

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

Making Travel Easy Throughout the World

Suppose you desire to travel throughout America or in Europe, Asia, Australia or Africa—

By going to your banker, you can purchase traveler's checks which are good in all parts of the world for their face value without identification.

When you travel, don't carry money which might be lost. Buy traveler's checks which may be cashed by merely identifying the signature on their face.

This is another of the invaluable services which this bank renders to you.

Bank of Union

UNION NEBRASKA

Ray Becker was marketing hogs to Nebraska City last Monday with his truck.

Robert Willis delivered a new Reo truck to John McCarthy at his farm near Wyoming last Saturday.

Mrs. Mable Reynolds was kept from her work at the Farmers Union store last week on account of illness. Sheriff C. D. Quinton was looking after some business matters in Union last Friday, driving down in his car.

Lemuel Barrett is spending some two weeks at home, it being the vacation time at the state university. Mrs. Abby Barker of Denver, arrived in Union last Monday and is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

A. H. Austin, who has been home for some time, but not yet able to work, was reported last Monday as not feeling as well as common.

H. H. Becker shelled corn for Geo. Hill last Tuesday, which was delivered to the elevator in Union.

Robert Willis and wife and their daughter were visiting last Monday afternoon, as well as doing some shopping between trains.

Mr. Ray Frans and Miss Eva Frans spent last Friday in Omaha looking after some Christmas shopping and also attended a show.

Earl Merritt and wife spent Sunday at the home of friends in Plattsmouth last Saturday and Sunday, returning home Monday morning.

Miss Mary Becker was a visitor with friends and attended the theater at Omaha last Friday, returning home on the evening train.

Floyd Saxton shelled his corn last Friday delivering the same to the elevator of McCarthy and Sturm, receiving fifty cents per bushel for the same.

The Methodist ladies at the bazaar which they gave last week were well efforts for the benefit of the church, they realizing something about $88 for their enterprise.

Harry Todd of Murray was a visitor in Union last Monday afternoon for a short time, visiting with his brother L. G. Todd, and departed on the evening train for Lincoln.

C. B. Lynde of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and wife, were visiting in Union for the week and were the guests at the homes of M. Lynde, L. R. Upton and D. B. Lynde and families.

D. C. LaRue, the brickman, accompanied by his family, were visiting and looking after some business matters at Omaha last Saturday, driving up to the metropolis in their car.

John Becker was collecting cattle last Monday, which his father had purchased, and getting them ready for shipment, and on Tuesday they were shipped to the South Omaha market.

Luther J. Hall and wife of Nebraska City, being the parents of Mrs.

D. B. Lynde of Union, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynde over the week end and returned to their home last Monday morning.

A party of people driving a car from Iowa last Monday afternoon, overturned into a ditch just south of the corner east of Union, breaking the windshield, but not doing any personal damage to the occupants.

Elmer B. Chapman drove to Lincoln last week and returned with his daughter Miss Ellen, who is attending the state university at that place and who comes home to remain during the mid-winter vacation.

A few Plattsmouth young people were in the ditch near Wyoming last Saturday morning before day, as a result of lack of nerves, occasioned from too much stimulant, and had to be pulled out by the neighbors.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor was called to Weeping Water last Monday to officiate at the funeral of Mr. John Carter, who was killed while handling some cattle in the west. He had lived in Colorado for the past two years.

O. W. Finney and family, who have been staying at Union during the time while Mr. Finney has been working on the bridge over the Weeping Water creek southeast of Union, returned to their home in Auburn on the completion of the structure.

The Baptist Ladies Aid society, which recently gave a bazaar and supper at the M. W. A. hall, were very successful in their endeavor, realizing some $324 from the enterprise. They are well pleased with the kindnesses of the public in the matter.

Mrs. Mag Smith of Portland, Oregon, arrived in Union last Saturday, and visited until last Tuesday at the home of her cousin, Mrs. J. D. Cross and husband, then departed for Peoria, Ill., where she will make an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Messrs. Kemper Frans and LaRue, who have been employed in the Burlington shops at Plattsmouth during the fall and early winter, were among those laid off at the time of the ten per cent reduction in the working force of the Burlington yard.

