Cheer up! We have had hard times before and most everybody survived.

Thomas Edison took out his first patent for a talking machine February 19, 1879.

Why don't the reformers be done with it at once and afflict us with an anti-everything law?

We don't suppose the golden fleece was really golden, guess the profiteers had just boosted wool.

The automobile has about driven the automobile out of business, but "white mule" is still popular.

The American public is said to spend five billion dollars a year for amusements, and is still bored.

Harding is of that cautious type of citizen who always sticks his toes into the bathtub before stepping in.

About the hardest thing for a prohibition enforcement officer to do is to make seized-whisky stayed seized.

The Harvard Memorial Society plans a "typical dinner of 1721" in Boston soon. Mr. Volstead, please note.

Well, well, what next, now they are talking of a 20th amendment, providing for prohibition of yeast-cakes.

President Wilson views the 4th of March with more complacency since he has a place to lay his head that night.

A man bearing one of Lenin's numerous aliases has died, but Lenin continues the business of making others die.

Spats have one substantial recommendation, and that is that they enable you to wear your low shoes in winter if you want to.

The fact that the average motorist has mighty poor judgment at railroad crossings is strikingly shown by the increasing death toll.

The census office asserts that America has the biggest collection of bachelors in the world. Has anyone counted the old maids?

The advance noted by Mr. Burlington in the postoffice system is of the character known as "one step forward and two steps backward."

Much is made of the fact that a wrestler with a cork leg has been discovered, and yet law-makers, with cork heads get no credit at all.

The person with the audacity to claim there is no hell never did time as a devil around a country print shop when things went wrong.

The appalling number of murders, hold-ups, highway robberies and similar offenses make the pessimistic believe that civilization is struck down.

One thing is certain about road building. Times are never favorable to it in the opinion of the people who don't want to build permanent roads.

Uncle Sam has decided to cut the army to 175,000 men. This is the first substantial step towards economy that has been inaugurated by congress.

The trouble Harding is having with the selection of his cabinet isn't a circumstance to the trouble he will have with that cabinet after he gets it.

A flying machine has been invented that will go straight up. What the world needs is a flying machine guaranteed not to come straight down.

"You do not see as many pretty faces on the streets as in the old days, complains an old timer. Well, they're there, old chap. One should look up, you know."

What are the prospects for a soldier bonus at this session. This question is being closely watched by the more than 4,000,000 veterans of the world war.

For regular action of the bowels; easy, natural movements, relief of constipation, try Doan's Regulents. 20c at all stores.

The world is getting better all the time. For instance, you don't have to make an appointment two weeks in advance with an automobile salesman nowadays.

The difference between the laundress and a washerwoman is that neither knows what articles of clothing should be starched and what should not be starched.

We take it for granted, there would be less demand for ear-rings since the fair sex began wearing those wonderful coiffure creations commonly known as "cooty garages."

Up to last week, a prize fight was about the only place a man could go and behave as practically as he pleased. But now New York women have started the fashion of attending prize fights.

"Harding will have some shooting during his trip to Florida, and it won't all be alligator shooting, either," says the Florida Times-Union. Perhaps Warren will have a few crap shooting.

The revelation is made that the shipping board has not been taking its fixed charges into account in making up its balance sheet. But why should it? The shipping board lets the government pay those.

It is the country that produces food the city consumes. With more than 51 per cent of the national population living in cities and towns, reduction of living costs to the scale of two decades ago is scarcely possible.

Agood many freak bills are reported from the various state legislatures at this time, many of which are explained by their sponsors as being mere jokes. The greatest danger in this kind of joking is that so many of the jokes later become laws.

An Oklahoma legislator wants to make snoring a misdemeanor of law punished by graduated punishment ranging from loss of breakfast to heavy fines. Of course it is a silly proposal, but seriously the author of the bill ought to move to Nebraska and run for the legislature.

We gather from anecdotes of their democratic habits that the next president and vice-president will cooperate in a life of beautiful and amiable simplicity. Mr. Harding, we take it, will board a cow on the white house lawn and Mr. Coolidge will come every morning and milk it for half of the milk.

As suggested by Mr. Harding, the inaugural ceremony, it was indicated, will consist simply of the formal administration oath of office and an address by the new president, probably from the east steps of the capitol. Then Mr. Harding will proceed quietly to the White House, where, in his own language, he "will hang up his hat and go to work."

DAMAGE TO LINES HEAVY OVER STATE

Many Toll Circuits Are Down and Trouble on Many Lines in Central Part of State.

