This is Not a Trifle Either
The enterprising firm of Hiatt & Tutt, who had their store burglarized some time ago and lost a quantity of goods, have had the glass replaced which cost them the tidy sum of $36. This is also added to the amount which the marauders stole when the place was broken into. It was not enough to lose the goods, but good money besides had to be paid out for the replacement of the glass and which is again liable to be broken by the outlaws.

Entering Business.
In another column will be seen the advertisement of Mr. J. A. Scotton, who is entering business in the room next to the blacksmith shop, where he will handle cream, milk, butter and eggs, and all kinds of country produce. Mr. Scotton, who has been in Murray for a number of years, has always been industrious and worked hard. He is entering business to treat the public right, and we are sure will build up a good business. We understand he will have the only business in this line and will pay cash for all which he handles. He will pay the highest market price consistent with good business principles. Give Mr. Scotton a call and a trial and we are certain he will treat you the best and you will be a satisfied patron of his place.

Marked Time at 35 Years.
Last Saturday evening a large number of the friends and neighbors of Ernest Carroll and many from Murray, gathered at his home and with the assistance of the good wife of this estimable gentleman, completely surprised Mr. Carroll, it being his thirty-fifth birthday. The good natured crowd had a merry time at the home and as a climax of the pleasant day, were served by a delightful luncheon by their pleasant hostess, Mrs. Carroll. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carroll, parents of Mr. Ernest Carroll of Murray, were in attendance and enjoyed the occasion.

Enjoyed Missouri Dinner.
A few days ago C. H. Boedeker, who has been at the home of a daughter at Everett, Mo., returned after having enjoyed a visit of some two weeks, and tells of having an excellent time while there. On Thanksgiving day he took dinner at the Presbyterian church which was furnished with the ladies of the congregation and such a dinner. Mr. Boedeker was fit for the Gods, with everything the heart could desire and generous quantities at that. He says the people in the "show me" state sure know how to be hospitable.

GETS VERY BAD TREATMENT

Last Thursday, being Thanksgiving day, Harry C. Todd, of near Murray, found something to be thankful for, although he had to look some time. He was on his way to Lincoln with a truck load of goods, among which were a number of crates of chickens, a quantity of canned fruit, and a valise containing a number of articles of clothing. He was nearing the capital city where a man with a large car, driving very recklessly and having with him another man and two women, and as they came up behind the truck that Mr. Todd was driving they partially turned off the road to pass and struck the rear hub of Mr. Todd's truck, sending him into the ditch by the roadside. He was not able to get out and went to town for help returning as soon as possible. On his return he found the chickens, fruit and valise gone and many things stripped from the truck. The other man brought suit against Mr. Todd for $200 besides. Mr. Todd says he will give the man all of the law he wants.

Opening Announcement!

I have opened a cream station in Murray and will handle Cream, Milk, Eggs, Butter and Provisions. Best treatment—highest market prices paid at all times consistent with safe business practice.
