DEATH OF WILLIAM M'CAULEY OCCURS

PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY AT HOME IN THIS CITY AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

From Monday's Daily.

After an illness of one week's duration, William M'Cauley, one of the old and highly respected residents of the city passed away last evening at his home on Granite street, having in the past few days suffered a hemorrhage of the brain that made his recovery impossible.

Mr. M'Cauley is one of the veteran employes of the Burlington in this city as he has since his arrival here in 1875, been employed in the paint department of the shops and was one of the most highly esteemed men in that department, being loved and cherished by the many friends with whom he has been associated for the past years.

William M'Cauley was born in Philadelphia, January 4, 1845, and when a boy came west to the state of Illinois and at the outbreak of the civil war enlisted in Co. I, 124th Illinois Infantry, serving for three years and a half in that organization and at the close of the war returned to Illinois and at Macomb, in the year 1870, was married to Miss Harriett Latham. To this union three children were born, two of whom with the wife and mother survive the passing of this good man. The children are Fred and Charles M'Cauley of this city. One daughter, Mrs. Samuel Patterson, preceded the father in death a number of years ago. To share the grief of his death there are also three grandchildren, Mrs. Doris Tullisio, of Rockford, Ill.; James Patterson of Denver and Donald of Arapahoe.

The M'Cauley family came to Plattsmouth in 1879 and during the forty-two years of their residence here have been numbered among the most highly respected members of the community. Personally a quiet and unassuming nature Mr. M'Cauley has lived his life in the peaceful manner of an ideal citizen and strove always to see that he meted out to his fellow man the same treatment that he might expect in turn. His death is a loss to the community that will be hard to replace. The funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment had at the Oak Hill cemetery.

DRAWS HEAVY SENTENCE

John T. Sheffield Who Failed to Comply With Court Order to Pay for Care of Children Receives Jolt

From Monday's Daily.

This morning John T. Sheffield, formerly of Union, was in the district court to answer to a complaint of seventeen counts filed against him by County Attorney A. G. Cole and in which he was charged with having failed to comply with the order of the district court made on September 19th in which he was required to pay the sum of $15 per week for the care and maintenance of his children.

The information was read and the court decided that under the law the defendant was guilty on each of the counts, the punishment of which was three months imprisonment in the county jail and the seventeen counts made a total of four years and three months that will be coming to Mr. Sheffield and he was turned over to Sheriff C. D. Quinton to take up the task of serving the sentences. This offense is one that is regarded very lightly by many, but the law has very severe teeth in it for the party who violates it and in the case of this young man he will have plenty of time to meditate over the failure to comply with the court order. Sheffield has been in Omaha for some time and was brought back from there Saturday by Sheriff Quinton.

SERVICE CLASS ENTERTAINED.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The service class at the Christian church was very pleasantly entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. R. Stine and the occasion proved one of the greatest delight to the members of the party. The home was very charmingly arranged in decorations of red hearts in keeping with the valentine season and furnished a pleasing setting for the happy gathering. Following the business session the ladies enjoyed some very pleasing numbers on the Brunswick as well as games of various kinds in keeping with the season. The broken heart contest was especially interesting and each member of the party was given one of the hearts to mend and in this contest Mrs. G. E. Decker won the prize to complete the task. Other games were played and in the case of hour dainty refreshments were served and it was with the greatest of regret that the members of the party departed homeward.

If it's in the stationery line call at the Journal office.

THE KIDDIES MAY GAIN ADMISSION

Congressman Jefferis, of Omaha, Has Taken Up Case of Wm. Schall Who is Known Here

From Monday's Daily.

The circumstances surrounding the denial of the application of William Schall of Omaha for citizenship, which brought to Mr. Schall great grief as his children were en route to the United States and he was under the impression that the five motherless children could not be admitted to this country owing to inability of the father to qualify for citizenship at this time, seem assured of satisfactory solution.

The press dispatches of this singular case attracted the attention of Congressman Jefferis and he at once called on the commissioner general of immigration to discuss the proposition and as a result has sent the glad news to Mr. Schall that the circumstances are not as bad as they first appeared.

Mr. Schall is a brother of Mrs. M. Fanger and Mrs. V. Zucker, formerly of this city. The letter of Congressman to the grief stricken man says:

"Permit me to state that according to the commissioner of immigration here your fears are unfounded. The immigration act provides, in substance, that children may come to parents, parents to children, wife to husband, etc., without being subjected to the usual requirements.

"Thus it would seem that your children will be admitted to the United States without difficulty. You may be required to give a 'school bond' to show that they will receive proper education, but the test of literacy is not applied, the commissioner informs.

"As to your citizenship, I am pleased to enclose a copy of the bill recently introduced in congress, in which I seek to amend Section 10 of the Immigration and Naturalization act of June 29, 1906, to allow for naturalization in cases such as yours. I am informed by the committee on naturalization, house of representatives, that a provision along this line is to be included in the next naturalization act presented by congress, and there seems every reason to suppose that it will become a law."