Miss Dovey Barkhurst, who is a saleswoman at Denver, where she has been for some time past, and enjoys a very lucrative position, arrived home last Friday and is visiting for the holidays at the home of her parents, J. M. Barkhurst and wife northeast of town.

Eugene Roddy has succeeded Joseph Thomas as the salesman in the Union market during the vacation which he gets from school which he is attending in Omaha. Mr. Roddy takes hold of the work in the proper manner and will make an excellent salesman for Mr. Carraher.

W. H. Porter, who is a real true scout, last Monday secured an evergreen tree and took it to the school building, where it could be used as a Christmas tree during the exercises on Friday afternoon of this week. The tree was placed in the room in which Miss Nettie McCarroll teaches.

A letter was received from Mrs. Dean Austin, who is visiting in the south at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Parmelee Applegate and husband. Mrs. Austin says that things are nice down there and the weather warm like summer. The young people like living in the south, as also does Mrs. Austin.

Someone driving a Ford when their lights went out near the home of Winfield Swan, were unable to keep their car in the road and the animal headed for the nearby field but encountered a hedge post on its way, with the result that the machine had to be repaired a good deal before they could proceed to their home.

Arthur (Bud) Lindsay, who is employed with the Willis Garage, has made the purchase of a restaurant which has been owned and operated by Mr. Orville McQuinn, and will conduct the same. He has secured the assistance of Jack Austin, who is assisting in the conduct of the place. Mr. McQuinn will expect to engage in farming during the coming season and is expecting to secure a place immediately.

W. B. Banning, the superintendent of the Union Mutual Telephone company, is in need of a lineman and is willing to make a good contract for a year with some one who he can depend upon.

The bridge over the Weeping Water creek, southeast of Union, which was carried away by a flood some five years ago, was restored during the past two weeks and placed some three feet higher, the piers which remained being added to for the purpose. The grading was completed last Saturday and the bridge is now ready for service.

Last Thursday when Mrs. Henri Rhueman was in the kitchen, a teakettle from the stove filled with boiling water, the kettle caught throwing the water over her person and burning her very severely. The clothing catching the boiling water made the burns worse. Since receiving treatment, the lady is progressing as well as could be expected, but still suffering greatly from the accident.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church, met with Mrs. L. G. Todd last Thursday and looked after the business affairs of the society and transacted some other matters, having a very pleasing program. Mrs. Lee Farris being the leader of the afternoon session.

Following the conclusion of the business and the program, the ladies enjoyed a very pleasant season of sociability, which was greatly enhanced by the serving of a delightful luncheon, served by the accomplished and charming hostess, M. Todd.

The Christmas spirit will be exemplified by the church in Union on Christmas eve, when at both the Methodist and the Baptist churches there will be a very entertaining and delightful program and a Christmas tree, including treats for all who attend.

While Hubert Roddy was coming to town last Friday in his car, he hit a rough place which placed his car beyond control and before he could get control of the machine, it had landed in the ditch beside the road, upside down, with the young man underneath. Hubert was considerably injured, having his collar bone broken and bruised on his side. The car was somewhat damaged, the windshield being entirely demolished.

At the county meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America, which was held in Weeping Water last Thursday evening and Friday, in which many towns were represented, the order from Union won the five dollar cash prize which was offered for the largest class going into the order. Union had some eighteen in their class which exceeded that of any other town. The team of Weeping Water, assisted by the supreme officers who are located at Rock Island, put on the exemplified work. In the drills, the team from Manley took the prizes as being the best drilled team to be in attendance.

