Some Interesting Corset News!

We have added to our wonderful line of "American Lady" Back Lace Corsets, a new distinctive Front Lace Corset—the "La Camille." After months of thorough investigation of the various high grade Front Lace Corsets, we finally decided that the "La Camille" Corset carried not only the best features, but an exceptionally good corset as to style, fit, workmanship and good materials. All these you expect in quality corsets. "La Camille" has them and besides, three features of its own, either one of which would make a corset famous.

- The Ventilo back eliminates pressure on the spine and allows ventilation, insuring longer life to the corset.
- The Lox-it non-tilting clasp does not tilt, gap or come unfastened. It is a perfect corset fastener.
- The Ventilo Front Shield prevents the lacers from scoring the flesh and insures greater range of adjustment.

The price range is from $3.00 to $5.00, and as a special introductory feature, we are introducing our model 2110, a $5.00 corset for $3.00.

As you no doubt know, the "American Lady" corset has added many wonderful improvements to their already excellent product, chief of which is the new "mighty-bone"—the bone that insures permanency of comfort and style, for it is impossible for the "mighty-bone" to become warped or bent in shape. Your "American Lady" Corset retains its original shape as long as the corset lasts. We have just received some excellent new models for all types of figures, prices ranging from $2.00 to $8.50.

We now feel that with a Corset Department carrying two such excellent lines, that the women and girls of Plattsouth and vicinity will find just what they want here, and on the strength of the excellent reputation that the "American Lady" and "La Camille" Corsets have won for themselves, we can confidentially assure you that you can make no mistake in making your selection here.

STATION AGENT WEDS

The wedding of C. E. Pettit, Missouri Pacific station agent of Louisville, and Miss Clara A. Unland, of Eagle, occurred at Omaha last Saturday. Mr. Pettit brought his bride to Louisville on Sunday and they have gone to housekeeping in furnished rooms at the home of Mrs. Charles Phelps on Railroad avenue.

The groom has been stationed here since the Missouri Pacific opened up their station this winter, and has already gained a wide acquaintance and made many friends in this vicinity. The bride is one of Eagle's most prominent and popular young ladies and Louisville people will give this splendid young couple a hearty welcome and will join the Courier in extending best wishes for many happy years together, filled with all success.—Louisville Courier.

CASS COUNTY YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED

Miss Pauline Smetana of This City and Elmer Lohnes of Cedar Creek Married in the Metropolis.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Two of the popular and well known young people of this portion of Cass county stole a march on their friends yesterday morning, when they hastened to Omaha and were married there at 11 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. parlors. The contracting parties were Miss Pauline Smetana of this city and Mr. Elmer Lohnes of Cedar Creek.

The wedding was a very quiet one, the only ones who were allowed in on the secret of the date of the wedding being the members of the families of the young people and the event came as a complete surprise to the host of guests in this part of the county. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smetana and has been reared to womanhood in this city. For some time she has been engaged in work at the E. G. Dovey & Son store and will retire from this position in the next two weeks to assume her charge in the new home. The groom is one of the industrious young farmers of near Cedar Creek and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lohnes and the young people will reside in the future on the farm which Mr. Lohnes is now engaged in handling.

The host of friends here will join in wishing the young people a long and very happy married life.

ELMWOOD

C. L. Creamer purchased on Wednesday the property belonging to the McCarty estate in East Elmwood. The consideration price was $1,250.

Wm. Schick, Jr., who has just recently undergone an operation for appendicitis, is able to be about again and was in town on Tuesday. He says that he is feeling pretty good and we believe him for he looks tip-top.

On Monday evening Vernon Clements, while indulging in a rather lively practice at basket ball at the club hall with some of the other boys had his nose broken. This was done by coming in contact with one of the other players with such force that the bones were broken. With that member patched up he is getting around as usual, but looks more like a scarecrow than the usual Bud.

On Thursday evening of last week Chas. Gerbeling, who worked for I. M. Liston, had the misfortune to fracture one of his ribs. Mr. Liston had just moved to his new building. In the room to the rear there is a cellar way. Charley had just said that they would have to be careful least any of them fall in the cellar way when the door was open. It was this thing he intended avoiding that actually happened. The door was left open and he fell in, not thinking of the opening and striking fracturing one of his ribs with the result that he was laid up for several days.

At the Bennett Lutheran church Thursday, February 19th, occurred the marriage of Ella Marie Rockenbauch to Mr. William Branson, of Elmwood. At 2 p. m., as the wedding march was being played by Miss Agnes Haach, the wedding party entered from the church above and took their places by the church altar. Rev. G. Haack was the official clergyman who tied the nuptial knot pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these estimable young people. After the ceremony, the wedding party and guests motored to the beautiful country home of the bride's parents, where a most bounteous wedding dinner was served followed by a reception to the bride and groom. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of pale blue silk crepe de chine with over-drape of white silk beaded georgette and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. The groom wore conventional black. The bridesmaids, the Misses Eda and Loretta Rockenbauch, sisters of the bride, wore dresses of pink silk crepe de chine with over-drape of white silk beaded georgette and carried pink carnations and ferns.

EAGLE Beacon

Chas. Renner, Jr., who has been quite ill with pneumonia for the past week or more, is reported as improving. A trained nurse has been in attendance.

Fred Muenchau was down from Elmwood on last Tuesday between trains looking after matters of business. Fred has so many friends in Eagle that it is difficult for him to catch a train out of town when he gets here.

