

MURDOCK DEPARTMENT.

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE JOURNAL.

Our Wish, Friendly Service:-

Our heart has been cheered, and we are ever mindful of the many friends whom we have made during our life in Murdock. We have enjoyed prosperity, we have been blest with good health and with that which we count near the top of the list—your friendship. We cherish it most highly.

To all our friends, then, we are wishing the best which the present age and season can bring, trusting that prosperity, happiness and abundant health may be with you throughout the coming year.

And because of this friendship, we are the more anxious to be of useful service to you in the future, as we have ever endeavored to be in the past.

The Bank of Murdock

"The Bank where You Feel at Home"

HENRY A. TOOL, President J. E. GUTHMANN, Vice-Pres.
H. A. GUTHMANN, Cashier

J. Johansen has completed the distributing of the electric light poles throughout the city of Murdock.

Mr. W. H. Rush has his home wired last week for the reception of electric lights when the circuit arrives.

Misses Margaret and Catherine Tool are spending the Yuletide at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool.

Louis Schmidt and Louis Bornemeier and families were the guests at the home of C. E. Kupke and wife for the evening last Monday.

County Surveyor Fred Patterson was a visitor in Murdock last week, having some surveying to do in this neighborhood.

The two Misses Buchell who are teachers in the Murdock schools, are spending their vacation at their home near South Bend.

A Christmas tree and program was had at each of the four churches, Murdock, Louisville, Callihan and the one just north of Murdock.

H. A. Tool and family were the guests at the home of C. A. Besack for Christmas, driving to the Besack home at Springfield in their car.

Miss Martha Gakemier, who is a student in the Wayne Normal at Wayne, arrived home a few days ago to spend the holidays with her parents.

Misses Glen Gale and John Pickwell, who are students in the state university at Lincoln, are spending the holiday vacation at the Pickwell home.

Albert Reichman, who is a student in the Northwestern college at Naperville, Ill., arrived at home a few days ago to spend the holidays with his parents.

Louis Schmidt and wife and little daughter Gwendoline, were guests at the home of H. E. Schmidt and family over Christmas, all having an excellent time.

Mrs. J. W. March of Omaha, was a visitor at the home of her brother, George Pitt and family for over Christmas, they all enjoying the occasion greatly.

Kenneth Tool, who is attending the law school at the state university arrived home last Thursday evening and will spend the vacation at the home of his parents.

Miss Isabelle O'Hollarn, one of the faculty of the Murdock schools, departed last Thursday for her home at Saint Libroy, where she will spend the vacation with her folks.

Numerous cases of measles are reported in and about Murdock and many who have been afflicted by them are at this time recovering and the epidemic is in a manner abating.

Chris Guert has the wiring of his home completed and is now ready to enjoy the modern lighting by electricity and which will be ready for use in the early days of the new year.

G. Merkle was looking after some business matters in Omaha last Tuesday, going over on the Burlington from South Bend, and returning home on the Rock Island in the evening.

Carl Schneider and Arch Peters, who are both students in the college at Concordia, Mo., arrived at home a few days ago and will remain during the holidays to visit with their folks.

Miss Grace Backemeier and Miss Margaret McDonald, who have been having a very severe case of measles for the past two weeks, are so far recovered as to be able to be out again.

Jerry E. McHugh and family were the guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. McHugh, George Towle and family of Lincoln, where they spent Christmas, returning home on Sunday.

W. A. Schutz living northwest of Murdock, was reported as not feeling very well and was kept in the house on that account. We are in hopes that Mr. Schutz will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hess of Kern, Kansas, accompanied by their little son Edgar, arrived in Murdock a few days ago and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mooney, the latter being the parents of Mrs. Hess.

Walter Baumgartner arrived home last Thursday evening and will spend the mid-winter vacation with his parents. Walter is attending the state university, while Connie is attending school at Omaha. They are both home for the time.

A. A. Rikli and wife departed a week ago for Milford, where they visited with friends and relatives for some time, and later went to Drummond, Oklahoma, where they have a number of children living and where they are making an extended visit.

