"The Bank where You Feel at Home"

HENRY A. TOOL, President J. E. GUTHMANN, Vice-Pres.
H. A. GUTHMANN, Cashier

Victor Thimgan was a visitor in Omaha for a few days last week, where he was the guest of friends.
C. F. Hite was a business visitor at Alvo one day last week, where he was attending to some business.
Frank Melvin was a visitor in Omaha last Wednesday, where he was looking after some business matters.
E. W. Thimgan was called to Lincoln last week to look after some business matters in the automobile line.
Colon Sedman of Wahoo, is visiting at the home of Joseph Gustin, southwest of Murdock for a short time.
H. H. Gerbeling of Wabash, was a visitor in Murdock last week, being a caller on his friend, O. J. Posthast.
Albert Timm was the guest of friends in Omaha for a short time last week, returning home Thursday evening.
Frank Rosenow, who has been in the west for some time, returned home recently and seems glad to be at home once more.
Orville Pflanz and wife were visiting at the Gehrts home over Sunday, returning to their home in Lincoln last Monday morning.
Geo. Tonaack visited with friends in Omaha for over night last Wednesday and returned over Thursday to look after some business matters.
Fred Friedrich, one of the electricians who are here to install the electric lights, took pictures of the fire when the home of J. E. McHugh was burned last week.
John Gakemeier and wife were visiting with friends in Omaha for a short time last week, going to that city on Wednesday and returning home Thursday evening.
J. E. McHugh was a visitor in Omaha last week, attending the Retail Merchant Association meeting, and was there at the time of the fire which destroyed his home.
The Murdock Electric light company is getting along nicely with the installation of the service here. Their remains a little work yet before they will be all lighted up.
During the illness of L. G. Hornbeck, who is at Lincoln, O. W. Gillespie, who can fit into any place where he can give service, is assisting at the station in the work there.
Miss Josephine Schmidt of Hastings, but who is now employed in Omaha, was a visitor in Murdock over Sunday at the home of her uncle, Herman Schmidt and family, returning to her work Monday.

The Landholm Auto company of Murdock, has accepted the agency for Murdock and vicinity for the Oldsmobile. He will handle pleasure cars and trucks and will in a short time have a few of these cars in their display room.
Gust Wendt was a visitor in Omaha last week looking after business and must have mistaken the season of the year as we noticed him returning home in the evening with a "kitty-car". Well, it was not so far from Christmas any way.
Mrs. Henry Luetchens and two small children are suffering from a case of the measles, which is keeping them pretty close to their home for the present, though they are getting along nicely and are expecting soon to be able to be out again.
Mr. Simon Bornemeier and son Daniel, who reside some five or six miles east of Murdock, are reported as both being down with the pneumonia and are quit sick. It is hoped that they may soon recover their ordinary robust health.
Wm. Meyer, Miss Amanda Sirov, and John Paul Pickwell, spent most of the last week at home on account of the examinations which were being held, they having completed theirs at an early date in the week and were able to have a few days vacation.
O. E. McDonald and wife spent some time in Omaha last week, doing some shopping and visiting with friends, as well as attending a fine show while there. Edward Kelly, who is visiting from Plattsmouth, and a brother of Mrs. McDonald, was looking after the business while the folks were away.

Having Serious Time With Eye
W. H. Rush has been having considerable trouble with one of his eyes on account of an infection in the shape of a small tumor which has been growing there for some time. His brother, Dr. C. H. Rush of Lincoln, was a visitor at the Rush home last Thursday, and thought it best to have the brother return to Lincoln with him where more favorable conditions could be had for dealing with the effected member. It was not known whether it would be necessary to undergo an operation or not until a thorough examination has been made by the specialist. It is hoped that he may the trouble corrected soon.

Knows Who Stole Robe.
With true detective ability, those who had a robe stolen from their automobile a few weeks ago, kept the matter quiet until they have at last located the thief and they are now in a position to deal with the culprit, and are, on account of the family of the offender, willing to give the one who took it an opportunity to return it to its rightful owner. Otherwise a warrant will be sworn out and the county sheriff will be sent for the robe and the one who stole it as well. You had better get in the clear while the getting is good, for if you don't, it will not be long until the officer will be knocking at your door.

Need Water Service Also.
A few of the more progressive citizens of Murdock have been behind the electric lighting proposition, and truly they have a vision of a better city in the future. This was demonstrated by the fact that if the electric lights had been burning in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McHugh, the gas lamp would not have been taken to look for a book which was wanted and the fire would have not occurred. Again had Murdock had a water system the fire could have been extinguished in its incipency and the subsequent loss been averted. It seems a strange thing that after the busting of the lights, that Mr. McHugh and family should suffer their loss just on the evening of the installation of the long desired service.

