ALVO DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Scott is quite ill with a cold. Saturday in Lincoln.

Uncle Geo. Skiles of Murdock, was in town Tuesday morning. E. M. Stone is having considerable trouble with a bruised hand.

Mrs. Roy Coatman and Mrs. A. J. Brobst went to Lincoln Friday. The Woman's Reading club met Thursday with Mrs. L. Lauritsen. Alex Jones of South Bend, was in

Alvo on business Tuesday morning. giving vacation with friends at York. Miss Dickerson spent Friday in Oma-

Mrs. Ella Prouty of Greenwood, was visiting relatives and friends here last week

Mr. and Mrs. Young.

George P. Foreman home, Mrs. Frances Cash and children of Plymouth, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Meyers. Glenn Weaver of South Bend, visited Sunday evening with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shaffer.

The recent rainy weather has delayed corn shucking, though about half of the farmers have finished. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe are spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Lincoln Dimmitt and family at Greenwood. Miss Marie Bird, who has been home and is now employed in the telephone office here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark and child-Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Foreman. Miss Marie Appleman,

Blanch Moore and Miss Aurell Foreman and Miss Laverne Stone were week end visitors from Lincoln. Miss Clara Dickerson came down

Geo. P. Foreman attended a Farm Bureau meeting in Lincoln Monday. Mr. Foreman is captain of Greenwood precinct in the drive for new mem-

Miss Aleda Thompson and nephew Wm. Phillips of Omaha, visited over Thanksgiving with the former's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. D.

Richardson. Miss Ella Vincent came in Wednesturned to her school at Malcolm Sun-

Glenn Sliger, R. W. Stewart, and day evening.

Wm. E. Casey of Denver, Colo. spent a few hours in Alvo Thursday ed took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards. He left for home Thursday evening.

Word has been received here of the his home in California. He is survived by his wife and one granddaughter and one grandson.

home of their teacher, Mrs. Audrey tions, Stroemer for their regular monthly business meeting and social hour. Mrs. John Murtey returned recently from a visit with her mother, Mrs. Price at Clay Center. Mr. and Mrs. Murtey expect to leave this week for California, where they will spend she spent Thanksgiving with her er and light plants.

son Frank Uptegrove and family. Nebraska Wesleyan, where he is a Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Foreman spent | She was accompanaied home by her son Frank, who spent Saturday here.

Word from Byron Foreman states that he reached his home at Nia- day until Sunday, going up to underbrara, November 18, after autoing go operations for the removal of to Washington and California and their tonsils. They were at the back since early summer. He expects to spend the winter in Hous- ting along very well and are glad ton. Texas.

Miss Ruth E. Vincent, eldest necessary. daughter of Mrs. G. P. Kahler, and Mr. Elbert E. Taylor were married ing corn for his brother, C. E. Noyes, Miss Doris Arnold spent Thanks- Nov. 24, 1902, at Omaha. Mr. and on the old home place, spent his Mrs. Taylor will make their home in Thanksgiving at home with his fam-Mrs. L. Lauritsen and daughter, Alvo, where both have a host of ily. They have their corn all huskfriends who wish them a very happy ed and had about 100 acres which Chas. Bodbey received the sad news Mr. Noyes rented eighty acres of that his sister, Mrs. Nora Bears has his land last year to Martin Sjogren. here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appleman

Pent Thanksgiving in Lincoln with

Bears is survived by one daughter,

Miss Daisy Schlater, who recently underwent an operation at the Mrs. Young Leonard Beans of Lincoln, spent Kenneth, and her brothers and sisters delicate health, she seems to have a Saturday night and Sunday at the who have the sympathy of many good constitution after all, which is

STATE FUNDS

Collections of Taxes Levied for Activities of the State.

Overdrafts on the state treasury, or the drawing of funds in advance working in Lincoln has returned of collections of taxes levied, increased in November from a total of $1,-136,562 to $2,100,965. The balance in the treasury October 30 was $3.ren from near Prairie Home, spent 667,538. Deducting overdrafts which Funday with Mrs. Clark's parents, are carried as cash, the balance on that date was $1,136,562.

The monthly report of State Treasurer D. B. Cropsey shows receipts aggregating $642,602.87 during the month of November. The disbursements amounted to $1,079,395.28. from Lincoln Wednesday evening The balance in the treasury Decemspending Thanksgiving vacation with ber 1, was $2.782,196.07. Deducther parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lauritling overdrafts carried as cash leaves ing overdrafts carried as cash leaves balance of $681,230ff56.