Miss Mary Rush has consented to compose the school notes for the Murdock school for the Journal and any items of interest which any of the scholars may have can be given to Miss Rush. We will appreciate any courtesy in this direction extended to the reporter of the school.

J. Johansen had for guests at their home for Christmas, the family of Leo Rikli and they all enjoyed the day to the utmost. Mr. Johansen, who has not been feeling the best for some time, is improving and the occasion seemed to act like a tonic, even better than the medicines, for joy and conviviality is better than all other remedies to health.

Miss Carrie Schaeffer of Manley, sister of Charles Schaeffer of Murdock, who has been in Omaha for some weeks past where she underwent an operation, has so far recovered that she was able to be removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Pankonin near Weeping Water, today Monday. Mr. Charles Schaeffer went to Omaha to accompany the sister to Weeping Water, where she will remain to recuperate.

Mr. A. C. Meierjurger of Omaha, where he is connected with the Higgins Packing company, was a visitor in Murdock for a few hours last Thursday, coming here to visit with his brother, Henry Meierjurger, living southwest of town. Mr. Meierjurger, who formerly for a number of years was engaged in business in Murdock, having a store where Mr. Baur now does business, was a visitor also at the home of his mother, Mrs. Louise Brockhage at Elmwood, and returned to his home on the Jersey last Thursday evening.

Miss Mary McHugh of Falls City, who has been studying at the nurses hospital at Omaha for some time past and who has about concluded her course, was a visitor at the home of her brother, J. E. McHugh, for a few days last week, and returned to her studies last Thursday. While here, the home where Miss Mary was staying in Omaha, burned and she, like most of the nurses staying there, lost all their clothing and personal effects. Miss Mary had but one dress left with the exception of what she had worn here, her trunk also being consumed.

Frank Melvin was a visitor at Alvo last Thursday evening, where he was spending the time with friends and also looking after some business matters as well.

Jesse Landholm and wife were visitors in Omaha last Wednesday and Thursday, going on the train.

Word was received from Verdigre, where T. S. Rager and wife have been visiting, reporting the death of their infant child whose birth was reported in last week's Journal, a few days ago. The parents in their loss have the sympathy of their numerous friends in and near Murdock.

Lacey McDonald gave the auto a rest last week and attached a horse to a cutter and delivered the mail in the former style.

Last Thursday evening Harry P. Long and son Robert, living northwest of Murdock, returned from their trip to Valentine, where they have been visiting and looking after some business matters for the past week. Mr. Long reported having met with some extremely low points on the thermometer while on the trip.

Superintendent of the Murdock schools, J. H. Burrill and Principal George Warren, departed last Thursday evening for their homes at Lincoln and Bethany respectively, to spend the vacation with their families.

Miss Marie Schmidt has been elected to the position of operator at the Murdock Telephone exchange, which was caused by the resignation of Miss Hazel Bauers, who was united in marriage at Omaha with Mr. Claude Twiss.

When the vote was taken on the issuance of the bonds for the Electric Light and Power company, the popularity of the movement was again demonstrated, as there only appeared three votes against the proposition, and it would seem that they were for only a matter of record. The vote was not heavy, there being 65 votes in favor and three against the proposition.

Wins Gratitude of Kiddies.
Superintendent of the Murdock schools, J. H. Burrill and Principal George Warren, won the lasting gratitude of the kiddies of the Murdock schools when they made all a present of a bag of sweets last Thursday afternoon just before the closing of the schools for the mid-winter vacation. By the way the Murdock schools are progressing nicely, and every examination shows progress in all the grades and studies, and with the construction of the new building which is in anticipation, the schools will be in much better position to do the work for which it is assigned.

Visiting in the North.
J. A. Bauers and wife departed a few days ago for Pipestone, Minn., where they went to spend the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Bauers, the former being a brother of A. J. Bauers. They will make an extended visit and enjoy the occasion greatly. While they are away the dray business is being looked after by "Happy" Robinson, who is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Bauers, and who is well qualified to look after the business during their absence.