Celebrate Burns' Birthday
At the Murdock school on January 15, the natal day of the Scotch poet, Robert Burns, was appropriately celebrated by the students of the high school, with recitations, readings, and Scotch songs. The readings were all in the Scotch dialect, and made a very interesting day, making the study of history easy as well as making it a day in honor of the poet.

Held Box Social.
Many of the young people from Murdock attended the box social at Rose Valley last week and enjoyed the occasion greatly. The school is conducted by Miss Adel Peters and the object of the social besides the general good time it provided, was the improvement which is given the students who took part in the excellent program and the financial end of the matter, which raised the $ for furnishing the school with the little things which are not provided by the board, and are necessary for the best results of study.

Little Miss Landholm Arrives.
Last Thursday the stork was kind to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Landholm when it presented this happy couple with a second daughter, at the hospital in Omaha where the little one was born. The mother and little one are getting along nicely and with the best of care Jess is expected to pull through. The only trouble is that the workmen cannot hear anything but the merry whistle as he works away.

Everett Heier Getting Along Nicely.
Little Everett Heier, who lost his eye by reason of having it injured by the explosion of a cartridge, is getting along nicely, and it is hoped that he will soon be able to return to his home again. He is now at the home of a sister who resides in Lincoln. Mrs. Wm. Heier, Sr., the mother returned home a short time ago and reports the son feeling fine.

Appreciates the Friendships.
We have realized that I have many friends in Murdock and it has been a pleasure to enjoy these kindly relations, but not until the fire had destroyed our home last week, when the many and unstinted sacrifices, all Murdock worked to their utmost to extinguish the fire and save what was possible of the effects of our home. Not until all these kindly manifestations and the services rendered, did we realize the true loyalty of the towns people. We are not insensible to these acts of true friendship and wish to say we surely appreciate the assistance rendered, and more the kindly feelings which prompted the service.
J. R. McHugh, and family.

Goes to Hospital Again.
I. G. Hornbeck, who has been kept from his work for some time on account of an attack of the grippe and which required an operation some time ago and from which he had not entirely recovered when he was again attacked by an infection in his nose which required him to return to the hospital. He is at Lincoln at this time receiving treatment and we are hoping he may soon return well and strong.

The Junior Red Cross which is working in Murdock, and while they are not doing what they are at this time, because they feel it is an urgent case of need, they are doing the thing because of a feeling of friendship and wanting to put into practice the things which they are organized for, that is helping some one. They are expecting to do something for the ones suffering from the recent fire.

Surprised Their Friend.
Last Friday a number of the many friends of Albert Thiele, gathered at his home and there made a very pleasant evening for this popular young man, celebrating in a very gracious manner the passing of his 20th milestone. Games were the feature of the evening which all the young folks enjoyed to the utmost, and the culmination was the delightful luncheon served before the friends departed, wishing this young man many more such happy events.

The Farmers and Merchants Bank.
The Farmers and Merchants bank of Murdock held their annual election a few days ago when the following officers were elected: H. C. Backmeyer, president; A. Streich, vice president; O. J. Posthast, cashier; H. C. Backmeyer, District Director; L. H. Hizer, Wm. Heier, and O. J. Posthast, directors.

Death of Mrs. McHugh.
The death of Mrs. Kate McHugh occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of her son, Jerry McHugh and wife in this place and came with great suddenness and shock to the members of the family. Mrs. McHugh had been feeling very well of late and in fact better than usual and enjoying a visit at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Walling at Plattsmouth for the past few days. On receipt of the news Friday that the home of her son, Jerry McHugh had been destroyed by fire at Murdock, Mrs. McHugh decided to come to Murdock and assist the family in getting settled in their new home after the fire and it was only a short time after her arrival that she complained of feeling slightly ill and a few minutes her condition became serious and death followed in a short time, caused by heart trouble.
The funeral services will be held at the St. John's Catholic church in Plattsmouth, Tuesday morning and the body laid to rest in the cemetery in that city.

DRASTIC BOOTLEGER LAW PROPOSED

Still and Material May Be Confiscated and Extracts Cannot Be Sold in Soft Drink Places.

