"Pain's enemy" —I'll say it is!

WHEN you want quick comfort—relief from any "external" pain, use Sloan's Liniment. It does the job without staining, rubbing, bandaging.
Use freely for rheumatism, neuralgia, aches and pains, sprains and strains, backache, coryza, etc.

Truth is always a friend to those who honestly seek it.

The average annual tax per capita in France is now 429 francs.

The more bad habits a man accumulates the less money he saves.

Men and women who fail to vote in Czechoslovakia are sentenced to jail.

Funny, but an automobile engine can be missing and still be right there.

In some cases a quiet wedding is but a certain raiser for a noisy afterpart.

The cost of rations for one man for a day in the United States army is 50 cents.

One thousand six hundred American soldiers in the World War remain unknown.

The former Empress Elizabeth of Austria used to smoke as many as 50 to 60 cigarettes a day.

It's not so much the high cost of living as the high cost of worrying that is going to hurt you.

The Bank of England safeguards its gold supply over night by submerging it in a deep well.

Don't try to tell the other fellow his business. He may ask you if you have any of your own.

The difference between immigration and emigration is that since the war it has been immigration.

Be sure you are right, then act just as cautiously as if there were a possibility of your being mistaken.

A cooking fork of recent design has a lever controlled by the thumb by which hot morsels are pushed from the prongs.

All writers of anonymous letters are detestable, of course, especially those who occasionally hit upon a grain of truth.

They say that a woman never hits what she aims at, but all the same when she aims high she usually lands pretty well up.

Leadership is demanded in Germany, says the Berlin newspapers.
That's nothing strange. Leadership is needed everywhere.

As you probably will note from the February list of new records, Mr. Caruso's voice is getting back to normal with his health.

The crime wave continues to spread and law-abiding communities like Plattsmouth are losing a lot of advertising by behaving themselves.

"Mad Mullah" is probably a great deal madder since the British bombarded him from the air and broke up his little army of mischief-makers.

One by one the big business heads in the Ford motor plant are dropping off. But no doubt most of the "parts" can be replaced at the next repair shop.

Jess Willard starts in training for his second good hammering at the hands of Jack Dempsey. But if it suits Jess the public has no right to complain.

Some men look as helpless as a lost dog.

Marriage opens a few eyes and many purses.

Some of the people you can't fool any of the time.

Greatest of all things is love—if it's the real thing.

Anticipation is more fun than realization—sometimes.

It is just as well to remember that it's always well to be just.

Women constitute 73 per cent of the factory workers in Japan.

Men will do almost anything for money—some will even work.

Wage-earning women in Virginia now number more than 225,000.

An old notion prevails that birds began to couple on St. Valentine's day.

When a fellow gets his head full of the idea that he is a k. absolutely, then he isn't.

A dressmaker may not have a graceful form, but she knows how to make up for it.

The good man that goes wrong is in reality a bad man who has just been found out.

Never condemn a man for being knocked-kneed; that may be the way his pants are pressed.

There is no use in growing at the weather man, as he can always give back worse than we send.

The henpecked husband never develops into a free thinker until his wife goes away on a visit.

A good many people think they have done their duty to a friend when they tell him not to worry.

Considering the crime waves and escape of criminals, the mills of the gods must also be on half-time.

It must be awfully nice to be so rich that you can afford to grumble about the enormous taxes you pay.

All things that are supposed to come to him who waits are subject to change in price without notice.

People applaud the villain on the stage for doing things they would have him arrested for doing in real life.

Nowadays a wedding couple welcomes the old shoes thrown at them —if they happen to be the right size.

The stringency of money in financial circles is being some what alleviated according to the bankers in the state.

The unemployed are rushing by the thousands from one city to another seeking jobs. Why don't they try the farm?

Prominent Hog Raiser Says Prices Charged Are Unwarranted—Makes His Own Hog Food, With Better Results.

"That he is all through paying fancy prices for stock foods and hog remedies and that he is raising some of the best hogs ever placed on the market" was the statement made recently by E. H. Beckstead, well known hog raiser and authority on live stock.

Mr. Beckstead's hogs are the envy of his neighbors, and have "topped the market" for several years in Iowa.
He states that for years he has bought high-priced hog foods and hog remedies, but he is all through paying extravagant prices for what he can make himself. He states that what the hogs need are minerals, and tells the secret of his wonderful success by explaining that he takes about five pounds of ordinary mineral (which is pure concentrated minerals and cost only a couple of dollars) and mixes same with enough bran or filler to make a hundred pounds. All hogs, and especially brood sows require minerals as they keep them free from worms, and in the pink of condition, and are essential to the hog's growth and a well balanced ration.
This inexpensive mixture placed in a sheltered box where the hogs can get at it as they need it, will produce far better results than any high priced so-called stock foods.

Send two dollars to The Mineraline Chemical Co., 1638 North Wells St., Chicago, Ill., and the will forward you by prepaid parcel post, enough mineraline to make a full hundred pounds. (Adv.)