The larger balances in the principal funds are: General fund, $91,-853; capitol fund, $750,959; federal aid road, $228,144; state hail insurance fund, $75,852; state highway fund, derived from automobile registration fees. $816,745; institutional cash, $201,204; university cash, $97,- 963; temporary school, $274,362. The $2,100,965 of overdrafts are as follows: State aid road $861,day night to spend the Thanksgiving 591; state normals, $292,921; temvacation with home folks. She re- porary university, $292,304; special university, $282,290; university acivities, $338,426; university build-Among those going to Lincoln Fri- ing, $8,541; state aid bridge, $25,day were Mrs. Joe Armstrong, Mrs. 889. The university funds are over-J. P. Rouse, Mrs. W. E. Fairfield, drawn $921,561. The state trust funds are all invested in interest pearing secuirties except $4,000.

EARLY CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS

The early Christmas shopper can find the latest Christmas novelties here was a complete surprise to Mr. cards, stationary and books at the E. F. Marshall. recent death of Mr. George Hess at Journal office as well as a complete line of the most attractive and hand- hawka Tuesday evening and remainsome Christmas decorations that is ed over night with his brother, Aucarried anywhere in the west. Do gust Meyers, who accompanied him The "Live Wire" Sunday school your shopping early and call at our class met Wednesday evening at the Christmas shop to make your selec- Henry will undergo another opera-

EXPLAINS CITY MANAGER PLAN

Falls City, Dec. 2 .- Henry Trasler, city manager of Clarinda, Ia., spoke before the Rotary club of Falls City explaining in detail the city manager plan. He was introduced Mrs. E. L. Uptegrove returned Fri- by Mayor Schock, who briefly reviewday evening from Lincoln, where ed conditions in Falls City as to wat-

Buying Grain and Stock!

We always pay the highest price for Grain and Stock. We own and run our own elevator and mix and grade up our grain, enabling us to always pay top prices.

I AM YOUR FRIEND

JOHN MURTEY, ALVO

Just Received!

__A NICE LINE OF___

Horse Blankets and Auto Robes!

Coatman Hardware,

LOUISVILLE

Theodore Stander, of Louisville, has been elected to membership in the Delta Omega Phi fraternity at

Andrew Stohlman and son, Leroy, were in Omaha last week from Frito have it over so long as it seemed student.

Rollie Noyes, who has been shuckis considerably less than usual, but

Miss Vera Bears, two sons, Frank and ing splendidly and in spite of her a surprise to her friends. Those who have called upon her say she is looking fine and will soon be able to return home. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Steele of near Elmwood are feeling very chesty over the arrival of a fine little grandson that arrived at the home of their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. Now More Than $2,00,000 Ahead of and Mrs. Frank Glaubitz on Tuesday, November 23, 1920, Mrs. Glaubitz was formerly Miss Mabel Steele, a former Louisville young lady and her many friends here extend heartiest congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Glaubitz lived on a farm near Chappell last year, but this fall they returned and now reside on a farm near Murdock.

Melvin Schliefert and Joe Murphy just south of Andrew Stohlman's farm south of town. Melvin was Hartman of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. the culvert when he met the Mur- Arthur Adams of Eagle. phy Ford and they miscalculated the distance between them to the extent that Melvin's fender was torn off and Murphy lost a wheel. There were other slight damages to both to the narrow culvert which should traveling public.

!++>++++++++++++++++++++++++ WEEPING WATER Republican ******************

Mrs. Jane Metcalf is suffering with a dislocation of the right shoulder sustained in a fall Sunday home of her daughter. Mrs. Amos Cappen, when she fell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Marshall and daughter, Miss Mary, of Franklin Square, Ohio, arrived here Tues-Marshall's brother, E. F. Marshall. They are on their way to California to spend the winter and their stop

Henry Meyers came up from Neto Omaha Wednesday morning where tion at the hospital. Henry is surely having his share of operations but he still keeps cheerful under the circumstances.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyles entertained at Thanksgiving dinner at their country home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Gilmore and family, Jasper and the Misses Viola and Samantha Timblin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Timblin and family of Alvo, Mrs. Ethel Burke and daughter Wilma of Palmyra. This gathering served a double purpose as it was the birthday of four members of the partythat of Mrs. Will Timblin, Miss Samantha Timblin, Miss Wilma Burke and Howard Boyle.

