LADIES CELEBRATE TWO ANNIVERSARIES

Ladies Auxiliary of Presbyterian Church Observe Golden and Silver Wedding.

From Thursday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon the parlors of the Presbyterian church was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of the members of the ladies auxiliary with Mesdames S. S. Chase, Mary E. Allison and Joseph Adams as the hostesses of the occasion.

The ladies observed the wedding anniversary of two of their members at the meeting. It being the golden anniversary of Mrs. Robert Troop and the silver anniversary of Mrs. H. A. Schneider. The members had arranged that this feature of the afternoon would be fittingly marked and two large blue cakes, aglow with the symbolic candles were placed on the tables that were an important part of the decorative scheme. Mrs. H. G. McClusky in behalf of the members of the auxiliary presented the two guests of honor with beautiful floral remembrances of the event. Mrs. Troop receiving a large bouquet of yellow roses and white Mrs. Schneider was presented with a bouquet of white carnations.

The parlors were decorated in the Christmas colors of red and green and made a very pretty scene for the pleasant gathering. The meeting was one of the largest for some time and was brought to the close by the serving of dainty and delicious refreshments by the hostesses.

THE LIGHTS FLICKER OFF AND ON LAST EVENING

From Thursday's Daily.

Holiday shopping and other activities about town were interfered with last night to a considerable extent by the intermittent flickering off and on of the electric lights over the city.

Manager Kuykendall offers in explanation thereof, the fact that the station plant of the company was destroyed by fire, shifting the peak load unexpectedly on other units, and causing interruption of the service.

It is to overcome such obstacles as this that the present plan was recently overhauled and remodeled.

ROY TOWLE DEAD.

Roy Towle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Towle, former residents of Cass county died at the family home at Lincoln last Friday. He was a patient sufferer for two years from rheumatism and neuritis, being entirely helpless.

He grew up on the farm near Wabash where the family had their home for years. He was about 27 years of age, unmarried. The funeral was held at Lincoln Sunday and he was laid to rest in the Wabash cemetery in the family lot.

Miss Rene Towle, a sister, and Geo. Towle, uncle, attended the funeral from here.—Weeping Water Republican.

WILL AID IN WORK.

From Friday's Daily.

At the meeting of Pontekelle Chapter, D. A. R. held in Omaha yesterday it was decided to take up the work of collecting clothing for the women and children of the far east. We will have a large box placed in the telephone office Monday, December 20th. (Clothing of any kind is solicited and any pieces of cloth providing they be clean can be used. We are taking this method of soliciting from any one who will give this worthy cause. Let this be part of your Christmas charity and it will make your own Christmas sweeter and better for providing for the needs of others. Just leave your bundles at the telephone office and they will be taken care of. We thank you.

DEATH OF OLLIE M. WARD.

People of this community were shocked Sunday by the announcement that Ollie Ward had died the previous night at Lincoln following an operation on Monday. The death had been operated on that night, but it was not until Saturday night that the end came. The funeral was held at Elmwood, Tuesday, and burial was at the Elmwood cemetery, a number of our people attending the services.

Mr. Ward was well known in Eagle where he was formerly engaged in business and where he has a large number of warm friends. He leaves to mourn, besides his wife, two daughters, Miss Fay, and Mrs. Wm. Umstead of Eagle, and an aged father and mother in Elmwood—Eagle Beacon.

GOVERNOR'S MANSION IS WORTH $45,000

Lincoln, Dec. 17.—The biennial report of Dan Swanson, commissioner of public lands and buildings, shows that the state capitol and the governor's mansion has an inventory value of $690,895.45. The governor's so-called mansion, located at Fifteenth and H streets, was valued by Mr. Swanson at $25,000, plus $20,000 for the site, making a total of $45,000. Furniture in the mansion is valued at $5,000.

The state capitol, which is soon to be supplanted by a new one is valued at $250,000.

FARMERS ARE GETTING ORGANIZED

Cass County Farm Bureau is Bringing in Residents of the County Districts.

The farmers of Cass county are awakening to the realization of the necessity for organized efforts in these trying times for the producers and the "kick off" meeting held at Weeping Water on Monday seems to be bringing in great numbers to become joined in the organized effort of the farmers through the Cass County Farm Bureau Federation. The opening day's drive yesterday resulted in the enrollment of 300 new members and the work will be continued vigorously all the rest of the week.

The opening meeting of the campaign was held at Weeping Water on Monday and some 250 farmers from all sections of the county were on hand to participate in the deliberations of the gatherings. The opening meeting in the morning was largely given over to instructing the soliciting committees that are to enroll the membership and Hon. W. B. Banning of Union, chairman of the membership drive was in charge of this portion of the work. The outline of the work of the federated bureau was taken up and each member of the committee give full instructions as to the work in hand that will have for the protection of the farmers of the county.

At the noon hour the ladies of the Congregational church served a fine dinner at the church parlors which placed all the members in the proper spirit for the occasion of the afternoon meetings.

The session of the afternoon was given over to an enthusiasm meeting and from the expression of the farmers who were present it certainly developed the spirit of enthusiasm for the work that will result in a great good to the farmers through mutual helpfulness. Hon. A. J. Weaver of Falls City, president of the constitutional convention was one of the speakers of the afternoon and his address was largely along the lines of the new legislation that will result as the act of the farmers of the new constitution. The address of Mr. Weaver was well received and full of much interest in regard to the workings of the new fundamental law of the state.

Other speakers were from the state agricultural school and aided in making the meeting a great success.

Boy Gladdens the Home.
T. S. (Teddy) Rager, it is said can sing like a lark, the reason being that he had advice from Verdige where Mrs. Rager is visiting at the home of her parents for the present, saying that the stork had made a visit and left in their charge a bouncing baby boy, who longs to see his father and send a message of good cheer. Well, why should not Teddy smile and sing as well.

Girl Brings Cheer and Happiness.
At the home of Emil Miller, there was some joy last Thursday, when the announcement was made of the arrival of a little blue-eyed baby girl, just the best and most gracious Christmas present imaginable, coming just before the arrival of the holiday. The proud father is not able to repress a glad smile on any provocation, while from the glad eyes of the happy mother comes looks of thankfulness and appreciation.

Invests in Happiness.
E. W. Thimgan and W. H. Frost of Manley, are both very well pleased as a short time ago Mr. Thimgan received a new Claxtonola, and by the way one of the best talking machines which he has installed in his home, and traded Mr. Frost an auto which he is using in his business thus supplying the wants of the two homes. The Claxtonola has been installed in the home of Mr. Thimgan and is highly prized by all the household.

NOW A REAL SAILOR

The many friends in this city of Charles Arthur Reynolds, will be pleased to learn that Charley is now a full fledged sailor and in the uniform of Uncle Sam will be sailing the high seas. Charley has been sent from the receiving ship at New York to the U. S. S. Rochester, one of the smaller boats of the navy that was in active service during the war. Mr. Reynolds is a son of B. J. Reynolds of this city and has a host of friends here who will wish him well in his new lot in life.