The storm that has been brewing for several days broke with much force in eastern Colorado and Central Nebraska Monday afternoon and Monday night. By Tuesday morning reports indicated that the storm was breaking up with snow falling heavily in small areas, with a rather strong wind, varying from northeast to northwest. The heaviest snow in Nebraska was reported between Edna and Superior, where about five inches of snow fell. There was little snow between Red Cloud and McCook.

Railroad and telephone companies lost heavily from the sleet which were cut of service, the leads between Lincoln and Omaha being the first to be lost. The Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company issued the following report on the storm showing its effect on their properties, through W. Thorngerson, district manager: "The storm covers the territory extending from Nebraska City on the east to Grand Island, although yesterday's storm extended beyond North Platte. The south edge of the storm seems to be about Auburn, Sterling, Cortland, Wilber, Geneva, Clay Center. The north edge of the storm is around Wahoo, David City, Osceola and Central City. The ice formation is largely on north and south wires on account of the storm coming from the east, and the ice formation is from 1-8 to 1-2 inch. This is a very unusual storm from the fact that storms out of every ten come from the north and the ice formation is almost entirely on east and west wires, while in this case the storm came from the east and the ice formation is largely on the north and south wires."

SCHMADER TO GO EAST SOON

Manager of Andy Schmarder Plans to Take Louisville Boy and Johnny Sudenberg to Big Cities.

From Tuesday's Daily. The fight fans of the eastern cities are to have the opportunity of seeing Andy Schmarder in action according to the plans of Manager Jack Lewis, given out at Omaha, as Mr. Lewis expects to take Schmarder and Johnny Sudenberg to the east for a number of matches and will leave Omaha near the 10th of the coming month for his tour and that there is strong probability that a number of matches will be staged in New York. Lewis leaves today for Kansas City to confer with the boxing officials there in regard to staging the Schmarder-Roper bout in that city. New York City is also asking to see the two clever boxers in action and there is a possibility that it may go there but the principals would prefer the Missouri city for the match.

CONDEMN HIGH PRICED STOCK FOODS

Prominent Hog Raiser Says Prices Charged Are Unwarranted—Makes His Own Hog Food, With Better Results.

"That he is all through paying fancy prices for stock foods and hog remedies and that he is raising some of the best hogs ever placed on the market" was the statement made recently by E. H. Beckstead, well known hog raiser and authority on live stock.
Mr. Beckstead's hogs are the envy of his neighbors, and have "topped the market" for several years in Iowa. He states that for years he bought high-priced hog foods and hog remedies, but he is all through paying extravagant prices for what he can make himself. He states that what the hogs need are minerals, and tells the secret of his wonderful success by explaining that he takes about five pounds of ordinary mineraline (which is pure concentrated minerals and cost only a couple of dollars) and mixes same with enough bran or filler to make a hundred pounds. All hogs, and especially brood sows require minerals as they keep them free from worms, and in the pink of condition, and are essential to the hogs' growth and a well balanced ration. This inexpensive mixture placed in a sheltered box where the hogs can get at it as they need it, will produce far better results than any high priced so-called stock foods.
Send two dollars to The Mineraline Chemical Co., 1638 North Wells St., Chicago, Ill., and the will forward you by prepaid parcel post, enough mineraline to make a full hundred pounds. (Adv.)

MAJOR CRIME DECREASES IN EAST

Chicago Authorities Do Not All-tribute the Better Conditions to Prohibition.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Major crime decreased more than 30 per cent during the first year of prohibition in Chicago.
The number of murders dropped 51 per cent, burglaries 10 per cent and robberies 6 per cent.
While some officials attributed the decrease in crime to prohibition, Col. Henry Barrett Chamberlain, director of the Chicago crime commission, said today he did not believe prohibition had any great effect on major crime.
"Prohibition has decreased misdemeanors," he said, "but has been the cause for wholesale corruption of the police."
"The major criminal is not a drunkard. As a matter of fact he seldom smokes. He finds his amusement in gambling."
Colonel Chamberlain stated crime is organized, centralized, commercialized and operated as any other established business.
"Crime is not caused by poverty or unemployment," said Colonel Chamberlain. "The criminal becomes a criminal because he wants to."
A total of 168 murders were recorded in Chicago in 1920 and 330 in 1919. The robberies numbered 2,752 in 1920 and 2,912 in 1919. The burglaries in 1920 numbered 5,471 and in 1919, 6,198.
Crime will decrease when small fire arms sales are prohibited, Chamberlain said.
