Help Edison

Take some Mood Change Charts home and make this experiment!

LET'S imagine you have just come home from shopping. You are tired and nervous. You step to the New Edison and put on an Edison RE-CREATION. Gradually the music soothes you. You forget fatigue and your "nerves" disappear. You feel refreshed and light-hearted.

Mr. Edison in his present great research is studying into the effects of music on the minds and moods of men.

Will you fill out a Mood Change

Chart, and do your bit for Mr. Edison's research?

Make the experiment in your own home. Come in. Let us give you a supply of Mood Change Charts. Have your family and your friends fill them out. They will find it more fun than Ouija.

If you don't own a New Edison, fill out a Chart in our store! Better yet, we will lend you a New Edison and a program of RE-CREATIONS so that you can give a Mood Change Party in your own home.

FRIENDS OF JUDGE ASK FOR A HEARING

Chicago Lawyers Come to Defense of Judge Welty Would Impeach—Say Discussion of Case is Contempt

Washington, Feb. 15.—Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis of Chicago may be asked to appear before the house judiciary committee to answer impeachment charges brought against him in the house by Representative Welty, Ohio.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Lawyers of Chicago today, coming to the defense of Judge K. M. Landis, who has been attacked in the United States senate by Senator Dial of South Carolina for his action in the case of an Ottawa, Ill., teller accused of embezzlement, raised the point that Senator Dial may be in contempt of court.

BILL ON HABITUAL CRIMINALS IS KILLED

The measure introduced in the legislature by members of the Douglas county delegation defining habitual criminals, was given a knockout by the house judiciary committee yesterday and disposes of some of the many useless, freak ideas of legislation that have been dumped on the present legislature.

This bill provided that persons violating city ordinances four times might be considered felons and liable to imprisonment in the state penitentiary. A third conviction would make a person to be considered a habitual criminal and liable to a life sentence.

JAPANESE GOLD FISH IN WEST NEBRASKA LAKE

Big Springs, Neb., Feb. 15.—Millions of goldfish were discovered last week in the big lake east of town. The fish came to the openings in the ice while it was being cut for commercial purposes, and a large number were caught. The fish are said to be of the Japanese fantail variety and weigh from several ounces to a pound.

JUDGE IS WALKER

The warm weather that has been causing so much trouble with the roads over the county is directly responsible for County Judge Beeson developing a record as a pedestrian as he has been compelled several times to walk from his country home "Clover Lodge", two miles west of the city, to the court house and the general judge is developing a real record as a long distance walker.

WOULD RESTORE LANDS TAKEN BY CARRANZA

Mexico City, Feb. 15.—All land owners in Mexico who were deprived of their property as a result of decrees issued during the Carranza administration, would be paid under the provisions of a bill submitted to the presidential staff today by President Obregon. Should the staff approve of the measure, it will be presented to congress.

Do you know you can roll 50 good cigarettes for 10cts from one bag of

RECORD BREAKING HOG

Auctioneer W. R. Young of this city has just completed three very successful sales in the county and at which one of the fine Hampshire hogs owned by Carl Schroeder topped the market. The three sales were held the last of the week and were all largely attended and exceptionally successful in every way and the prices secured demonstrated the ability of Mr. Young as an auctioneer.

DEPUTY SHERIFF SHOT DEAD BY BANDITS

IOWA OFFICIAL IS KILLED TRYING TO ARREST PAIR FOR ROBBERING GAMBLERS.

Shenandoah, Iowa, Feb. 12.—Deputy Sheriff Bert Patton of this place was shot and instantly killed shortly after 7:15 tonight at Bingham, six miles south of here, while attempting to arrest two men thought to be Arthur and Ben Hickman, brothers, living near Coon, after they are alleged to have held up fifteen participants of a craps game in the local Washash yards this afternoon and made away with more than $400.

J. P. Garrett, chief of police at this place, and W. H. Atwood, who lost $86 to the bandits, was freed up by the pair before they fled south along the Washash tracks.

The men stuck up the craps game in midafternoon, according to self-confessed participants. After relieving the players of their rolls by the display of two revolvers, they ran south toward Bingham.

HOUSE ACCEPTS NAVY REDUCTION

No Objection Raised to Section of Appropriation Bill Providing Funds for Only 100,000 Men.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—The house accepted without comment, the provision for reducing the enlisted strength of the navy from 143,000 to 100,000 men after July 1.

During consideration of the naval appropriation bill no objection was raised to the section providing funds sufficient only for 100,000 during the coming fiscal year. It remained in the bill intact.

Clauses providing for a reduction of the marine corps from approximately 27,000 to 20,000 and for an appropriation of $20,000,000 to carry on the 1916 building program during the next fiscal year probably will be reached Monday.

After Representative Green, republican, Iowa, ranking republican member on the ways and means committee, had urged reduction of armaments, Representative Garrett, democrat, Tennessee, for 10 minutes took the republican party to task for "scrapping the only definite disarmament program ever laid before the world—the league of nations."

BAFFLING SITUATIONS IN "HEARTS ARE TRUMPS"

What should a man do who lost his daughter in a card game, only to discover that she was secretly married to an undertaker, and his honor consequently snuffed at by the gamblers who won? This fascinating problem will be presented in "Hearts Are Trumps," the exciting picture that will be shown at the Parmole Theater tonight and tomorrow.

Certainly a queer situation which philosophy fans will go to see unraveled.

thy and foreclosing the mortgage of the manor. Lord Burford, the man who had won the card game, now pursues Lady Winifred's daughter, Flora. He disgraces her by stealing the half-finished portrait painted by her fiance, and having a nude figure attached to the head. She is trapped in a Swiss chalet by the old rogue. The climax comes with the unexpected action of a money-lender and the arrival of aid in a bitter snow storm. The picture is from the celebrated stage melodrama by Cecil Raleigh, and is a Metro special all-star production. Rex Ingram is the director. The cast includes Frank Brownlee, Norman Kennedy, Alice Terry and Francisca Billington.
