UNION NEBRASKA

Miss Minnie Peters of the Union school faculty was a visitor at her home in Brock last Monday.

Mrs. Nora Harris of Fort Dodge, Iowa, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dysart for the present.

Little Blanche Braun of Plattsmouth, was the guest of Miss Mildred Clarke of Union for over Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Swab was visiting with friends in Omaha over Sunday and returned to take up his practice here Monday morning.

Fred H. Rhodewald of Plattsmouth, a salesman for the Pollock Auto company, was looking after business here last Monday.

C. D. St. John, the miller of Nehawka, was a visitor in Union last Monday, looking after some business and meeting with his many friends.

Louis Turner of Plattsmouth, was in Union for the day last Monday, looking after some work for the light company, making the trip via the Missouri Pacific.

Winfield Swan, living north of town, was reported as being too sick at his home to attend the meeting of the board of directors of the Farmer's Elevator company.

Joe Banning was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, where he has some business matters to look after and while he was away Mrs. Banning looked after the business.

Charles Bowdish of Omaha, was in Union for a short time last Thursday and was the guest of L. R. Upton and Joe Everett, with both of whom he had some business transactions.

T. J. Brendel was a visitor in Union, having driven from his home in Murray to meet his sister-in-law, Miss Margaret Vallery, who arrived from Lincoln on the Missouri Pacific.

Miss Bessie LaRue was the guest at the home of her friend, Miss Gladys Whitford of Arlington, for over the week end, while she could be away and not interfere with her school.

Messrs Burdette Briggs and Charles Hitt, Jr., were spending a short time in Union last Monday morning, while waiting for a train for Nebraska City, having coming from their home town in Plattsmouth, via auto.

Pete and Chris Miller of Weeping Water, were in Union for a short time last Monday while changing trains, going from Weeping Water to Nebraska City where they were looking after some business matters.

Birthdays were again very popular last week and most of them coming with so much enthusiasm, that it was found necessary to ask that the celebrations should not be quite so hilarious.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice, who have been visiting for the past few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Fitzpatrick, near Weeping Water, stopped in Union over Monday while changing cars on their way to their home in Plattsmouth.

Herbert Burbee was a visitor at home during the first part of the week, returning from a visit in Omaha with his mother, Mrs. M. J. Burbee, who is at a hospital in Omaha, where she is convalescing after having undergone an operation for the benefit of her health.

R. C. Kuehne and family, who have formerly resided in Minnesota, arrived in Union and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Miller for the day, they being relatives and then departed for Weeping Water and were met there by Joseph Miller and will visit at their home for some time near Manley.

Miss Mildred Clarke entertained at dinner last Saturday evening in honor of her fourteenth birthday. Misses Vera Upton, Alma Frans, Ina LaRue Virginia Harris, all of Union, and Miss Blanche Braun of Plattsmouth. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by the young ladies.

Last Monday Albert Eaton and John Irvin, the road men, who have been kept off the road on account of the mud, got the truck and drag out and assayed to make some good roads, but as they had passed the top of the hill near E. E. Leach's place, the truck went wrong and they had to have it pulled back to town for a working over.

The missionary society of the Methodist church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. B. A. Taylor, and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon last Tuesday. The discussion was conducted by Mrs. J. D. Cross, and consisted of convention work, a number of reports being received. A splendid lunch was served by the genial hostess and her daughter, Miss Elsie.

Messrs. Ivan and Earl Cross of Brush, Colorado, who are the sons of F. L. Cross of that place, and who is a brother of J. D. Cross of Union, are visiting for a short time in Union as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cross. After the conclusion of their visit Master Ivan Cross will go to Kansas City, where he will attend a tractor school for some time, while Master Earl will return to his home in the west.

Wm. Ost, living southwest of Union, received a car of cattle a few days ago, which he is putting into his feed lots and will put them in condition to return to the market during the coming spring.

Received Word From Sick Brother Last Saturday, County Commissioner C. F. Harris of Union, received word announcing the extreme illness of his brother Mr. Frank Harris of Radford, Va. Mr. C. F. Harris immediately departed for the east and hastened to the bedside of his brother, who has a severe attack of pneumonia. It is hoped that on his arrival he may find the brother much improved in health and that they may enjoy an excellent visit. Mr. C. F. Harris was anticipating a visit, but the illness of the brother hastened his departure for the east.

Attends Funeral of Cousin. L. G. Todd and family were in attendance at the funeral of Mr. John Ahi, who was a cousin of Mrs. Todd and who died last Friday at the home of her brother, Mrs. Henry Horn. The Todd family drove up to Eight Mile Grove church and cemetery to attend the funeral.

