A Safe Depository for Your Money

The modern bank is the only safe place to keep your money. You cannot be robbed of your money when it is in the bank.

Incorporated by the State or Nation, regulated by the best banking laws in the world, and safeguarded by officers with integrity and experience, your bank represents an unsurpassed institution for safety.

If this bank provided no other facility, it would justify its extension on this one service alone.

Don't keep money in your home or in a pocket. Put it into the channels of commerce through this bank. It is safe; it is working; it is always available.

Mrs. M. J. Burbee has been very ill at her home, but was reported as being some improved last Monday. Jay Austin was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Friday, where he was looking after some business matters. Clinton Clark was a visitor at his home over Sunday, returning to his work at Omaha last Monday morning. Mrs. Barbara Taylor and daughter, Miss Elsie, were visiting with friends in Nebraska City last Thursday. Miss Eva Shackley, one of the faculty of the Union schools, was a visitor with friends in Lincoln last week. C. M. Swab, M. D., spent the week in Omaha, where he was taking some post graduate work at the hospitals there. Miss Angie McCarrall departed a few days ago for Syracuse, where she is teaching in the public schools of that place. O. L. McQuinn moved to the James Dwyer farm southwest of Union last Monday, where he will farm during the coming year. The excellent services were held at the Baptist church last Sunday, the sermons being delivered by the Rev. Miller of Peru. J. A. Talkington and wife departed last Tuesday for Surprise, where they will visit for the present and will probably locate there. Mont Robb was in attendance at the inaugural at Lincoln last week, and met many of his old friends throughout the state. Robert Banning of Grand Island, who is in the railroad work, is visiting at the Banning home south of Union, for a short time. E. B. Chapman was a visitor in Plattsmouth for the day last Tuesday, where he was called to look after some business matters. Misses Minnie Peters and Grace Borgert were Saturday in Plattsmouth with friends and were also looking after some business. Mesdames Anna and John Chidester of near Union, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Nebraska City last Friday. Mesdames W. H. Marks and Mrs. Wm. Craig, were visiting with friends and also looking after some shopping in Nebraska City last Monday. John Hays was a visitor for a short time in Nebraska City last Friday, where he was called to look after some business matters for the day. A. H. Austin departed from Union last Monday, going via Lincoln and will visit for a week at the home of his brother U. G. Austin, at Walthill. G. P. Cook and son Homer, and Henry J. Miller of Alvo, were looking after some business matters in Union last Monday, driving over in the car of Mr. Cook. Charles Bowdish was a visitor in Union last Friday and Saturday, and was looking after some business matters regarding the sale of some land in eastern Colorado. Mrs. Genevieve Kendall, who has been making her home at Broken Bow and Milford during the winter and fall, returned home and will live here for the present. Robert Willis and son Clarence, shipped on last Tuesday, a car of mixed cattle to the South Omaha market, the consignment being partly cattle and partly hogs. Miss Ethel Hathaway, who was at Omaha last week, where she underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils, is home again and showing great improvement. Mrs. Dan Lynn and Mrs. John Liggett were spending the day at the home of their friend Mrs. W. A. Taylor last Monday, and incidentally celebrating the birthday of Mrs. John Liggett. Lloyds Lewis of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union last Monday, coming down in his car and being accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Earl Merritt, who had been visiting there over Sunday. G. W. Cheney, one of the prosperous and energetic farmers and feeders of this vicinity, shipped two cars of cattle to market last Monday evening, the product of his feed years adjacent to Union. Arthur Anderson, who has been spending some time in southern Missouri, is home again and says that other places like Union are rather quiet at this time, but expects them soon to be better.

L. V. Davis of Elmwood, was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday, regarding the sinking of some wells which the farmers of this community are to have sunk on their farms. The Rev. W. A. Taylor, who is minister at the church at Wabash, and also at Sciota, says: "This year promises to be one of much moral uplift, and we are looking for a great spiritual awakening." The Busy Bee restaurant has departed from Union and the proprietors have moved about half way between here and Plattsmouth, where they are engaged in preparing to farm the coming season. E. L. Shoemaker was in Union last Friday and Saturday, coming down to audit the accounts of the Farmer's Union stores and the Farmers Elevator, a report of which appears in this issue of the paper. The barber shop is becoming an interesting place for the waiting checkers and chess, there at this time being some good players developed. Mr. Clarke seems to be the leader when it comes to the game of checkers. F. A. Locke of Lincoln, was in Union for the past week painting the roofs of number of houses here, among which was the garage occupied by W. H. DuBois, the Woodman Hall, and the building occupied by R. D. Stine.