Those who were present from Union at the meeting were Mesdames Charles Nelson, Carl Swan, Oliver Easter, Ivan Blair, Henry McCarroll, Wayne Probst, John Sheffield, Matt McQuinn, L. F. Fitch and E. Merritt, John Armstrong; Misses Margaret Swan, Deloras and Winona Dysart, and Eula Frans. After the conclusion of the work sociability reigned supreme, the ladies of the order at Weeping Water entertained the visitors to a very delightful and substantial banquet to which all did full justice.

The ladies of the Methodist church wish to extend their thanks to all who by what ever way contributed to the success of their bazaar, either as a patron, as assistant, or contributed.

Committee.

Union Loses Good Citizens.

By change of business culminating near the first of the year, Messrs Fred and Glen Kline have resigned their positions with the Union Mutual Telephone company, and departed last Friday for Clinton, Ia., where they will make their home. Mr. Fred Kline has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a Chicago electrical house, while Glen will accept a position as electrician at Clinton. The young men have cleared themselves by their clever ways to the citizens of Union, who were loath to see them depart.

Spending Vacation Here.

Harry Graves and wife, the former son of Attorney C. L. Graves, and the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks, arrived in Union Saturday for a weeks visit during the vacation which the house in which Harry works has given him at the end of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Graves will visit with the friends of their childhood, during the week and with friends in other early places, and will return to their home at Central City after the holidays, where Mr. Graves will take his work again for the M. F. Hafer company of Omaha, with whom he works.

Returns Home From West.

Mrs. Lou Comer, who has been sitting in the west for some time, returned home last Saturday, having visited at Riverton, Wyo., with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Buck and their little daughter, and enjoying the time very pleasantly in the west. On her return she stopped for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck Casper, and also visited at the home of a cousin at Council Bluffs on last Thursday until Saturday, all having a most enjoyable time at Union looked pretty good to her after all the sights in the west.

Wants a Man.

W. B. Banning, the superintendent of the Union Mutual Telephone company, is in need of a lineman and is willing to make a good contract for a year with some one who he can depend upon.

Bridge Restored.

The bridge over the Weeping Water creek, southeast of Union, which was carried away by a flood some five years ago, was restored during the past two weeks and placed some three feet higher, the piers which remained being added to for the purpose. The grading was completed last Saturday and the bridge is now ready for service.

Mrs. Rhueman Badly Scalded.

Last Thursday when Mrs. Henri Rhueman was in the kitchen, a teakettle from the stove filled with boiling water, the kettle caught throwing the water over her person and burning her very severely. The clothing catching the boiling water made the burns worse. Since receiving treatment, the lady is progressing as well as could be expected, but still suffering greatly from the accident.

Here for the Holidays.

Clyde B. Lynde and wife of Fort Worth, Texas, Dean R. Lynde and wife of Kansas City, C. W. McIntire and wife of Bethany, and F. D. Bernas, are visiting at the homes of Lynde, and son Derwood Lynde for the holidays. They are well known here and while here will visit with other relatives and friends and have a most enjoyable time during their stay.

Young People Reorganize.

The young people of the Baptist church, meeting Sunday night reorganized the B. Y. P. U. settings of this worthy society have been suspended for some time, but with the election of new officers a laudible effort is being made to make it a strong organization. Meetings will be held every Sunday evening seven o'clock and everyone, young and old, is cordially invited to attend. On December 26, Mr. Ray Frans will have charge of the lesson of a special program is being prepared for the occasion. Come and bring some one with you and enjoy a fellowship of your friends and neighbors.

Missionary Society Meet.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church, met with Mrs. L. G. Todd last Thursday and looked after the business affairs of the society and transacted some other matters, having a very pleasing program. Mrs. Lee Farris being the leader of the afternoon session.

The Christmas Spirit.

The Christmas spirit will be exemplified by the church in Union on Christmas eve, when at both the Methodist and the Baptist churches there will be a very entertaining and delightful program and a Christmas tree, including treats for all who attend.

Meets With Serious Accident.

While Hubert Roddy was coming to town last Friday in his car, he hit a rough place which placed his car beyond control and before he could get control of the machine, it had landed in the ditch beside the road, upside down, with the young man underneath. Hubert was considerably injured, having his collar bone broken and bruised on his side. The car was somewhat damaged, the windshield being entirely demolished.

