Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.
Miss Sada Stokes is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Miller in Weeping Water.
Mrs. W. A. Royal and Mrs. Ray Royal spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young.

Mesdames B. F. Brendel and C.
C. Carroll were visiting in Omaha last Monday, where they were the guests of friends and also were doing some shopping.
O. A. Davis and E. S. Tutt were visiting in Plattsmouth last Monday evening, where they were in attendance at the lecture which was given at the Masonic temple.

We will be pleased to handle your country produce, your eggs and chickens and like goods, giving the best satisfaction and highest prices.
The Murray Cream Station.
W. E. Countryman of Takamah, was a visitor for a short time in Plattsmouth, where he was the guest at the home of C. R. Troop and wife, and W. O. Troop and family.

John Farris was a visitor in Union last Tuesday and a guest at the home of his brother, Lee Farris, as well as C. Harris.
Mesdames J. H. Brown and E. L.
Steimer were visiting with friends in Omaha last Thursday, returning home in the evening.

Joseph Shrader who lives near Nehawka, was a visitor in Murray last week at the home of H. Shrader, where he was visiting with his brother, George W. Shrader.
Uncle George W. Shrader, who some time ago received a stroke of paralysis, is making satisfactory improvement, and it is hoped that he will soon be able to be about again.

George Brinklow moved to Plattsmouth last Wednesday. Miss Margie going up the evening before on the train, while the men folks took the goods on wagons the day following.

Mr. Paul Murdock, who is attending school in Omaha at one of the business colleges, was a visitor for a few days at the home of W. A. Troop, being the guest of his friend, Robert Troop, Jr.

W. J. Philpot and wife spent a few days at the farm west of town and also visited with friends in Murray, being over Sunday guests and returned to their home in Omaha Monday evening.

Mrs. Clifford Totten and Earl Chappel, her brother, were visiting in Murray from their home in Nehawka, coming to consult Dr. G. H. Gilmore and driving over in a buggy, finding the roads pretty bad.

Mrs. James Deles Dernier, who was taken to the St. Joseph hospital last week is still there receiving treatment, but as yet the specialist has made no pronouncement as to the nature of her malady.

George Nickles and wife were visiting in Omaha last Thursday, going to attend the lumbermen's convention which was meeting in the metropolis last week. They returned home on the midnight train last Thursday.

William Lewis, who has been visiting in this neighborhood and was guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mike Sidney, is thinking of making his home here again, and will probably farm on the W. E. Countryman place.

A few more Duroc Jersey boars at $45; also bred girls.

Notice to Murray State Bank Patrons It has been rumored and was also stated in the last issue of the Journal that I was going to move to Plattsmouth, in the capacity of vice-president of the Bank of Cass County.
This I wish to correct by stating that it is not my intention to move to Plattsmouth, but will remain in Murray to look after the business of the Murray State bank as in the past, but will devote a portion of my time to the duties of the new position in the Bank of Cass County.
W. G. Boedecker.

Celebrated Two Birthdays.
Last Tuesday, February 15th, being the birthday of Mrs. W. H. Hendricks and John Campbell, they celebrated the day by a dinner of a large party of friends and relatives at the home of the former, Mrs. Hendricks, whose name was formerly Miss Mahala Hill, was born in Ohio, February 15th, 1842, and when a child moved with her parents to Andrew county Missouri, and lived there until 1863, when she came to Nebraska and has practically been a resident of this neighborhood since.
Mrs. Hendricks and husband have the following children: Mrs. W. H.
Carroll, Plainview; Mrs. C. C. Carroll, Murray; Mrs. Mertice Schlegel, Magnet; Mrs. Dora Taylor, Gordon; John Hendricks, Murray; Jesse Hendricks, Creighton, and Mrs. Albert Lillie of Cedar Creek.

Those present to enjoy the dinner were John Campbell and wife, the former being a nephew and whose birthday fell on the same day, he being 68 years of age, J. H. Burton, Joseph Campbell and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Campbell, F. W.

Campbell and wife, C. C. Carroll and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hendricks and the writer, who can attest that this was a most enjoyable gathering and the dinner was such that one could eat and eat, and still there were good things left in abundance.