Edgar Morton and John Becker were in Plattsmouth last Tuesday and were looking after some business matters. They are preparing for a combination sale in the near future, announcement of which will be made in this paper soon. A. L. Becker was a visitor last Saturday in Lincoln, attending the festivities at the inauguration of the new administration and also was at the pure bred stock association meeting, which was being held in the capital city at that time. Frank Campbell from east of Murray, was a visitor in Union last week, coming down to bring his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Thompson, to the train where she returned to her home in Lincoln, after having visited with her parents for the past week. A. H. Austin, who has been at Lincoln for some time past, arrived in Union last Friday and remained until Monday, when he returned to the capital city. Mr. Austin is feeling considerable improved in health, but is still far from being well. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, we saw the house filled with bright flowers, which Mrs. Taylor said, was for the brightening of the world, and we can see how one can easily brighten the corner where they live with flowers as well as good deeds. Miss Mary Foster, who is with the schools at Omaha, was a visitor at the home of her parents in Union over Sunday, returning to her duties last Monday morning. A. L. Becker says: "The prices of grain are going to improve, the marketing of the same will restore business and business both on the farm and in the cities will gradually resume its normal conditions and we will have a good year. All we need is confidence and all pull together." Joe Banning says: "Things will soon adjust themselves. In fact there is some improvement, and prices of farm products will advance. Goods are being sold much lower now and soon the conditions will be normal again. Let each one do all he can for the improvement and all will be benefited." Joseph Hill was shelling and delivering corn at the Farmer's Elevator last Monday. John Clarence shelled last Saturday. George Hill shelled on Thursday, while Ben Raymond shelled on Friday. H. H. Becker did the work for each of the farmers. The corn was disposed of at 50 cents per bushel. Charles McCarthy is building a house on his farm south of town for occupancy of one of the renters, the lumber being purchased at the Frans Brothers' Lumber company yards, which is selling lumber at this time at much lower prices than they could have possibly did a year ago. See them for your building material. L. G. Todd, the manager of the Farmers Elevator Company at Union, says: "I look for better prices of grain and a gradual adjustment of values and with the marketing of the farmers crops at the rise, business will again assume its former condition. We need all to work to that end, and not get frightened." George Eaton and wife, who have for the past two weeks, been visiting at DeSota, Kansas, with the family of his brother, Mr. Bert Eaton, who is well advanced in years, having celebrated his 18th birthday on December 12th, while Mr. and Mrs. George Eaton were visiting there. They returned home last Saturday. Miss Lydia Clark, the postmistress, found in the office an envelope containing Liberty bonds to the value of $250, which has been sold by Julius Nelson, to the Farmers Union. They had been lost and some one had picked them up and placed them in the postoffice box. To the one who so kindly did this, all concerned are very grateful. The state booze hounds visited Union last Monday and made acquaintances with a number of the people of Union, who have frequent birthdays, but found nothing on their hips or in their cellars. The officers seemed disappointed and a feeling of grateful warmth prevades some of the places in Union on the departure of the state men. The W. C. Y. U. met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Nettie Stanton, when a very delightful meeting was had. A program had been prepared and one of the features worthwhile was the discussion of the subject of Christian citizenship and suffrage, which was led by Miss Jessie Todd. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was had. The Methodist Sunday school electd their officers last Sunday and are in excellent condition for effective work. The officers elected were: W. H. Porter, superintendent; Miss Fannie McCarrall, assistant superintendent; Mrs. L. G. Todd, secretary and treasurer; Miss Alice Todd, pianist; Masters Melvin Todd and Raymond Irvin, librarians. James Kauli, one of the Hawaiian singers, who was recently in Union says: "Since America has acquired the islands we are having the best government in our history. We are mostly of Portuguese descent and are making a great country. There are a large number of Japs on the island, but no land is now being sold to them, but is being purchased by Americans, even at three times the real value in order to get them out of the country, which eventually will be done. We are all glad America got our Islands."