Glenn Knapton and Tom Renner were up to Lincoln Tuesday evening. Glenn went up and enlisted in the National Guard, and Tom has been a member for some time.

Mrs. H. K. Frantz, who has been quite ill for the past three weeks, is improving nicely and hopes are entertained that she will be completely recovered soon. She was able to sit up at the table last Sunday.

Chas. Trumble, who has been out at Wild Horse, Colorado, for the past three months, came back to Eagle Wednesday afternoon and will remain a short time. He says he likes Colorado so well he wants to live there continuously; that the crop prospects are fine, and the winter has been remarkably mild.

At the band meeting last Saturday night further progress was made, though some of the boys were more interested in the basket ball game than in the preliminary meetings, and failed to turn out. A number of instruments were brought in and some of them were purchased, while others have been ordered or will be at the meeting held tonight.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price $1.25.

Announcement!

THE Special Order line for Spring and Summer, 1921, from the House of Kuppenheimer is ready for you. This means real service for the most exacting and hardest-to-fit customers, for the tailoring by Kuppenheimer is excelled by none, and the patterns—all virgin wool fabrics—are unusually fine.

Several numbers appear that have not been seen for several years—fresh, bright colored stripes, plaids and checks. Wear something individual, something the other fellow hasn't. The prices on these suits, made to your individual measure, fit guaranteed, start at $40, with the cream of the line at $50 to $60. The very best blue serge priced exceptionally close at $50 and $55.

Don't compare Kuppenheimer Tailor Made Garments with ordinary clothes. There's a difference. Order your Easter suit NOW—deliveries in 10 days to 2 weeks.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Mrs. Henry Hayflicker, of Waukegan, Kansas, arrived last week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Birdsall and family and other old friends in Cass county and she will also visit her daughter, Mrs. Charles Ahl and family of Broken Bow before returning home.

Chris Gauer, of near Cedar Creek, was in town Monday on his way to the J. R. Birdsall sale west of town. He reports his family all fairly well except his daughter, Mrs. Elmer Meisinger, who is now in the M. E. hospital in Omaha, where she was taken for treatment last Thursday after a few weeks' illness at home. Her many friends hope she will receive great benefit from the treatment and that it will not be necessary for her to undergo an operation which seems somewhat probable.

Little Ellen Loberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Loberg, who has had such a struggle with a severe attack of pneumonia this winter, was able to return home from the hospital in Omaha last week after having been there for three weeks. While there she underwent an operation and still must have the drainage tube in her side for a time. She suffered greatly and that she recovered at all is considered almost a miracle, but she is making rapid progress since coming home and her family hope she will soon be completely restored to health.

Mrs. J. J. Twiss received a message from Scottsbluff on Wednesday of last week announcing the death of her brother's widow, Mrs. Jesse Merrill, which occurred February 9. She left on the evening train from Omaha, accompanied by her son, Walter Twiss, of Plattsouth, who met her in Omaha. The deceased was formerly Miss Ella Bonton, of near Wabash, and her family were pioneer citizens of Cass county. She leaves one married daughter, Mrs. Irving Prickett, of Scottsbluff, Mrs. Twiss returned home on Tuesday of this week, and was met in Omaha by her daughter, Miss Marjorie Twiss, manager of the local telephone exchange. Her assistant, Miss Lydia Pautsch, had charge of the office during her absence.

Mrs. Bosworth was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Maddox returned home Sunday morning. Edith Reese was an Elmwood passenger Saturday evening. Warren Richard was a Lincoln passenger Monday morning. Howard Wilson was a passenger to Lincoln Saturday evening. Mrs. Van Every returned home from Lincoln Sunday morning. George Gregory and Joe Loren were Elmwood passengers Tuesday morning.

Ella Gerbeling was an Eagle passenger Saturday evening, returning Sunday morning. Parker Otis, Howard Wilson and Less Bosworth were Lincoln passengers Tuesday morning. Ira Bosworth was an Eagle passenger Tuesday evening, going up to see his new grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pool are the proud parents of a fine baby girl born Monday, February 14th. We are glad to report that Rev. Taylor is improving and hope that he will soon be able to be with us again.

Edna Wood and Orval Gerbeling were Elmwood passengers Thursday evening. They attended a Valentine party given at the Christian church. Edna Wood, Mary Smith and Orval Gerbeling were passengers to Elmwood Wednesday, where they attended the cantata given at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Rotger, of Otoe and Mrs. Shrader and son, Arthur, of Greeley, Kansas, were visitors at the Langhorst home between trains both Thursday and Saturday.

L. R. Stanley is back in his store, after being panned up a few weeks with small pox. He is now staying at the Warren Richard home as his family is still quarantined. Mary Smith was a passenger to

CITY IS QUIET TODAY AS SHOPMEN HAVE HOLIDAY

The general observance of today as Washington's birthday makes conditions very quiet, as the banks, court house, railroad shops and a number of places of business observed the day as a holiday and as a result there has not been a great deal of excitement to be found on the street, the damp and unfavorable weather conditions adding to the general lack of the usual grist of business.

Orval, Alice and Alele Gerbeling entertained the 7th and 8th grades Monday evening to a Valentine party. During the evening a Valentine box was opened and many beautiful valentines were distributed. The guests departed at a late hour declaring each had had a fine time.