Union Wins the Prize.

At the county meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America, which was held in Weeping Water last Thursday evening and Friday, in which many towns were represented, the order from Union won the five dollar cash prize which was offered for the largest class going into the order. Union had some eighteen in their class which exceeded that of any other town. The team of Weeping Water, assisted by the supreme officers who are located at Rock Island, put on the exemplified work. In the drills, the team from Manley took the prizes as being the best drilled team to be in attendance.

Those who were present from Union at the meeting were Mesdames Charles Nelson, Carl Swan, Oliver Easter, Ivan Blair, Henry McCarroll, Wayne Probst, John Sheffield, Matt McQuinn, L. F. Fitch and E. Merritt, John Armstrong; Misses Margaret Swan, Deloras and Winona Dysart, and Eula Frans. After the conclusion of the work sociability reigned supreme, the ladies of the order at Weeping Water entertained the visitors to a very delightful and substantial banquet to which all did full justice.

Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the Methodist church wish to extend their thanks to all who by what ever way contributed to the success of their bazaar, either as a patron, as assistant, or contributed.

Committee.

Union Loses Good Citizens.

By change of business culminating near the first of the year, Messrs Fred and Glen Kline have resigned their positions with the Union Mutual Telephone company, and departed last Friday for Clinton, Ia., where they will make their home. Mr. Fred Kline has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a Chicago electrical house, while Glen will accept a position as electrician at Clinton. The young men have cleared themselves by their clever ways to the citizens of Union, who were loath to see them depart.

Spending Vacation Here.

Harry Graves and wife, the former son of Attorney C. L. Graves, and the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks, arrived in Union Saturday for a weeks visit during the vacation which the house in which Harry works has given him at the end of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Graves will visit with the friends of their childhood, during the week and with friends in other early places, and will return to their home at Central City after the holidays, where Mr. Graves will take his work again for the M. F. Hafer company of Omaha, with whom he works.

as a patron, as assistant, or contributed.

Committee.

Union Loses Good Citizens.

By change of business culminating near the first of the year, Messrs Fred and Glen Kline have resigned their positions with the Union Mutual Telephone company, and departed last Friday for Clinton, Ia., where they will make their home. Mr. Fred Kline has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a Chicago electrical house, while Glen will accept a position as electrician at Clinton. The young men have cleared themselves by their clever ways to the citizens of Union, who were loath to see them depart.

Spending Vacation Here.

Harry Graves and wife, the former son of Attorney C. L. Graves, and the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks, arrived in Union Saturday for a weeks visit during the vacation which the house in which Harry works has given him at the end of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Graves will visit with the friends of their childhood, during the week and with friends in other early places, and will return to their home at Central City after the holidays, where Mr. Graves will take his work again for the M. F. Hafer company of Omaha, with whom he works.

Returns Home From West.

Mrs. Lou Comer, who has been sitting in the west for some time, returned home last Saturday, having visited at Riverton, Wyo., with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Buck and their little daughter, and enjoying the time very pleasantly in the west. On her return she stopped for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck Casper, and also visited at the home of a cousin at Council Bluffs on last Thursday until Saturday, all having a most enjoyable time at Union looked pretty good to her after all the sights in the west.

Wants a Man.

W. B. Banning, the superintendent of the Union Mutual Telephone company, is in need of a lineman and is willing to make a good contract for a year with some one who he can depend upon.

Bridge Restored.

The bridge over the Weeping Water creek, southeast of Union, which was carried away by a flood some five years ago, was restored during the past two weeks and placed some three feet higher, the piers which remained being added to for the purpose. The grading was completed last Saturday and the bridge is now ready for service.

Mrs. Rhueman Badly Scalded.

Last Thursday when Mrs. Henri Rhueman was in the kitchen, a teakettle from the stove filled with boiling water, the kettle caught throwing the water over her person and burning her very severely. The clothing catching the boiling water made the burns worse. Since receiving treatment, the lady is progressing as well as could be expected, but still suffering greatly from the accident.