Senator Randall of Cedar introduced a voluminous bill Thursday in form of a resolution in the legislative hall of Nebraska. The bill was prepared by the anti-saloon league and is supposed to be exactly what the law enforcement workers want.
The measure is S. F. 185. If it becomes a law it will be useful for any one to advertise stills or formulas for the making of intoxicating liquors. Stills appear to be one of the principal targets of the bill. It is unlawful to have a still or any of the materials for making whisky in the house. If it is proved that any stills, plate stills, or any other unlawfully made may be closed by order of a court.
Provision is made to curb the unlawful sale of lemon or other extracts, compounds or perfumes to persons who might have a depraved taste that he would drink any preparations for the purpose of becoming intoxicated. So the bill fixes it so that if a man is sent up town to buy a little of lemon extract or a bottle of perfume he will not rush into his favorite bowling alley, pool hall, place of amusement or soft drink parlor. It is declared unlawful to sell such compounds in these places.
Another provision relates to costs in prosecutions for possession of intoxicants. It makes it possible for the courts to charge up to the defendant the price which an officer of the law paid for a sample of the wet goods in question, also costs for drayage and like expenses in the case.
In the matter of the manufacture and sale of ethyl alcohol some new provisions are incorporated by the terms of the bill. A druggist may not sell such stuff in bulk until first rendered unfit for use as a beverage. It is also provided that a physician may not prescribe alcohol for his patients.
Another bill introduced by Rickard provides that soft drink parlors must first obtain a license for a year to sell their wares. The license must come from the state department of agriculture.

CLINTON MAN IS NOW CONVINCED

Crippen Knows Now Tanlac Does All Claimed for It—Regains His Lost Health.

"Since my experience with Tanlac, I have never doubted that it will do everything that is claimed for it," said George Crippen, an employee of the Lafayette hotel at Clinton, Iowa.
"During the past two years I had a world of trouble from indigestion. Everything I ate seemed to lodge right in the pit of my stomach, where it fermented and formed gas that bloated me up till it actually hurt to fasten my belt. Any little exertion in doing my work around the hotel caused my heart to palpitate so violently I felt like my breath would be cut off."
"My nerves were in such a state the least noise would wake me up, and I never got any sound sleep. My back hurt almost constantly, my appetite left me. I was falling off in weight and couldn't find any medicine that would do me a bit of good."
"Well, I finally decided to try Tanlac, and since taking it I feel like a new man. I have a splendid appetite and never suffer from indigestion, nervousness, or aches or pains of any kind. I have already gotten back ten pounds of my lost weight and am still gaining. I sleep fine every night and feel good all the time."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke and Company; in Murray by the Murray Drug company, and the leading druggist in every town.

MUSICALE AT THE G. Q. DOVEY HOME

Q. Z. Society of the Presbyterian Church Offers Pleasant Afternoon's Entertainment.

From Saturday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon the Q. Z. society of the Presbyterian church offered an afternoon musicale at the handsome home of Mrs. George O. Dovey on North Sixth street, which was very largely attended by the music lovers of the city to enjoy the artistic and charmingly arranged program offered by Plattsmouth musicians.
The program was opened with a very pleasing piano number by Miss Marvel Whitaker and was followed by a vocal trio consisting of Misses Helen Pontius, Fae Chase and Edith Farley and Catherine Schneider also added to the beauty of the opening portion of the program. Mrs. Christine Coughlin, one of the talented pianists of the city, offered a very beautiful selection and was followed by Mrs. A. J. Beeson with one of her always pleasing readings, given in her usual gifted manner. Miss Thelma Hudson, one of the young vocalists of the city, gave a pleasing solo and was followed by a violin solo by Mrs. A. D. Caldwell, which in its artistic rendition made a deep impression on the auditors. The closing number was a piano selection by Mrs. Lillian Freeman, who in her number displayed great artisticness and beauty of rendition that was enjoyed by all of the party.
The ladies of the society at an appropriate hour served very enjoyable refreshments which completed the afternoon of more than usual enjoyment.

BENSON TEAM WINS BASKET BALL GAME

Fefereze Also Gives Local Team Short End of Game on His Decisions Last Night.

From Saturday's Daily.
The Plattsmouth high school basketball team that journey up to Benson yesterday afternoon to meet the team of the school of that city last night returned home minus the victory and with reports of the manner in which the referee had trampled on their rights and privileges in a more ruthless manner than even the 18th amendment.
The score was 41 to 21 when the final whistle was blown and was marked throughout with more or less trouble between the players and the official of the game. In the early portion of the contest the referee made his sympathies clear when he hung three fouls on Schneider, one of the effective players of the locals and put the player out of the game and forcing the use of a substitute in the battle which was waging between the two teams.
From the reports the Plattsmouth boys were well able to deal with the Benzonites, but their support from the official enabled them to get the best of the final argument and our warriors of the baskets returned home in defeat and in not the best of humor over the treatment received in the Omaha suburb.