Murray School Notes.
Carl Dietl spent Saturday with Lester Gansamer.
Kenneth Farris spent Friday evening at the home of Carl Dietl.
Curtis Farris was a caller at the home of Lester Long Saturday.
Helen Read, a former pupil, visited the high school Friday afternoon.
The high school making a botted in laboratory periods this week.
Blanche Scotten was a visitor at the home of Marie Puls Monday evening.
Lois Scotten spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Lorene Hat-chett.
Marie Puls was absent from school Thursday afternoon on account of sickness.
Harley Puls returned to school Monday morning after being absent all last week.
May Wilson and Opal and Ruth Homan spent Sunday afternoon with Margaret Puls.
Richard Brendel and Leona Wright visited the intermediate room Monday afternoon.
Clara Mrasek, Madge Homan and Hazel Davis visited with Gladys and Grace Arnold Sunday afternoon.
Many of the pupils of the Murray school enjoyed coasting parties last week, but are thankful for this nice weather, if it did spoil the coasting.
Marie Puls, Blanche Scotten, Leora Farris, Helen Perry, Will Minford and Virgil Perry were visitors at the home of Margaret and Everett Spanger, Sunday afternoon.
The primary and intermediate rooms each had a valentine box Monday, but the grammar room and high school felt too dignified for such childish pastime. I wonder if they each had a birthday last week. Margaret's was Feb. 9th, but Will's was Feb. 12th, and was celebrated with much more splendor than Margaret's. People hung on legs and at Omaha they had a birthday celebration that evening at the auditorium. Will must be very proud.

TALKING GIRL
IMPROVES ROADS CANNOT
REDUCE WAGES

Doctor Finds Vertebrae in Spine Dislocated and Pinching Nerves Controlling Speech.

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 14.—Miriam Rubin, the eight-year-old "talking girl," who chattered and babbled almost continually for more than 2 1/2 hours, is improving today and physicians believe she is about cured of her strange malady. Recurrent attacks are expected, physicians said, but it is expected that a treatment has been found that will eventually affect a cure.

A very form of sedative known to leading physicians and neurologists of Waukegan and Chicago had been administered without result. Dr.
Paul Berger, an osteopath of Waukegan, was called in. Dr. Berger's examination revealed that the vertebrae in the child's spine had become dislocated and one of them was pinching the nerves that control the organs of speech.

Dr. Berger exerted pressure on the girl's spine and the vertebrae snapped back into place. Soon after Miriam dropped off to sleep and slept for more than an hour. After awakening she started talking again but soon fell off into another slumber.
Although she still talks incoherently at intervals, when awake, the girl's fever is receding and the nervous tension she had experienced for more than nine days has relaxed. Physicians reported today that her condition was rapidly approaching normal.

MEN NOT ALLOWED TO SPEED NIGHT IN CHURCH

New York, Feb. 13.—Three hundreds unemployed men were denied permission to spend the night in St.
Augustine's chapel of Trinity church, where they marched today after attending the services at St. Mark's chapel.

The rector consulted Bishop W. T.
Manning, who declared the Salvation Army and public lodging houses provided ample shelter and that the chapel sanitary arrangements made it unfit for sleeping. The men declined the rector's offer of free tickets entitling them to shelter at the Salvation Army hotel.

RAIL RATES OR- DERED BOOSTED

BY INTERSTATE COMMERCE COM-MISSION ON BOTH FREIGHT AND PASSENGER LINES

The Nebraska railroad rates are once more to stand a large sized boost that will mean that the people of the state must pay the sum of $3,500,000 per year if the ruling of the interstate commerce commission at Washington stands. At a previous hearing the freight rates were boosted 25 per cent and the passenger rate fixed at three cents per mile instead of the two cent fare that the Nebraska state law provides for. Under the new ruling the raise in freight rates will aggregate thirty-five per cent while the passenger rates will reach 3.6 cents per mile.

The Nebraska state railway commission and the office of the attorney general are preparing to resist the order and legal steps will be taken to do all possible to preserve the rights of the Nebraska rate making body to decide what shall and what shall not be charged in the state.

The railroads have filed suit in the federal district court to restrain the state commission from interfering with the rates ordered by the interstate commission, bringing the action in the name of the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroad company, seeking to prevent the stopping of the new rates that are to go in effect on March 22nd.

Trucks seek to have the two cent fare law and the statutes relating to commission orders declared unconstitutional and violative of the rights of the companies.

The attorneys for the railroad companies appeared to be of the opinion that the court that had jurisdiction retained complete jurisdiction in the controversy to the exclusion of the other court, but Judge Munger intimated that he believed the test was which court found that an order may be issued. The attorneys for the companies pointed out, however, that the action in the state supreme court covered only the matter of freight rates, and this left the federal court free to deal with the passenger rate phase of the controversy.

The stake in the two lawsuits is the same $3,500,000 a year. If the state commission wins the people who patronize the railroads will save that much; if the railroads win they gain that much. This sum represents the difference between the 35 per cent increase in passenger and freight rates that the interstate commerce commission has made on rates on shipments between states and which it has ordered shall be collected on all shipments made within the state of Nebraska and the 25 per cent increase in freight rates only that the state commission found to be all the increase entitled to in order to receive a reasonable return on the property in this state devoted to public use.

The case in the state court comes up Friday morning. The commission claims to have sole jurisdiction over the entire state, and that the federal commission has no power to order it or the carriers to place into effect any other rates than those it fixes.
