Last Tuesday, December 28th, was the birth anniversary of Grandpa Lohnes, he having reached his 80th milestone and in order to help him remember the day several of his grand children with their families had planned to surprise him and gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lohnes, the son with whom Grandpa Lohnes has been making his home for some time. They gathered at the home with well filled baskets and a most well prepared supper was enjoyed by all, the main feature being the large birthday cake with 80 candles aglow. Grandpa Lohnes is very active and enjoying good health in spite of his 80 years and takes great interest in making his life useful. SENIOR LITERARY PROGRAM PLEASURES

Large Number Present at the High School Auditorium to Enjoy Evening of Pleasure.

From Friday's Daily. The literary given last evening at the high school auditorium by the senior class as the first of a series of four interclass entertainments, drew a large and well pleased audience and the result of the program was one of enjoyment for all those who attended.

One of the main events of the evening was the debate staged between the seniors and the juniors on the question, "Resolved, That Congress should remove the literacy test for immigrants to the United States." In this the seniors, represented by Miss Gladys Liston and Miss Fern Noble proved the winners by a score of two to one, while the losers of the junior class were represented by Carl Wurl and John Ptak. In this debate Miss Liston was particularly effective and brought telling points for her side of the immigration question.

Several very high class musical numbers were offered by the members of the senior class. Miss Catherine Waddick giving as a piano solo, "The Poet and Peasant" overture, and Miss Waddick and Mason Westcott were heard in a piano duet, "The Soldier's Chorus," from "Faust." Miss Fae Cobb gave a delightful feature of the evening's program in a pianologue, "Don't You Know," which was very much enjoyed.

A vocal trio, composed of Clara Mae Morgan, Fae Chase and Helen Pontius, was one of the numbers on the program that was greatly enjoyed by the members of the classes and the audience.

The clever young people of the class who have a great deal of dramatic talent had arranged a clever forty minute comedy sketch, the title of which was "Betsy Baker," with Theodosia Kroehler in the leading role and supported by Carl Schneider as "Mr. Crummy," Mason Westcott as "Mr. Mouser," and Fae Cobb as "Mrs. Mouser." This offering brought forth the marked approval of the delighted auditors.

FARMERS UNION HAS ITS ANNUAL MEETING

At Weeping Water, December 27th—Andrew Stohlman Elected Presidency for 1921.

The annual meeting of the Cass County Farmers' Union was held in Weeping Water, Monday afternoon, December 27, the attendance being good and much interest shown.

Andrew Stohlman of Louisville, was elected president to succeed E. L. Schoemaker of Union, who has held this important office the past two years. Other officers elected were as follows: Wallace Philpot, vice president; M. E. Balfour, secretary-treasurer; Henry Stohlman, Charles Ward and Harrison Livingston, board of directors. Henry Snell was elected delegate to the convention to be held in Omaha on January 11th and 12th.

There are seventeen locals in Cass county with a membership of over 700.

Among the laws which the Union will recommend for changes will be the automobile license law which gives to state roads 70 per cent of the license fees. They propose to have 75 per cent of this money remain in the county which from it is collected and give the remainder to the state road fund.

This change in the present law will be backed by all the Unions in the state. In addition to this they will recommend that land tax be spent in the precincts from which it is collected, thus doing away with the so-called commission fund, whereby money may be transferred to another precinct at the will of the board of commissioners.

O. J. KITZEL SOLD FINE HOGS

O. J. Kitzel, who has one of the finest herds of Duroc Jersey hogs in this section of the country has disposed of some good ones. He sold to C. D. Beverage of Murray, his fine herd boar and several brood sows, to Glenn Valley a fine brood sow, to Chas. Garlet of Otoe county a brood sow, and W. M. Kitzel & Son have purchased a fine sow and male hog. He has sold many others. Oscar keeps his stock right up to the minute and has some of the best strains in his herd that can be found any where. VETERAN'S WIFE A GENUINE GRAFTER

Drew All of Civil War Soldier's Money From Bank and Barred Him From Home.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 7.—"I learned all about women from her!" With this line from Kipling, Albert Smith, seventy-one year old civil war veteran summed up a fading romance blasted by his fifty-one year old bride at the cost of his home and savings of a lifetime. Homeless and penniless, the aged veteran appealed today to police for assistance in recovering his property.

The old soldier told police he had married a woman named Julia Black Bowers of Richmond, Va., two months ago. After the marriage Smith deposited his life savings in a bank with the understanding that his wife should have access to it as well. When the veteran went to draw a few dollars for his personal needs yesterday he said he found his wife had withdrawn the entire amount.

Returning to his home, Smith said his wife had barred him from the house.

Police declared the veteran's wife had been married three times previously. Her first matrimonial venture, police said, occurred in Virginia where she married a man named Hutchins a quarter of a century ago. On his death, she wedded a man named Johnson, following this with marriage to an old soldier named Bowers, according to police. Bowers disappeared and the woman next wedded Smith.

Police are investigating.

BRIDE COMES FROM THE OLD COUNTRY

Philip Fleming of Near Manley is Joined in Wedlock to Childhood Sweetheart.

A few days ago Philip Fleming, residing near Manley, returned from New York, where he was called by the arrival from the old home in Germany of his promised bride, and in the city of the gateway to the new world the ceremony that made these two as one was performed and the newly weds at once started westward for their home in Nebraska.

This marriage is the result of an old romance formed in Germany, where the bride and groom were both born and reared and when Mr. Fleming decided to forsake the old home and seek his fortune in America, he pledged his troth to the sweetheart of his childhood days and after an absence of a number of years the message came to her that the new home was awaiting her coming and she accordingly sailed for America and arriving here was met at Ellis Island by the prospective bridegroom and there the wedding ceremony was performed.

The bridal couple came direct from New York to Plattsmouth and from here drove by car to their home at Manley. A reception was held there a few evenings ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergman, where a delightful time was had and the newlyweds were showered with the well wishes of their friends and neighbors.

STILL VERY POORLY

The condition of George E. Dovey has continued very poorly and the patient spent a very bad night and his case is quite serious, causing a great deal of apprehension to his family and friends. It is thought that the next few hours will bring his case to a crisis as the patient has been suffering a great deal and unless a change for the better occurs in a very short time his recovery is considered very doubtful.
