STEAR MONEY BANK PLACES IN WINDOW

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 23.—New currency, displayed on two illuminated Christmas trees in windows of the First National bank at the most prominent business corner of the city, attracted thieves, just before day break today. They hurled stones through the windows and gathered up the bills, indifferent to the burglar alarm loudly clanging over their heads. Police hurried to the scene and arrested the two men with their pockets bulging with the new bank notes. Both are deaf mutes.

FARMERS PLEDGE WHEAT FOR CHILDREN'S RELIEF

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 23.—A campaign among the members of the Washington Farmers' union to secure a donation of a sack of wheat from each member for European children's relief, was announced today by A. D. Cross, secretary of the organization. He said the wheat would be collected by local unions and shipped to the coast where it would be exchanged for flour. He estimated that 10,000 bushels of wheat would be donated.

SAYS "ZION PROTOCOLS" ARE MUNCHHAUSEN RIVALS

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The alleged protocols of the "wise men of Zion," printed in Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent, have their only counterpart in literature in the fanciful tales of Baron Munchausen, former President William Howard Taft declared tonight in an address on anti-Semitism before the anti-defamation league, founded by H. N. B. R. H. "One of the chief causes of suffering and evil in the world today is race hatred, and any man who stimulates that hatred has much to answer for," Mr. Taft said. "When he does this by the circulation of unfounded and unjust charges and the arousing of mean and groundless fears, his fault is more to be condemned. I feel strongly the evil character of the attack, and I do not hesitate to condemn it."

"CHRIST CANDLE" MOVE DANGEROUS, IS WARNING

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 23.—Condemnation of "Christ candle" movement, the object of which is to have a lighted candle in the window of every home Christmas eve, was voiced today by State Fire Marshal John G. Gamble. "This is thoughtless sentimentality, and if carried out is sure to cause hundreds of fires with probable loss of life," said Mr. Gamble.

GERMANS FACING THE FACTS.

(From the Congregationalist.) There is evident, though too reluctant, progress in the re-education of the German people which, when further advanced, will make them a welcome member of the family of nations. An instance of what we mean, there was a great popular gathering in August on the anniversary of the breaking out of the war. Some 40,000 people gathered in Berlin in the open space between the imperial palace and the cathedral. Former soldiers, whole and disabled, in their associations, war widows and orphans, the Republican Officers' league, the International League of Former Soldiers and other organizations paraded, all bearing mottoes and banners denouncing war.

The London Telegraph reports the meeting with its hundreds upon hundreds of disabled and disgraced men and earnest speeches declaring that the nations of Europe must never again allow themselves to be plunged into such a disaster. "Never again" was the motto of the day. A telegram of brotherly greetings was headed from a French ex-soldiers' association and a wireless message was sent to the ex-soldiers in all lands stating that thousands of Berlin war victims and lovers of peace promised to use all their powers for the reconciliation of the peoples and for healing the wounds caused by the war.

Professor James Stalker has been studying the mind of the intellectual and religious leaders of Germany since the armistice. He notes a letter in the Christliche Welt, one of the leading religious newspapers of Germany, addressed by Dr. Forester of Munich to the editor in which he raises the question of guilt for the bringing on of war. All the European world was armed, he says, and the guilt must in some measure be shared by all; but he goes on to argue that though the sin of militarism was universal, it was most concentrated in Germany. To quote Professor Stalker's report: "The neutrals know well that, while all the nations have practiced the politics of violence, it was Germany which, at two Hague conferences, frustrated the attempts of the neutrals to put an end to their sins and introduce an era of humanity. The neutrals know well that, while the nations armed themselves, it was Germany which resisted disarmament with complete defiance with fifteen years, rendering the approaches of England in this direction abortive—they know also that that which the world calls Prussian militarism is a quite peculiar product, against which the entire human race has with complete justice risen up in wrath, and will continue to rise up in wrath, and will continue to rise up in wrath, and will continue to rise up in wrath. The editor of Die Christliche Welt published the letter, with no protest except by way of caution and modification. How far this attitude is already accepted in religious circles Professor Stalker is not sure. Nor is he of the opinion that this acceptance is wide. But the publication of such an open letter is in itself a confession that the facts of German preparation for war are being faced. In the bitter disillusionment of an overwhelming defeat and the sufferings entailed as a consequence, we welcome any clear judgment against war and any frank recognition of the facts of history and of the necessity of future brotherhood in those who made themselves our enemies and whom we should like to have again for friends."

