KNIGHTS AND LADIES MEETING

MEMBERS OF KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF SECURITY OBSERVE 25TH ANNIVERSARY

The members of the Knights and Ladies of Security lodge of this city held a very pleasant observance of their twenty-fifth anniversary last evening at the lodge rooms in the Woodman building and which was quite largely attended by the membership and including a large number of the charter members of the lodge, who are still residing in this city and vicinity.

The occasion was entirely informal and the enjoyment and pleasure in the evening of entertainment provided for them which consisted of several interesting numbers on the piano by Misses Edith and Helen Farley as well as recitations by Miss Fern Niel and Miss Jennie Windham, while Miss Honor Seybert also added to the delights of the occasion with several of her pleasing piano numbers and who also presided at the piano during the dance that followed.

Hon. R. B. Windham, president of the lodge, and also the other officers, gave a few appropriate remarks suited to the occasion and covering the work of the order in the nation and state and particularly of the Plattsmouth lodge which is in excellent condition and which at the present time has a membership of some 240 persons.

The Knights and Ladies of Security have in their twenty-five years of existence enjoyed remarkable success among the fraternal orders of the city and have always had a large membership but it is hoped during the coming year to make the membership even larger and the mark of the order has been set at 300 for the end of the year.

At the close of the evening the members of the party were treated to very enjoyable refreshments that were very much enjoyed by all of the large number present.

ZEDELER QUINTETTE TABOOS THE 'JAZZ'

Noted Organization Has Popularized Music of the Masters—At High School, Wednesday, March 9

The Zedeler Quintette, which is to appear here on the evening of Wednesday, March 9th, at the high school auditorium, is a company of brilliant artists which correctly interprets the music of the masters. It is the one organization now doing public work which has fearlessly eliminated all so-called popular music from its programs—in spite of the fact that the present day and age is the era of so-called "jazz."

Niccolli Zedeler, the director of this noted quintette, carried out an ideal in the organization of this company. He implicitly believed that the masses really love good music, and he has shown conclusively that the plain, common, everyday people really do appreciate the best in music. He has gathered a company of five very distinguished instrumentalists.

Mr. Zedeler, who formerly was cello soloist of the Stockholm Swedish Symphony Orchestra and later with the Bendix New York Symphony Orchestra, is one of the best known cellists of the day. He insists on a high standard in the programs of his company. A combination of violin, cello, piano and a specially constructed reed organ is used to obtain symphonic effects never before heard in the work of so small a company. Musical critics are constantly amazed with the volume and character of the numbers offered by the Zedelers. The members of this organization are in addition to Mr. Zedeler, Salvador Sala, the young Spanish violinist, leader Karon, a young Russian artist of the violin, Miss Ella Portune, soloist, and Miriam Zedeler, accompanist.

BASKET BALL GAMES

Last evening the city basketball league held two games in their scheduled series and which were fairly well attended by the fans of this sport.

The Morgans were victorious over the Eagles by the score of 54 to 14 while the Elks took the High School Reserves into camp by the score of 20 to 16. These games during the winter have attracted a great deal of attention and have had the effect of stimulating the basket ball interest over the city.

Mrs. Herman Fields of Council Bluffs, Ia., who has been here for the past week visiting with her mother and sister, Mrs. D. Kinnaman and Mrs. Herman Cartman, returned home this afternoon. Mrs. Fields reports her husband as being somewhat better but still unable to use his injured leg much. While here she renewed her subscription to the Journal.

Guy Crook of Falls City, representing the Monarch Engineering company, was in the city today looking after some matters with the county commissioners.

Col. J. B. Seybold of Murray, was in the city for a few hours today attending to some business matters and visiting with his friends.

Arthur Wetenkamp and bride, formerly Miss Nellie White, returned yesterday afternoon from their honeymoon.

Although Journal want-ads cost but little the results they bring are wonderful. Try them.

CLOSE NEBRASKA BANK YESTERDAY

Discovery of $20,000 Shortage Followed by Dismissal of Cashier of State Institution.