Otto H. Hauschild and Miss Clara Stutt were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stutt, Wednesday. Only the very close relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the wedding, but in the evening a reception was given at the Avoca opera house to which a large number were invited. The Weeping Water orchestra furnished the music for the affair. Miss Clara is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stutt and is a young lady who is held in high esteem and respect by her many riends. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hauschild and is one of our very industrious and wellto-do young farmers. These young people come from two of the most prominent and well-to-do families n the North Branch precinct. They will make their home on the beautiful home place now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Hauschild, Sr., who expect to move to Syracuse March 1. We join our readers in wishing this young couple much happiness and prosperity in their wedded life to-

EAGLE

Born, last Friday, to Mr. and Mrs.

Valley Trumble, a fine boy. Miss Ada Trunkenholz is able to be out again after a siege of measles. Mr. and Mrs. Merl Lanning entertained the following guests on Thanksgiving day: Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Glenn of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanning and son Orin, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Scattergood, Miss Laura Vickers and Mr. Floyd Bun-

Fred H. Gerder was down from Weeping Water Wednesday and paid The Beacon a pleasant call. Gorder is commissioner-elect from

LEGION

DANCE!

Given by Hugh Karnes Post at Coates Hall,

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9th

To Musical Interpretations

Holly's Syncapating

Quintette

Admission, $1.00; Spectators, 55c; Ladies Free

this district and is a gentleman not be surprised if we found out We predict that he will prove every any time.

efficient official. Betts and family, of Anderson, Ind.; the state. Mrs. Will Angus of Nehawka; Ed | Charlie Mullin, who for several

BOX SUPPER.

The Fairview school, district 9, is cars. The accident was due perhaps planning a program and box supper for Saturday evening, December 18. be widened to insure safety to the Every one is cordially invited. Ladies please bring boxes. MAE BARKER, Teacher.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Howard Hardin has decided to quit farming and will hold a sale some time soon. Pete Nickel will move to the Charles Bailey farm which Mr. Hardin has been farming. Uncle George Lockie who is almost 100 years old, died Wednesday after a long illness. The funeral day for a visit at the home of Mr. will be held Friday afternoon from the Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Gus Bornemeier returned last week rom Colorado Springs where he spent a week or so. He also spent a splendidly equipped for the work. that he had gone back to Colorado Noel Tyson, who is principal of the neighborhood of Wm. Bornemeier, Wm. Rosenow, Fred Lake and Ed dependable. Earnest that two more herds of skunk had been captured. Sometime ago a bunch were captured in a pasture near there. Wm. Bornemeier says this is so but that they were not captured on his place. Wender who is raising all these animals for they do eat chickens and its good that they have been dispatched.

A family gathering was held at schools at Scotts Bluffs, Neb., was led there that day. the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. in Elmwood last Saturday and Sun-Betts on Thanksgiving day. As is day visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. ing. Those present were: Clarence is one of the rising school men of the farm west of town.

Shackley and family, Geo. McFadden years made his home with Mr. and with some boils, reports that they are and son, Charley McFadden and fam- Mrs. A. W. Neihart, died at the home showing some signs of abating and had a car collision last Saturday ily, all of Avoca; Mrs. Frank Mc-night when they met at the culvert fadden and daughter of Peru; Mrs. Okla., last week of tuberculosis con-field again soon and picking corn Pinnell and son and Mr. and Mrs. tracted while in the army. He has been in a government hospital since headed north and had just crossed Charley Jacobson and Mr. and Mrs. the war. His parents were both dead while there looked after some busiwill remember him.

From Saturday's Dally. ters of business.

Miss Marie Kaufman departed this morning for Omaha to look after the special school work she is taking at Creighton university.

fine while there and that we should ton train for his home.

ment at least Mrs. Bridget O'Leary and three

O'Leary, were in Lincoln last Friday, called there to attend the funeral of Miss Henrietta Carper, who was bur-

Frank Stander of Omaha, was : visitor in and near Manley last Friusual when the Bett's entertain there L. A. Tyson. Noel had attended a day and Saturday, coming down on was abundance of the good cheer and school meeting at Omaha last week the trin Friday to look after some good eats appropriate for Thanksgiv- and took occasion to run down. He business matters at Manley and at

Eli Kreckler, who has been kept from his work for the past two weeks, visiting in Omaha last Saturday and when he came to live in Elmwood, ness matters as well. The business He was a bright boy and many people at Manley was looked after by Joseph Wolpert during their absence Recently the report comes from the Mr. Wolpert is sure a gentlemanly and accommodating man and always

While the weather was so that nothing could be done in the line of ing illness of some years duration. floating the road, August Krecklow and his son Louis, kept themselves busy in felling some of the large Carper was formerly a member of trees which stood along the highway and obscured the view and shad- place and has worshiped with the ed the roadway so they were longer drying. Their removal is a great W. G. Boedeker of the Murray help to the highway and it is com-State bank was in the city today for mendable of Mr. Krecklow and his a few hours looking after some mat- son that they are being taken out of attendance at the funeral from this the way.