No Services at Wabash. On account of the prevalence of smallpox in the western portion of the county and some of the church congregations at Wabash have the malady, and others being exposed it was considered best not to hold meetings until the disease had been stamped out. The Rev. W. A. Taylor was notified and did not go to conduct the meetings as was his custom.

Hog Dressing Demonstration. At the home of E. B. Chapman last Monday, was given a hog dressing demonstration which also included the butchering of a beef. County Agent L. R. Snipes of Weeping Water and Mr. Pesson of Omaha were in attendance, as well as W. B. Banning of Union, and about thirty others. The better ways of dressing both pork and beef were exemplified as well as instructions given in making the choicest cuts in order to get best results from the dressed carcass.

Another Attempt at Burglary. There was an attempt, though unsuccessful, of breaking into the Farmers Store at Union which occurred one day last week. Attempts were made at a number of places about the building and it is not known why they stopped before accomplishing their purpose, unless it was that they thought some one was inside to receive them.

Did Not Join the Star. While W. H. Porter, Mrs. Belle Frans, Miss Mary Becker, Mrs. Joe Banning, Mrs. Ivan Balfour, Miss Elsie Taylor, Mrs. Olney Easter, and Mrs. Jessie Liggett were all in Plattsmouth last Friday evening, the ladies being in attendance at the Order Eastern Star meeting and at which Mesdames Liggett and Easter were members of a class which was receiving the work of the initiation, we can safely assure all that Mr. Porter was not received into membership, but he was looking after business in the county seat and the welfare of the ladies as well.

Doing Some Good Work. We were attracted by a sign in the postoffice at Union extending an invitation to all to attend the meetings of the Baptist Young People's Union, and remarked on the attractiveness of the sign when the postmaster remarked that the work the society was doing far exceeded the sign. The meeting which is to be held the coming Sunday is to be conducted by Miss Marie Frans, and an excellent time is assured the young people who attend.

BOLSHEVIST FAMILY HAS BEEN BANISHED. Another Example that U. S. Will Not Tolerate Soviet Propagandists or "Reds."

New York, Jan. 22.—Soviet Russia's official family in the United States—forty-five persons—left today amid cheering from hundreds who sympathize with the Moscow government. On the steamer were three-score radicals deported from Ellis island, but the groups did not mingle. The radicals were hurried into the steerage, while the deported "ambassador," Ludwig Martens, led his official party to the deck and with his wife entered a suite de luxe, while his staff and associates provided themselves with cabin accommodations. Some of these in the soviet party departed voluntarily while others sailed at the command of Uncle Sam. All but one smiled as their ship steamed past the statue of liberty. The only tears were shed by three-year-old Svetlana Martens, born in Brooklyn and daughter of the "ambassador."

Red Flag Waver Punished. After five young Americans caught him outside the pier, he predicted lots of red flags would flourish in the United States. This thought was shared by the departing Russians and man of the hundreds who showered them with kisses and cries of "comrade."

"Ambassador" Martens said his absence would be only temporary and would be "wondered at in the new future, when the United States and soviet Russia got together on friendly terms." He expressed no sadness at leaving the country which for more than two years disdained to recognize him officially and then ordered him to depart.

The steamer Stockholm will take the Russians to Gothenburg, Sweden. From there they will go to Libau, Latvia, and then overland to Moscow.

The Stockholm sailed for Gothenburg shortly after 3 o'clock bearing the Martens party on the first leg of its journey back to Russia.

Although the department of labor offered the best accommodations the ship affords, Martens declined, saying he wished to buy a ticket and "travel like any other passenger."

Martens Says He Is Grateful. Before boarding the ship, Martens issued a statement expressing "grateful appreciation for the great personal kindness and courtesy I have received from many Americans in all vocations throughout the country." He said it was a source of personal pleasure "to find everywhere men and women who have not allowed hysterical fears or prejudice to move them from their sympathy with the cause I have represented."

"My departure," the statement continued, "has come as the logical and inevitable consequence of the policy of the American government toward soviet Russia." He declared he had worked a long time before being able to induce the expression of a definite policy and that "my mission here would have terminated earlier if the department of state had been willing to take the responsibility which was finally assumed by the department of labor. This, however, is a curious matter of American official procedure, which I do not pretend to understand."

Mr. Martens said he had no knowledge of the future plans of the American government, "nor can I tell what direction this policy of ignoring the existence of the established government of the largest country in Europe will lead."

"I can only say," he concluded, "that when the American people are prepared to approach this problem, the government of the Russian workers and peasants will be ready to meet them in a reasonable and friendly spirit."