Are Doing Good Work.

At the meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America, which was held last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. R. R. Hathaway and Miss Lydia Clark were given the mysteries of the order by the excellent team which the lodge has. The order is doing some fine work and are receiving many members into the order.

Gave Fine Entertainment.

The Kauli brothers with the wife and son of James Kauli, gave a very creditable entertainment at the M. W. A. hall at Union last Monday evening. In which the following dances were the prominent feature. The order is doing some fine work and are receiving many members into the order.

Pioneer Celebrates Birthday.

Last Tuesday, January 11th, D. W. Foster passed the 87th milestone of his life quietly at his home in Union and meeting his many friends where he has spent nearly a half century of an eventful life. Foster was born in Washington county, Illinois, on January 11, 1834, and came to Nebraska and Cass county in 1874, and has been identified with the welfare and growth of Nebraska ever since. Mr. Foster, who is one hundred per cent American, Nebraskan and American, for his admiration of this country, the best place to live in that the sun ever shone upon.

Mrs. Becker Not Well.

A. L. Becker, who has been visiting with his mother, Mrs. L. C. Becker, returned home last Sunday and reports that his mother, who is well advanced in years, as being not in the best of health. Mrs. Becker is now 88 years of age and is in failing health on account of the advanced years, and also of the strenuous life which she lived in the early days of Nebraska, when she heroically did her part and more in the building of this great state of Nebraska.

Makes New Business Firm.

John Frans has purchased a half interest in the cafe which has been the property of Bud Lindsay for some time past and the new firm of Lindsay & Frans are at the old stand ready for all business which may come their way, and are prepared to care for it. Mr. Frans traded his Ford Coupe for the interest in the business.

Business in Good Condition.

The Farmers Union Auditing Department of Omaha completed an audit of the Farmers Union Store and Elevator at Union this week covering the year 1920. The store showed a net loss for the year of some four hundred dollars, on a volume of business of nearly $40,000. However, preparations were made for this year ago in the maintenance of a surplus account, which more than tides them over, leaving considerable undivided profits on hand for the opening of the new year. In addition to this they discounted their inventory ten per cent, leaving their present stock nearly $12,000, a conservative figure. The elevator fared better showing a net profit over and above expenses of over $1200, in the face of heavy losses on both corn and wheat at the time of the slump. Their volume of business amounted to over $110,000. A year like this co-operative enterprises of "bitter even" figure they are ahead. Their salvation has been the accumulation of a surplus fund, left in the business for the common good of all its membership alike.

FOR FEAR OF A RIOT.

"If you wish to save our drug store from being riotd, kindly send us another supply of calendars by aeroplane, if possible. Our Bitter Wine customers are demanding them." This message received from Gary, Ind., a few days ago is a convincing proof how great is the number of those who know that Triner's Bitter Wine is the best remedy for poor appetite, constipation, headaches and other stomach disturbances. Its main ingredient, cascara sagrada, is spoken of in the Encyclopaedia Britannica in the following way: "It is one of the most useful of all laxatives, it not only empties the bowels, it also acts as a tonic to the intestines and tends to prevent future constipation." Try also other Triner's remedies: Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic, Triner's Cough Sedative, Triner's Liniment, etc. Your druggist or dealer in medicines has just a new supply. CUT MADE IN WOOL WORKERS' WAGES

Reduction of 22 1/2 Per Cent in Wages Made by the American Woolen Company

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 10.—The public attitude is against maintaining the wages of textile workers at the high war time rates, William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen company, said tonight in reference to the reduction of 22 1/2 per cent in the wages of the operatives in the company's fifty mills announced today. This cut brought into the lower wage levels of the textile trade in New England the last important manufacturing interest involved.

Addressing the overseers of the American Woolen company's four mills here Mr. Wood said that the decision to readjust wages was reached "with a full regard for what is just" to the workers. "If the prevailing rate of wages could have been maintained I would have been only too glad," he said, "but the attitude of the public is against it. They will not pay the prices which the present wages involves."