MORELAND CUT PRICES.

On account of numerous people now out of employment and the lower prices that the farmers are receiving for their crops, we, like all other merchants, are willing to bear our share of loss, so until prices of farmers' crops go up, and there is more work for those now out of employment, the prices at the Moreland Theater will be reduced to 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults. This will apply to Paramount, First National, Fox, Universal or any other brand we may show.

FACT Local Evidence

Evidence that can be verified. Fact is what we want. Opinion is not enough. Opinions differ. Here's a Plattsburgh fact. You can test it. J. B. Partridge, 8th and Locust streets says: "Some years ago I was bothered a great deal on account of the bad condition of my kidneys, caused by hard work on the farm by my younger days. My kidneys acted very freely at times, causing me to get up a good deal during the night. At these times I was so bad I could hardly straighten. I had to walk with the aid of two canes. Not long after I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills, I was well and have not needed to take them any more. My kidneys were strengthened and acted regularly again. It has been several years since I have had to use a kidney remedy and I give Doan's the credit for the condition of my kidneys today. I got Doan's at Mauzy's drug store."

"IT MEANT HEALTH TO ME" SHE SAID

Indigestion, Palpitation and Tired Feeling Are All Gone Now, Says Farmer's Wife.

"Tanlac has brought me health and strength and has simply made life worth living," said Mrs. Nettie Adkins, wife of a well known farmer, R. F. D. No. 1, Altoona, Iowa. "I had been in bad health for four years and the more I tried to find relief the worse I got. I had little or no appetite and when I did eat anything it always lay heavy on my stomach and turned sour. There was a bitter taste in my mouth and often I could not retain a thing I had eaten. Gas would form so bad that my heart palpitated something awful and nearly shut off my breath. "My nerves finally broke down and I became so easily upset that I could not sleep at all during the day. From morning till night I felt dreary and draggy and my household work had simply become a burden. I was discouraged, for it looked like nothing would reach my case. "I finally tried Tanlac and to my surprise I began to improve almost at once, and today I feel perfectly well in every respect. My appetite is just fine and everything I eat agrees with me. My breathing is free and easy once more and my heart action is regular. My nerves are just as steady as they ever were and I enjoy sound, restful sleep every night. I weigh more than I did before and feel so much stronger that I can now attend to my household work with ease. "Tanlac is sold in Plattsburgh by F. G. Fricke and Company; in Murray by the Murray Drug company, and the leading druggist in every town."

DREAD OF DISTRESS DEPRESSES ENGLAND

Unemployment May Bring Privations to Many—Government to Offer Limited Relief

London, Dec. 23.—Extreme anxiety is felt by the British people over conditions of unemployment and in some quarters the opinion is held that the crisis is more serious than any of its predecessors. This pessimism is reflected in editorial comment relative to government proposals to relieve distress, in a projected budget, in spite of all aid that may be devised, the next few months may bring privations to many thousands. Others of less serious vein, are patterning after their American cousins in laying the existing conditions at the foot of the election result in the United States, believing it to be a built good joke. Premier Lloyd George outlined his plan for relieving the unemployed in the house of commons yesterday and newspapers give him credit for doing whatever is possible by resorting to makeshifts which are admittedly palliatives. Many newspapers attack the cabinet for doing too little, too much or the wrong thing. The country, some of these critics insist, is already overtaxed to an intolerable extent and cannot stand the extra measures as were outlined by the premier. The labor press declares that what the government offers is merely a "drop in the ocean" and almost farcical. Workers come in for their share of criticism, it being contended that many of the strikers who are now on their walkout, had a large part in creating trouble. Refusal of the builders' union to co-operate with non-unionists in the construction of buildings is sharply scored.