Will Farm Next Year.

implements and machinery which be-Claus Ploehn of Scribner, Nebras- long to Omar Coon, and has rented ka, who has been here for the past the farm just south of town where week visiting with relatives and Mr. Coon has farmed and will emfriends in this portion of Cass coun- bark in farming the coming year ty at the H. M. Soennichsen, John Mr. Heebner is a man who under-Wichman, Ferdinand Hennings and stands farming, having had considfew days visiting relatives at Bird William Wohlfarth homes, departed erable experience along that line and Higgins and his mother, at the par-City, Kansas. He sys that he felt this morning on the early Burling- we are certain will make a success in

MANLEY NEWS

Wm. Heebner shipped a car of attle, sheep and hogs to the South Omaha market last Thursday.

Ralph Keckler from west of Weeping Water, accompanied by his family, were visiting in Manley last Friday for a short time.

Herman Dall was a visitor at Omaha last Friday, where he was looking after some business in the line of and see some of the wonders of the making some purchases in regard to Pacific coast country. his work in the plumbing line. John Fleischman, the carpenter and contractor, who built the new and beautiful home for Mr. C. E. Mockenhaupt, completed the work by putting on storm sashes last week. Uncle James Murphy, who has been confined to his home and bed for the past week or ten days, is able to be down town again and ready for a game of "rummy" with the beys

During the past ten days there has been five cars of grain consisting mostly of corn, but some wheat, shipped to the central markets from Maney, showing that there is some move-

sons, Charles, John and Michael

Rudolph Bergman and wife were Making a Good Road.

Will Heebner has purchased the

Will Spend Winter in West. During the last week Charles Gerich of Manley and James Terryberry living east of town, departed for California and will spend the winter or a greater portion of it in Los Augeles. To say they will have a good time is not necessary, for they will sure enjoy the mild western climate

Will Make Home in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keckler departed one day last week for Omaha, where they will make their home for the winter. Mr. Keckler, whose health is not the best, desires to be near the physician who has been treating him and would much rather secure some rooms there and make their home in Omaha, rather than go to the hospital for the treatment. It is hoped he will improve from the treatment and be able to return much better in health in the near parish of Manley and his mother, returned a week ago from a trip to New York, where they were summhoned a short time ago by the death of a niece of Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. Charles Daniels of Boston, who passed away at her home after an operation at a hospital at that place. The remains were taken to New York for interment, the funeral being attended by a large number of relaives and friends of the east. The uneral occurred on Saturday, Nov. 19, and interment was made beside that of her husband who passed away some eight years ago. Besides the attendance of Father Higgins and his mother from here there were friends from Boston, Springfield, Mass., Philadelphia and from Hartford and Bridgeport, Conn.

Returned From the East. Father Higgins of the St. Patrick's

Miss Henrietta Carper Dies. Last Wednesday, Miss Henrietta 'arper, who formerly made her home in and near Manley, but who has for some time been making her home in Lincoln, passed away after a linger-

The funeral was held at Lincoln and interment made there. Miss St. Patrick's Catholic church of this church in Lincoln since making her home there. There was a large number of people, old friends and former acquaintances, as well as relatives in place last Friday. Among those to go were Mesdames John and Herman Rauth, John Murphy, Charles Gerlich and John and Will Carper and their families.

Spends Week End Here.

Wm. E. Casey, formerly making Denver, Colo., came all the way from is home in the west to spend the week end with his relatives. Father ish home of the St. Patrick's church.

Every Suit in Our House

at just three prices---

-nothing reserved!

That's the head line-that's the whole story. It doesn't require many words to get you to see that this is the biggest clothing offer Plattsmouth has seen in many years. Just think what it means to have unrestricted choice of a stock like ours at such prices. Remember these are not sale goods, bought for the occasion, but our regular stock of solid reliable makes, and includes blue serges, staple worsteds, full dress and every suit in the stock from young men's to old men's, from the smallest size to the largest, that formerly retailed to $85. We've "kissed them all good-bye." So come and get yours and come now.

Boys' Knicker Suits $6.95 $8.95 $10.95

Men's Dress Shirts $1.89 $2.39 $3.29

These low prices are for cash only—alterations extra

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"