"The present situation is, it seems to me, one of the most difficult we have ever met. We have had several years of active and prosperous business. Suddenly we are called on to face the most drastic readjustment business has ever known. It invariably means reduction of prices for our goods, reduced profits and reduced wages."

"The first important thing to do is to keep our mills running so far as possible. To do this we must get orders and to sell our cloth we must manufacture it at a price that the public is willing to give. "The first thing therefore, is to reduce our costs. We have to cut down unnecessary costs. We have to cut out extravagance and cultivate economy. I am convinced we cannot resume operations unless our labor costs are reduced."

Wood said notwithstanding curtailment of operations the company had been accumulating cloth. "It has been unable to resell its cancelled orders or to secure new orders for what little cloth we have been manufacturing," he said. "First, we propose immediately to sell the cloth on hand at great reduced prices. This will be done at a substantial loss, but we must meet it. It will be no way affect our wages. Then we propose immediately to make the biggest effort we have ever made to get business to run our mills. To do this we must reduce not only our profits but our costs as well and among others our labor costs. If we do not do this, we must close our mills."

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 10.—The Oliver Chilled Plow works today announced a cut in the price of all horsedrawn implements of from eight to twenty per cent.

LABOR ASKS PROTECTION FROM IMPORTS

Objects to Gates Being Thrown Open to Foreign Product—"It is High Crime," Morrison Declares

Washington, Jan. 10.—Protection for the American laborer from foreign "imports" on an equality with the protection accorded American products by tariff laws was asked of the senate immigration committee today by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American federation of labor. He added that the position of the federation was that of straight-out protection without reservation for a period of two years from alien labor. "We object," he said, "to throwing the doors wide open, flooding the American labor market with cheap European labor."

He said that reports just received from labor officials in 141 cities showed the number of unemployed to be 1,819,272, and said he would not dare estimate what the total of all cities would show. Figures submitted by Mr. Morrison showed that the unemployed in San Francisco numbered 15,000 and Seattle 9,000. "It is a high crime," he continued, "for any man in the face of these figures to advocate the bringing of millions of men from Europe and add them to the unemployed already here. The flood is ready to come. Official figures of the labor department show that 101,000 came in October and 103,000 in November. Eliminating those who returned to Europe, these figures would mean a net immigration of 784,000 a year."

Mr. Morrison declared the American workman was entitled to "sustaining employment." The witness said labor from Mexico should be excluded as a "menace to American laborers in border states." Secretary Morrison was preceded by a delegation of business men representing construction industries and manufacturers. John R. Wiggins of Pennsylvania, leader of the delegation, opposed the Johnson bill and declared arguments that "a flood of Europeans was imminent," were "absolutely fallacious." He asked for modification or elimination of literacy tests and contract restriction laws.

HARDING OPPOSED TO BIG CEREMONY

In Interest of National Thrift He Requests No Elaborate Program Attend His Taking Oath of Office

Marion, O., Jan. 10.—In the interest of national thrift, President-elect Harding tonight requested officials arranging for his inauguration to abandon all plans for an inaugural ceremony.

In a telegram to F. B. McLean, chairman of the inaugural committee at Washington, Mr. Harding declared he preferred simply to take the oath of office, deliver a brief address and then take up his duties. He said it would make his position very unhappy if the outlay for an elaborate inaugural created the impression of extravagance.

"I am familiar with the custom of erecting a platform and providing seats for guests who witness the ceremony," said Mr. Harding, "but it will be most pleasing to me to have this ceremony take place within the capitol or on the east porch, without a single extra preparation. This will require no expense, and we shall be joint participants in an example of economy as well as simplicity which may be helpful in seeking our normal ways once more."

He also telegraphed Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, in charge of the congressional end of the plans, suggesting that the proposal to erect stands on the capitol grounds be abandoned. This proposal has been the subject of heated debate in congress.

Plans Abandoned.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—Abandonment immediately of all plans for a celebration in connection with the inauguration of President-elect Harding was announced tonight by E. H. McLean, chairman of the Washington inaugural committee, in accordance with the desire of Mr. Harding.