Here for the Holidays.

Clyde B. Lynde and wife of Fort Worth, Texas, Dean R. Lynde and wife of Kansas City, C. W. McIntire and wife of Bethany, and F. D. Bernas, are visiting at the homes of Lynde, and son Derwood Lynde for the holidays. They are well known here and while here will visit with other relatives and friends and have a most enjoyable time during their stay.

Young People Reorganize.

The young people of the Baptist church, meeting Sunday night reorganized the B. Y. P. U. settings of this worthy society have been suspended for some time, but with the election of new officers a laudible effort is being made to make it a strong organization. Meetings will be held every Sunday evening seven o'clock and everyone, young and old, is cordially invited to attend. On December 26, Mr. Ray Frans will have charge of the lesson of a special program is being prepared for the occasion. Come and bring some one with you and enjoy a fellowship of your friends and neighbors.

Missionary Society Meet.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church, met with Mrs. L. G. Todd last Thursday and looked after the business affairs of the society and transacted some other matters, having a very pleasing program. Mrs. Lee Farris being the leader of the afternoon session.

The Christmas Spirit.

The Christmas spirit will be exemplified by the church in Union on Christmas eve, when at both the Methodist and the Baptist churches there will be a very entertaining and delightful program and a Christmas tree, including treats for all who attend.

Meets With Serious Accident.

While Hubert Roddy was coming to town last Friday in his car, he hit a rough place which placed his car beyond control and before he could get control of the machine, it had landed in the ditch beside the road, upside down, with the young man underneath. Hubert was considerably injured, having his collar bone broken and bruised on his side. The car was somewhat damaged, the windshield being entirely demolished.

Union Wins the Prize.

At the county meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America, which was held in Weeping Water last Thursday evening and Friday, in which many towns were represented, the order from Union won the five dollar cash prize which was offered for the largest class going into the order. Union had some eighteen in their class which exceeded that of any other town. The team of Weeping Water, assisted by the supreme officers who are located at Rock Island, put on the exemplified work. In the drills, the team from Manley took the prizes as being the best drilled team to be in attendance.

Those who were present from Union at the meeting were Mesdames Charles Nelson, Carl Swan, Oliver Easter, Ivan Blair, Henry McCarroll, Wayne Probst, John Sheffield, Matt McQuinn, L. F. Fitch and E. Merritt, John Armstrong; Misses Margaret Swan, Deloras and Winona Dysart, and Eula Frans. After the conclusion of the work sociability reigned supreme, the ladies of the order at Weeping Water entertained the visitors to a very delightful and substantial banquet to which all did full justice.

Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the Methodist church wish to extend their thanks to all who by what ever way contributed to the success of their bazaar, either as a patron, as assistant, or contributed.

Committee.

Union Loses Good Citizens.

By change of business culminating near the first of the year, Messrs Fred and Glen Kline have resigned their positions with the Union Mutual Telephone company, and departed last Friday for Clinton, Ia., where they will make their home. Mr. Fred Kline has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a Chicago electrical house, while Glen will accept a position as electrician at Clinton. The young men have cleared themselves by their clever ways to the citizens of Union, who were loath to see them depart.

Spending Vacation Here.

Harry Graves and wife, the former son of Attorney C. L. Graves, and the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks, arrived in Union Saturday for a weeks visit during the vacation which the house in which Harry works has given him at the end of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Graves will visit with the friends of their childhood, during the week and with friends in other early places, and will return to their home at Central City after the holidays, where Mr. Graves will take his work again for the M. F. Hafer company of Omaha, with whom he works.

HAS SMALL FIRE.