Attended Funeral at Weeping Water.
H. V. McDonald and wife arrived in Weeping Water last week, Mr. McDonald, who formerly was a business partner of Mr. Carter in Murdock, being selected as one of the pallbearers. Many people here will remember Mr. Carter as a former citizen of Murdock and hold his memory in much respect. All testify as to his excellent character, and his worth as a gentleman and citizen. While the deceased, it was reported, probably came to his death by an attack of wild cattle, later developments point to the belief that he had met foul play from the hands of Enjoyed a Happy Christmas.

The children of August Panska were the guests at the home of their parents in Murdock for Christmas last Saturday with their families. Will Meyers of Lincoln, Albert Panska and family, Dan Panska and family, Earl Meyers of Louisville and wife. The occasion was one greatly enjoyed by all the children and their families, and the gathering made the day one most pleasant for Mr. Panska and family.

Gave Excellent Program.
The members of the Evangelical church and of the Bible school of that organization presented a very interesting program last Friday evening, which was accompanied by a Christmas tree and was attended by a large number of people, who enjoyed the occasion.

Still Confined to His Home.
E. Neitzel, who has been kept to his home on account of the effects of rheumatism for a number of weeks is so far recovered that he is able to be about the home a portion of the time, but has not as yet been able to attend to the business at the store. It is hoped that he will soon be able to be down and looking after business affairs again, as well as enjoying better health.

The Confirmation Election.
At the election held last Tuesday, an enemy. From the wounds as they appeared, it looks like it could not have been done by animals, for the crushing of the skull in two places which could have been done only by an instrument in the hands of some person. Investigations are being made.

All Enjoy Elegant Banquet.
The ladies of Murdock, who ever have maintained the reputation of doing things in the proper way, in their banquet of last Tuesday presented to their husbands and friends and members of the order and of the Modern Woman of America, surely met with the expectations, if not having exceeded it, when they fed some eighty people with the good things of the land. They had arranged the tables at the M. W. A. hall in a very pleasant way and had every appointment made to the nicety that enabled all to enjoy to the utmost the sociable event.

Bauers-Twiss Wedding Monday.
Miss Hazel Bauers, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bauers of Murdock, and who has been one of the force of operators at the Murdock Telephone exchange, was united in marriage last Monday at Omaha, with Mr. Claude Twiss of Louisville. Mr. Twiss, who is the son of E. C. Twiss and an excellent young man, has been with the Keller Pottery company of Louisville during the past year. The young people are well and favorably known and are very popular in their home towns as well as throughout this portion of the county. The Journal, with their many friends, are extending best wishes for a happy and prosperous life.

BANQUET AND DANCE.
There will be a dance and banquet given at the hall in Murray on Wednesday evening, December 29th, in honor of A. L. Baker, and a general good time will be had. Holly's five piece orchestra will furnish the music. This will be the only dance during the holidays here, and a good

Mr. Consumer:
Why not buy your beef by the quarter, and your pork as well? We sell either by quarter, half or the whole carcass. We will also make your sausage and render your lard for you if you wish.

We are selling fresh pure leaf lard at 25 cents per pound. See us for service.

Building Friendships:-
—In the construction of character, we have received more helpful suggestions through the close association of those with whom we have come in contact right here in Murdock, than from any source.

—We trust the new year may strengthen these old ties as well as be productive of many new friendships, one with another, and that prosperity health, happiness and the boon of many friends may be yours.

LITTLE ONE QUITE ILL.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Halstead will greatly regret to learn of the serious illness of their little five year old daughter, Bessie, who is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia and whose condition is quite serious. The family is hopeful that the little one may soon be able to rally from the illness and be able to be up and around and her illness has brought great sorrow to the circle of little playmates with whom she has been associated.

Murdock Mercantile Greetings:-

We who live together here in Murdock are building up a better city day by day. During the past year we have made notable advances and hope to do even better the coming twelve months.

Murdock is our town. We pride in the best and believe no achievement beyond our reach, when staunch loyal men work together for a common end. So let us take stock of our situation, and firmly resolve not to falter now, when greater successes lie just beyond the turn in the road ahead of us.

We prize the co-operation and friendship that has existed during the past years of our life in Murdock; the comradeship which has grown out of united endeavor, and because of this our heart swells with a sense of gratitude. So, we pause on the threshold of 1921, to wish you all an abundance of health, happiness and prosperity during the coming year.