PAROLE BOOK OF THE STATE CLOSED

Secretary Antles Says He Sees Probable End to Freeing Convicts—New Board Will Go In.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 23.—The parole book of the state is being closed and Secretary Antles is writing final orders on his work of fifteen months. The secretary declares that he is probably the end of his work as master of the destinies of the men who are registered in the penitentiary, and in many cases soon registered out again. There are many check marks on the parole books of Secretary Antles. If there is any fault to be found with the book it certainly cannot be lack of action. The new board of pardons and paroles as instituted by the constitutional convention takes the whip-hand on January 1. There are those who believe that the secretary will be made secretary of the new board, and who follow up this conjecture with another. The other is that if such an appointment comes the control will remain largely in the same hands. Secretary Antles declared today that he does not want the job. He says that he has been satisfied, but he did not say that he would not take it again if it is offered him, indicating that the governor would have something to say in the appointment and that that would be good reason for his not declining.

AERIAL MAIL SERVICE MEXICO CITY-VERA CRUZ

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Dec. 23.—An American airplane driven by Fernando Proal, a Mexican aviator, yesterday flew from Mexico City to Vera Cruz, a distance of 225 miles. The time required to make the trip was two hours and twenty minutes. The principal object of the flight was to determine the feasibility of an aerial mail service between Mexico City, Puebla and Vera Cruz. The flight was so successful that regular service probably will be established in February or March. It was necessary for the airplane to reach a height of approximately 19,000 feet in crossing the mountain range in the state of Vera Cruz.

MAIXNER, FORMER TREASURER OF BANKERS' CONCERN, CAUSING BANK DEFICITS—CERESCO BANK CASHIER

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 23.—Charles Maixner, Lincoln, former treasurer of the Bankers' Fire and Bankers' Automobile insurance companies, recently taken over by the state on charges of mismanagement, was arrested by State Agent Gus Hyers on a charge of forgery filed by Attorney General Davis. It is alleged that Maixner is responsible for deficits of $100,000 found in the State Bank of Ceresco, of which he is cashier. Maixner was taken to Wahoo this afternoon for arraignment. A three-day examination made by examiners of the state banking department revealed the shortages and resulted in the arrest of the cashier. Most of the shortages are on stock sales notes, principally on stock of the insurance companies. Fifteen thousand dollars made by examiners of the Liberty bonds to the amount of $3,100 are missing. The bank has a capital stock of $10,000 and a surplus of the same amount. It had deposits of $290,000 and loans of the same amount. Maixner is credited by the insurance department with having engineered the Colorado land deals whereby several thousand acres of Colorado land, which has been appraised at $20 per acre, were mortgaged to the insurance companies. The Bankers' Fire and Bankers' Automobile, at $75 per acre, Maixner has made a confession, according to Secretary Hart of the banking department. It is said that he held his position as cashier of the bank in order to be in a position to negotiate the loans to the purchasers of stock and that he only visited the bank on Sundays.

BANQUET TO COLBY AT BRAZIL'S CAPITAL

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Dec. 23.—President Pessoa of Brazil, addressing the British ambassador, secretary of state of the United States, at a banquet given in Mr. Colby's honor last night, said: "We have much to learn from you. We not only see here your commercial citizens, but the visits of your statesmen remind us anew of our common political aims. For this reason we have received with great pleasure various North American statesmen and also yourself. We welcome you not only because of your vigorous personality, but also for the high nature of the mission with which President Wilson has entrusted you. Personally, I never will forget my association with him in the peace conference, where his loyal friendship and support of Brazil never failed."

