TEACHING IN ORIENT.

Miss Rachel Stander, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Stander, who live at Louisville, Neb., and who belongs to a pioneer Nebraska family has accepted a professorship in the department of English in the American college at Tokio, Japan. Miss Stander was a Nebraska delegate to the world's Sunday school convention held in Tokio in October and went to Japan with Miss Mary Ellen Brown of Lincoln, secretary of the Nebraska Sunday school association. In letters home, Miss Stander writes that her work is delightful and interesting. The two schools, one for girls and one for boys, are located on a forty-acre tract, which was given the Methodists for the college by Dr. Goucher of Goucher college, and is located on the highest point in the heart of the city. The buildings are well equipped, but simply furnished, according to Miss Stander. The boys' college, where Miss Stander teaches, has an enrollment of 1,100 pupils. She has classes in both the academy and college. In the former, she has a Japanese interpreter. By the time the pupils reach the college, they speak very good English. Miss Stander was born in Louisville. She graduated from Louisville high school in the class of 1911, winning the scholarship for the college by Dr. Goucher of Goucher college, and is now one of the brightest cities in Montana and the oil fields located near there has brought on a great boom in property and business. The Democrat has been established for the past twenty-five years and in January 1909 it was edited by Col. M. A. Bates, the present editor of the Journal, who had gone there from his home in Missouri, and remained in charge of the paper during the great political struggle in Montana between the Clarke and Daly forces of the democratic party. This special edition of the Democrat consists of 72 pages, all largely devoted to the write up of Lewiston and surrounding country.

Joel Rawls, wife and children of Lewiston are in the city for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls, parents of Mr. Rawls, and they are also loud in their praise of the new city of the Pacific west that is growing by leaps and bounds.

EAGLES RABBIT HUNT.

The members of the Eagles will enjoy a rabbit hunt on New Year's day and the members are preparing to join in a great slaughter of the bunnies to form the basis of a feed to be held in the near future. All Eagles who feel that they are good marksmen are requested to meet at the club rooms between 7 and 8 o'clock Saturday morning and join in the hunt. Get out the old rifles, shot guns and muskets and be on the job when the time for the hunt rolls around.

Happy New Year!

How many times have we heard this time-worn expression?

Do we ever stop to consider its significance?

As ancient as it may seem, and however crude it may be, there are volumes expressed in those two words.

From a source of deepest gratitude to the people of this town and community, for the kind patronage given us during the past year and soliciting a continuation of your business for the coming year, we most sincerely wish you a--