During the noon hour the fire department was called out on an alarm turned in from the T. H. Pollock garage, where a small oil stove caused all the excitement and trouble. The stove had become overheated and as the result the contents of the oil tank became afire and caused more or less excitement for a few minutes, but was extinguished before the arrival of the chemical truck and with practically no loss, save the fright occasioned the employees of the garage.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Eugene Maurer, who has been at St. Joseph hospital in Omaha, recovering from an operation for appendicitis, has returned home to this city and feeling much improved. Eugene had a splendid record at the hospital having been there only eight days altogether and was able to sit up on the third day following the operation and has continued to show improvement since that time. His friends are pleased to see him back home and trust that his operation has been entirely successful.

SUFFERING FROM PNEUMONIA

A. L. Connors, residing in the south portion of the city is confined to his home at present suffering from an attack of pneumonia with which he was taken down yesterday. His case is not thought to be severe and his family and friends are hopeful that he may soon be up and around.

WANTED.

Telephone lineman. Must understand work and furnish references. Write or call Union Mutual Telephone company, Union Neb. W. B. BANNING, Mgr.

KENOSHA BOX SOCIAL

There will be a Christmas program and box social at the Kenosha school, district No. 8, on Thursday, December 23. Ladies bring boxes. LEORA KAUFMAN, teacher.

Don't forget the doll contest at Fanger's store.

PUBLIC SALE!

The undersigned will offer for sale at Public Auction on the S. S. Davis farm one mile west and a quarter mile north of Murray, on the following described property—

Monday, December 27

LIVE STOCK

One bay mare, 5 years old, weight about 1500, in foal by horse; one bay mare, 4 years old, weight about 1200; one gray mare, 2 years old, weight 1250; one bay gelding, 4 years old, weight 1450; one gray horse, smooth mouth, weight 1150.

Six milk cows giving milk; one cow and calf; one coming yearling heifer; three yearling heifers; five summer calves; one sucking calf; Ten brood sows, bred; five shoats; one white Yorkshire male hog.

FARM MACHINERY

One riding disk, 16x16; Jonesville riding lister; John Deere corn planter, P. & S. row machine; two Badger cultivators; Deering mower, 5-ft., new; McCormick mower, 5-ft.; John Deere binder, 7-ft.; J. I. Case lister, 4 wheel; curling 2-row machine; home made stalk cutter; 6-shovel cultivator; King wheat drill, 12 disks; 2-section harrow; 1-horse wheat drill; corn elevator, harrow cart; tongueless cultivator; complete; 5 h. p. gas engine; 2 1/2 h. p. gas engine; Sandwich hay baler; 16-in. sulky stirring plow; Newton barrel; 30 gallon gas barrel; cashif wagon; low wagon; hay rack; two pump jacks; speed jack; seed corn dryer, capacity 15 bushel; 50-gallon gas barrel; 30-gallon gas barrel; two sets 1 1/2-inch harness; about four tons prairie hay; some baled out straw; about ten dozen chickens; about twenty bushels potatoes; one wood heating stove; one 5-gallon churn and numerous other articles.

Sale Begins at 10—Lunch at Noon!

TERMS OF SALE

All sums of $10 and under, cash in hand; over that amount a credit of four months will be given, purchaser giving note with approved security bearing nine per cent interest from date of sale. All property must be settled for before being removed from the premises.

C. C. TUCKER, Owner.

W. R. YOUNG, Auct.

W. G. BOEDEKER, Clerk

GREETINGS TO OUR FRIENDS.

Friends are the most valuable asset on earth. We have many and during the year just ending, we have been forcibly reminded of this by the numerous expressions from the patrons of this paper all over the county. You have been very kind in the matter of assisting in the securing of clean and truthful news service, you have been generous in your patronage to our advertising columns, and as readers, appreciative of our service. We wish at this time to express our appreciation of these marks of friendship and to extend to one and all our heartfelt desire for a most Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, whose prosperity may extend throughout the years to come and growing every laudable effort for a betterment of the condition of all. May we, our friends work together for lasting success, for you and for all, making each day count the best and every friend enjoy our mutual friendship. We are yours for prosperity.

THE JOURNAL.

UNION NEBRASKA

UNION NEBRASKA