be given at the Lewiston church were completed. A number of visitors were also present to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Nickles. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess at a late hour, which added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

Thanksgiving at Lewiston

The Lewiston ladies are preparing to give their annual Thanksgiving dinner at the Lewiston church. The usual program will be given. Service by Rev. Taylor of Union at 11 a. m. The proceeds of this dinner and supper will be used for the care of the cemetery and needed repairs for the church. The community is cordially invited to assist in giving this dinner. Anyone having relatives or friends buried at Lewiston should be especially interested in the movement.

Cleans Up Lewiston Cemetery

James Hatcher and Al Jones have completed the cleaning up of the Lewiston cemetery and church grounds, which certainly adds very much to the appearance of the place. Many monuments are broken down, many are leaning and certainly need attention. Any one having relatives or friends buried at Lewiston and wish their graves given attention or monuments repaired, Mr. Hatcher will be glad to attend to the matter. He may be addressed at Murray.

"Cheer-Up" Club for Murray

In exchange for $1 annual dues, scores of recruits were reported being added to the "Cheer-Up—Don't Worry club" here which was organized by the Rev. Dr. T. W. Davis, chaplain of the Pennsylvania state senate.

The following seven "commandments", however, were to be observed and strictly abided:

1. Cheer up others and yourself.
2. Don't worry others or yourself.
3. Live and let others live.
4. Scatter sunshine wherever you go.
5. Don't cuss or get angry—it hurts you.
6. Greet everyone with a pleasant smile.
7. Laugh out loud three times a day.

The high school finished their quarterly examinations last Friday. Mabel Howard was visiting in Plattsmouth over Saturday and Sunday.

Elizabeth McCracken was a visitor at the home of Margaret Puls Sunday.

Ethel Alix was a visitor at the home of Marie Puls Friday afternoon.

Margaret Dietl attended the box social at the Amick school Friday night.

Hazel Wickham was a visitor at the home of Hazle Davis last Saturday afternoon.

Charles Barrows, Lester and Cecil Gansamer spent Sunday afternoon at Charles Howard's home.

The ninth grade is now working on multiplication in Algebra and find the subject getting a little harder.

The ninth and tenth grades are practicing every spare minute they have on their part of the program for the box social.

Blanche Scotten, Curtis Faris, Hazle Davis, Elsie Puls, Lois Scotten and Marie Puls, were down to Rock Creek Sunday afternoon skating.

Each room is working hard on its share towards the program for the box social which will be given November 24, at the hall. Everybody come, and ladies, don't forget to bring money or some thing to buy.

Last Friday being Elsie Puls' fourteenth birthday, her school mates gave her a surprise birthday party. Those present were Henry Hill, Lester Long, Doris Wright, Lester Gansamer, Cecil Gansamer, Hazel Wickham, Gladys Mrazek, Muriel Wickham, Lois Scotten, Dick March, Charles Barrows, Earl Mrazek, Leon Gansamer, Lorene Hatcher, Leona Puls, and Blanche Scotten. They all had a good time.

On school we give the following program at the box social Wednesday evening, Nov. 24th, at the Puls hall: Welcome song—Edward Howard.

Recitation—Opal Homan. Song—"I Can't Do a Thing With My Hair."

Since Its Washed—Eight girls. Recitation—Eppings. Thanksgiving Acrostic—Little folks.

excellent job of it. At that George said he was going to have the cabinet work done on the nests. He was considering the matter of having a refrigerator in the building to keep the eggs at the right temperature, when the laying was so crowded that he would not have time to gather the eggs as rapidly as they were deposited in the luxuriously furnished nests. We are awaiting with considerable interest the stimulus which will be given the layers by their unique and splendid surroundings.

Captured a Red Fox

C. A. McKeenolds living two miles south of Murray, caught, on his farm one day last week, a red fox. These animals are very difficult to trap. Mr. McKeenolds expects to bring the fox to the post office, where he will place it on exhibition for a short time that the people might be able to see a real red fox fur.

Burglary Still Mystery

The breaking into the business house of the firm of Hiatt & Tutt last Saturday evening or Sunday morning, and robbing the store to the extent of $200, as mentioned in the Daily Journal, still remains a mystery as to who were the burglars. The practice of breaking into stores for robbery has become a serious one and a thing which challenges the attention of all thoughtful citizens to some means of preventing the work and apprehending the criminals.

Visiting in Missouri

C. H. Boecker departed a few days ago for a two weeks' visit at the home of friends and relatives in Missouri, where he will be the guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Howard Hutehman and family. After visiting there for a while he will go to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. R. A. Bidwell, who lives at Balcon, Mo., where he will spend Thanksgiving visiting with old time friends and relatives.

Will Feed Cattle on Farm

Harry G. Todd, who lives south of town, and who also is interested in a large ranch in the northern portion of the state, a few days ago shipped from the ranch, one hundred and twenty head of cattle to the farm near Murray, where he will put them on feed for the market here. The cattle were loaded at Ainsworth for shipment to Murray.

Will Give Show Next Week

Percy Field, Carl Renner, Miss Clara Hunter and Mrs. W. H. Smith were in Murray last Monday afternoon looking after the advertising of a minstrel show which the campfire girls and boys club are to put on at Plattsmouth next Monday and Tuesday. This promises to be an entertainment of much worth, and will be well worth the while of those who are fond of entertainments, to make it a point to be there.

Has Purchased Dray Line

Frank Marasek, one of the progressive citizens of Murray, has taken on another line with his business, it being the dray line, which was formerly operated by D. C. Rhoden, who will continue the livery business. Mr. Marasek has employed Harry Puls for the present, while he himself is getting out his corn which he hopes soon to have in the crib.

Will Move West

C. C. Tucker, who has made his home a short distance west of Murray for some time, will have a sale in the near future, having selected December 27th as the date, during the holidays, and will in a short time thereafter depart for the west and will farm for the coming year near the town of Arnold in Custer county.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to those who so kindly assisted us in numerous ways at the time of the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Lucy Elma Burton, and for the floral offerings and to those who assisted in the singing. J. H. Burton and children. (Continued on Page 7)