In responding Secretary Colby referred to the long friendship between the two countries. "There exists such a strength of friendship between the two countries that despite malevolent elements to lessen this friendship it remains unshaken, as manifested during the long period of friendly relations. Never have we lost the respect due one another, which is the foundation of true friendship, with individuals as with nations."

NOT TO HOLD FORMER KIMBALL PHYSICIAN

Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 23.—Prosecuting Attorney Charles E. Lane announced this morning that he would take no action as a result of a coroner's verdict finding Dr. W. K. Mylar, formerly of Kimball, Neb., criminally responsible for the death of August R. Johnson, who died on Sunday, December 19th, a few minutes after the physician had treated him with an injection of salvarsan. "To my mind there is nothing to indicate criminal negligence," said Lane. "The same thing might have happened in any doctor's office, and the filing of a criminal complaint would be unwise and unfair. I do not believe it would stand."

Lloyd George Reiterates All Must March Together to Make the League a Success.

London, Dec. 23.—David Lloyd George, the prime minister, presiding at a luncheon given today in the house of commons, for the British and Dominion delegates to the recent league of nations assembly in Geneva, declared the league would never achieve real progress until all the nations were represented. Mr. Lloyd George said he looked forward hopefully to the United States coming into the league. This, he asserted, was essential. There could be no real peace until competition in armaments ceased and before disarmament was possible all the nations must be in the league, for all must march together.

Mr. Lloyd George said he was glad to know that all were doing something. He asserted that if the Geneva assembly had existed in August, 1914, the war would have been impossible. He was sanguine there would be no obstacle to Germany's admission to the league if she manifested an intention to fulfill her obligations and live up to the terms of the peace treaty. There was no use laboring for the association of nations and for the establishment of peace, the prime minister declared, and on the other hand erecting great armaments in order to force other nations into a competition which had more to do with starting the late war than almost any other individual force.

Mr. Lloyd George said all nations must reach a common agreement not to start again disastrous rivalry in armaments, which must inevitably end in a clash. Certain amendments, he asserted, would be necessary before the league became a really effective exponent of international opinion.

TO TEST PHASE OF NATIONAL DRY LAW

Will Pass on Question of Whether Soft Drink Sellers Can Dispose of Alcoholic Tonics.

Omaha, Dec. 23.—Among the approximately 300 liquor cases to come up at the January term of the federal court will be fifteen or twenty cases against soft drink purveyors for the sale of so-called tonics. Enforcement Officer Hanley has in his possession a number of such concoctions which run from 15 to 20 per cent alcohol. It is the contention of the enforcement officers that soft drink merchants have no right to sell these for beverage purposes. In fact it is claimed that they should only be sold by druggists for medicinal purposes. But unfortunately the law does not say by whom such preparations may be sold. As a general rule no interference is interposed to the sale of such preparations as are approved by the internal revenue department, and that department accepts the judgment of the United States pharmaceutical association as to what preparations are properly indicated. The neglect of the law, either federal or state, specifically declare who may lawfully sell such preparations affords so-called soft drink purveyors to carry a pretty fair line of hooch for such as may know for what to call, and the responsibility of the seller for tickling the palate of average stimulants is yet to be determined. These cases will be in the nature of a test as to whether or not convictions can be secured under existing laws. Enforcement officials say that there are counties in which it has been almost impossible to secure convictions by juries for violations of the liquor laws, or even impossible to secure the evidence that was known to exist. But of late an improvement has been noted in public sentiment with respect to law enforcement. The average citizen has become more inclined to see the laws enforced, and more willing to provide the necessary testimony

BAPTISTS TELL HARDING OF THEIR HOPE OF PEACE

New York, Dec. 23.—Hope for the consummation of such an association of nations as shall best promote peace on earth and good will among men," was expressed in a letter to President-elect Warren G. Harding from the board of managers of the Baptist Foreign Mission society, made public today. The letter greeted Senator Harding as the "first Baptist to be elected president" and contained pledges of support and co-operation.
