Why Colds are Dangerous

It is the serious diseases that colds lead to that makes them dangerous. They prepare the system for the reception and development of the germs of influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough and measles. You are much more likely to contract these diseases when you have a cold. For that reason you should get rid of every cold as quickly as possible. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will help you. It is widely known as a cure for bad colds.

FRED HAWKS-WORTH DIES IN OMAHA FRIDAY

PASSED AWAY LAST EVENING AT NICHOLAS SENN HOSPITAL FOLLOWING AN OPERATION.

Last evening the sad news was received in this city of the death of Fred W. Hawksworth, the youngest son of Mrs. D. Hawksworth of this city, at the Nicholas Senn hospital in Omaha, where he has been for the past week.

Mr. Hawksworth was taken last week with an acute attack of appendicitis and was taken to the hospital where an operation was performed on February 23rd for the removal of the affected appendix but from the start the case was recognized as a very critical one and the patient has failed to rally as was hoped for and his condition continued to grow more serious and last evening when he passed away shortly after 7 o'clock.

Fred W. Hawksworth was born in Plattsmouth forty years ago, and was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hawksworth, prominent residents of this city. He received his education in the schools in this city and later entered the state university at Lincoln, where he graduated and for the past years has been engaged in traveling on the road. Prior to his marriage Mr. Hawksworth made his home in this city, but on his marriage he removed to Lincoln, where he resided for a number of years, but for the past three years has lived in Omaha. To mourn his death here remains the wife and one child as well as the aged mother, Mrs. D. Hawksworth of this city, and three brothers and one sister, Frank Hawksworth of Denver, Joseph Hawksworth of Omaha, and David Hawksworth of Detroit, and Mrs. Mary Cook of Plattsmouth.

The death comes as a severe blow to the members of the family as it is the third time within a few brief months that death has entered the family circle and called their loved ones. Dr. E. W. Cook, a brother-in-law of the deceased and Harris Cook, a nephew, having passed away some three months ago.

Of a very congenial disposition disposition the deceased had made many friends in the city of his nativity and who will sincerely mourn his passing at this time while he was still in the full flush of manhood and while life was stretching forth its opportunities to him for the future years. To the bereaved wife and the members of the family the deepest sympathy of the entire community will be extended at this time.

There has been no funeral arrangements announced as yet pending the arrival of the brothers of Mr. Hawksworth and whether it will be held here or in Omaha has not been determined upon. It is expected, however, that the services will be from the home here Monday afternoon.

NOW ON DUTY WITH MARINES IN HAITI

Raymond Berger, Son of Mrs. Mary Berger of Nehawka, Serving With Forces in Dusky Republic.

One Cass county boy that is seeing of age enlisted last August in the Indies is Raymond Berger, son of Mrs. Mary Berger of Nehawka, and who is now serving with the U. S. Marines in keeping order in the island republic and maintaining the government that has been established in Haiti.

Raymond, who is nineteen years of age enlisted last August in the Marines at St. Louis and after a few days there was sent to Paris Island, off the port of Charleston, S. C., which is used as a training station for the marine corps. The outfit to which Raymond was attached left Paris Island on November 15th, headed for Haiti where they were ordered for service.

The young marine has written home some very interesting letters describing his trip to the tropic lands and which have proven very delightful to the relatives and friends. The ship on which Raymond was a passenger arrived at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, the great naval training station, on November 23rd and as the ship came into bay the boat was surrounded by large boat loads of the natives who were willing to dive for small coins that were thrown over by the marines from the transport and the natives who were selling fruit had them at prices that makes the northerner cavous, coconuts as large as your head brought 5c, oranges were six for a nickel, six apples for a nickel. At Porto Prince there were large numbers of the black boys who, attired in Garden of Eden costumes, dived for coins.

Port-au-Prince is a large city of 75,000 people with trolley lines and all the conveniences of an American or European city.

The marines with which Raymond is operating have just recently completed a long hike over the hills and valleys of the island and it was some strenuous trip for all members of the party.

Raymond is now getting ready to take up radio work at Port-au-Prince and by the time he has completed his two years of service will have reached a high degree of perfection.

Crew of Michigan Central Blamed for Loss of 37 Lives in Indiana Disaster, at Coroner's Inquest

Valparaiso, Ind., March 4.—William Long, engineer, and George Block, fireman, of the Michigan Central train struck by a New York Central train at Porter, Ind., Sunday night with a loss of 37 lives, were ordered held for trial on a charge of involuntary manslaughter by the coroner's jury.

The story of the engineer and fireman for the Michigan Central train was told officially today for the first time at the inquest.

These two men, who have been discharged by the Michigan Central as responsible for the disaster, issued a formal statement at the inquest. They charged the Michigan Central and New York Central railroads with responsibility for the wreck through permitting a faulty crossing system.

No grand jury action will be necessary, in view of the action taken by the coroner's jury. The verdict was returned after officials and witnesses had testified that all signals had been set against the Michigan Central train. The engineer and fireman, if convicted, face two to 14 years in prison.

Long and Block were released on bonds of $5,000 each. They probably will be brought to trial here within seven weeks.

They declared that when they termed the confusion in the signal tower when the two trains were seen to be approaching" was the cause of the collision. They asserted their train was given a clear track.

The statement, as given out by Attorney R. N. Smith of La Porte, Ind., who has been retained by them, also said:

"The crossing at Porter virtually is a death trap. The derailed on the Michigan Central is only 310 feet from the crossing. This does not act as a preventive of collisions."
