USE SLOAN'S TO WARD OFF PAIN

You can just tell by its healthy, stimulating odor, that it is going to do you good

"I only had some Sloan's Liniment!" How often you've said that! And then when the rheumatic twinge subsided—after hours of suffering—you forgot it!

Don't do it again—get a bottle today and keep it handy for possible use tonight! A sudden attack may come on—sciatica, lumbago, sore muscles, backache, stiff joints, neuralgia, the pains and aches resulting from exposure. You'll soon find warmth and relief in Sloan's, the liniment that penetrates without rubbing. Clean, economical. Three sizes—35c, 70c, $1.40

Sloan's Liniment (Pain's enemy)

Twenty-five thousand Indian squaws voted this year.

The use of anesthetics was known to the ancient Greeks, Egyptians and Chinese.

Since the Declaration of Independence 4,500,000 Irish have emigrated to the United States.

The international league of trade unions now has a membership of more than 27,000,000.

The millennium will come when profiteers reduce prices as cheerfully as they advanced prices.

In this glorious land of the free it costs a man a good deal to get in line at the political pie counter.

An exchange says that President Harding is a great friend to animals. Us too, and likewise to vegetables.

The talkative man proceeds on the theory that if he just talks long enough he will eventually say something.

Of course you can wait until the last day to buy Christmas presents, but you will find them much mused over.

The first mark of civilization entering the wilderness is the trail blazing pioneer. Then comes the hairpins.

A man should always be polite, but it isn't necessary to remove his hat when talking to a girl over the telephone.

Now is a good time to quarrel with your sweetheart. It will save you the expense of buying a Christmas present.

This is the season of the year when the money intended for new shoes provides useless gifts for people who don't want them.

Some of the London papers say that America has left Europe in a hole. Europe ought to be careful where she walks.

Cuba has 275,000 tons of sugar; federal officers have seized one million quarts of whisky. We have the water and a spoon.

Movie goers generally agree that a goldfish lives in dark seclusion compared to movie heroines in modern bathtub romances.

An Ohio judge has ruled that a man is the head of his wife, but don't put this decision on your wife and try to get away with it.

Charles Ponzi will now have time to reflect on the fact that while the ancient law says fools and their money are soon parted, it is frequently safer to let the separation go on its natural process.

Neither Omaha or Lincoln can match the prices at which the enterprising merchants of Plattsmouth are offering Christmas wares and staple merchandise. And that is why Plattsmouth is the shopping center of all the country around.

Governor Cox is a game lousen. Thursday he wired Senator Harding, who smothered him under an avalanche of votes, that he would appoint Senator-elect Frank B. Willis, a Republican, to fill the unexpired term of Harding. If he wanted to resign before the newly elected republican governor of Ohio takes his seat, Cox is no groucher, to say the least of it.

We can furnish you blank books of all kinds.—The Journal.

Many a man discovers after he has bought an automobile that there is nowhere to come, but back.

New York City recently had the first merchant-marine exposition ever held in the United States.

The old-fashioned boy who used to run away to join the circus now has a doleful son who has to stay at home and help wash the dishes because his sister has run away to go into movies.

The mayor of Warren, Ohio, has put a ban on "enthusiastic hugging" at dances in his town. He'd better abolish hugging altogether, then. Nothing is sadder than listless hugging.

The deadliest blow to the ambition of Greece to put Constantine back on the throne is the cold-blooded announcement of England that Greece cannot have Constantine and also a loan.

Another nice thing about Christmas shopping is that it allows you more time to take things back after looking 'em over and finding that they are really not the things you want.

Mine-run coal is quoted at $3.25 per ton and here in Plattsmouth it is quoted to you at $15 per ton, which would indicate that it is a long, long way from the mine to the coal bin.

The census bureau report shows that 3,898 persons were killed by automobiles in the United States last year. It is high time for somebody to propose a constitutional amendment prohibiting automobiles.