Norfolk, Neb., Feb. 28.—The Farmers State Bank of Hadar was closed today by order of the state department of trade and commerce, following the discovery Friday by State Bank Examiner Ducloux of an apparent shortage of $20,000.

Following the discovery, William Lefferdink, cashier, was dismissed by the bank officials. He left Friday noon for Omaha in an effort to raise the shortage, he said.

The bank has deposits of $140,000. August Braasch of Pierce is president. Hadar is four miles north of Norfolk, in Pierce county.

The department is investigating alleged extensive dealing in western land made by the cashier, Secretary Hart, of Lincoln, said.

Omaha bankers as yet say they have not seen William Lefferdink, dismissed cashier of the Farmers State Bank of Hadar, Neb., who with his bank closed and with an alleged shortage of $20,000 hanging over his head, is said to have announced that he was going to the metropolis to get the money.

Lefferdink kept a small account with the Stock Yards National bank, said F. E. Hovey, president of the bank. He has not seen Lefferdink, reported Mr. Hovey. "He has been doing business with us for a number of years, but for the last twelve months his securities have not met with our demands and we have practically ceased our relationship. At this time he has a small deposit, but not enough to take care of the obligation."

Attorney C. E. Tefft, James M. Teegarden, Nels Sogard and Peter Lund of Weeping Water, were in the city today for a few hours attending to some matters at the court house.

GETTING WORK ON BUILDING STARTED

Brick Masons Getting Preliminary Start on the Warra Building on Upper Main Street.

In the last two days there has been a great progress made in the preliminary work on the building that Jess F. Warra is putting up to replace the structure that was burned down on New Years night.

It has required some time to remove the wreckage and debris from the site of the building and also for the securing of the material that was necessary in the construction of the building, but since Monday the bricklayers have been on the job and have the first part of the foundation well under way.

The new building is to be erected under the supervision of Charles P. Richards, whose reputation as a builder is well known in the community and both Mr. Richards and Mr. Warra are busy on the final plans that will make the building one of the most attractive in the city. It is to consist of two stories and the basement and will be equipped in a thorough modern manner.

On the first floor of the building Mr. Warra will have his sale rooms for his stock of plumbing and electrical fixtures with the work room in the rear and which will be thoroughly up-to-date. The interior of the store will be finished in white tiling and make a very attractive appearance as well as being perfectly fireproof.

The second floor of the building will be occupied by John P. Sattler with his undertaking parlors and a specially constructed chapel will be installed where services may be held for the dead if desired and this will be furnished in the most modern manner. The remainder of the second floor will be devoted to the workroom of Mr. Sattler and storage.

The new building will have a frontage of twenty-two feet and extend back for 100 feet and will make one of the best buildings in the city when it is completed. The owner of the building is very anxious to have the structure completed as the present quarters are badly cramped and holds back much of the expansion of the stock.

EASTER CARDS AND NOVELTIES ARE HERE

The Journal Has a Most Complete Line of the Market's Best Offerings Awaiting You.

The stationery department of the Journal office has just placed on display one of the most complete lines of Easter novelties and cards that have been shown in the city in years and which embraces everything that could be desired in these lines. Special Easter baskets of all kinds, both plain and ornamental, beautiful engraved Easter cards of all kinds that convey the message of the season and paper novelties of every description can be found here. If you desire a remembrance for a friend or decorations for dinner parties or other post Easter events this is the headquarters for your needs. A call and an inspection of the line is most convincing.

Preaching at 11:15 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. ASK SUPREME COURT TO RELEASE HAYWOOD

Washington, D. C., Feb. 28.—The legal battle for the freedom of William D. Haywood and seventy-eight other members of the I. W. W. who were convicted in Chicago in 1918 of conspiracy to obstruct the war draft act, entered its final phase today with the filing of a petition asking the supreme court to review the trials. The petition was based on the contention that the search warrants used by the federal agents in obtaining most of the evidence against the defendants were invalid and that therefore the evidence was not legally available to the government.
