Protecting Your Family

Keeping the wolf from your door is often taken too figuratively. But it is not an idle joke, to be ridiculed or ignored.

To keep the wolf from your door requires weapons more powerful than implements of war. It requires a defense that cannot be bought or borrowed—it is gained through practice of thrift.

To save is to insure yourself and your family protection.

Every man owes himself and his family the protection of a savings account in a good substantial bank such as this one. There are other ways in which we can help you protect your family. Investigate.

Here They Come in Threes.

Three homes in the neighborhood are overjoyed, all because of the arrival via the stork route of two boys and a girl. The young lady arrived a few days ago at the home of Henry Vest and wife, who live south of Murray. The young man came to gladden the homes of Leslie Shradler and wife and O. C. Lloyd and wife. Everyone seems to be doing nicely and congratulations are extended to the parents of this trio of lusty youngsters, who are able to make themselves heard as well as seen.

Officers of Association

The permanent officers for the year of the Murray Library association are Mrs. G. M. Minford, president; Mrs. B. F. Brendel, vice president; and Mrs. J. H. Brendel, secretary-treasurer. The advisory board is composed of Mesdames H. C. Long, A. A. Young and L. H. Puls.

Another Excellent Supper

There will be another of those excellent suppers for which Murray is noted far and near, this coming Saturday night. This one will be in charge of Mrs. H. C. Long and all who know of her ability along that line will assuredly know that she will furnish a repast of generous proportions. This will be a general supper and chicken will be served as well as other things which appeal to the appetite. And speaking of suppers, we are glad to say that the one given last week netted the library association just $35 after all expenses were paid. Remember also, that everyone who gives five dollars for the benefit of the association will be honored by becoming a stockholder, and will be assisting in a very laudable work.

Bring in Library Books

Any one having a library book will please return it to the library at once, as the library association is reclassifying them and wants them all brought in so that they may be properly listed. As soon as the task of reclassifying is completed, they may be taken out again. Do not neglect this as it is imperative that the reclassifying be done at this time.

Has His Place "Dolled Up"

W. A. Scott, the popular caterer joining over the redecoration of their place of business, which work has just been completed by Phillip Lambert, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Scott. The interior has been painted a robin egg blue color, which lends a pleasant effect to the appearance of the place.

Former Murray Girl Weds

Announcement was received here a few days ago telling of the marriage of Miss Clara Barbara Churchill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Churchill of Holyoke, Colorado, to Mr. Charles Le Roy Jarvis. The ceremony took place on Saturday afternoon, February 12th and the young folks are making their home at Haxton, Colorado. The many friends of the parties here extend best wishes for a happy and useful married life.

Are Installing an Oil Station

Murray is getting right up-to-date in the way of modern conveniences. The latest of these is an oil station being installed by the Standard Oil company. A. E. Peterson and H. A. Evers, of Omaha, representing the above company are here looking after the work, being assisted by a number of local workmen. Two tanks of 200-gallon capacity each, one for kerosene and one for gasoline, will enable the company to keep a good supply of both fluids on hand at Murray and thus do away with having to haul them overland from Plattsouth.

Given Surprise Party Thursday

Coming home from a strenuous day spent at the Merchants' week festivities in Omaha last Thursday, W. H. Puls was somewhat weary and went home at an early hour, retiring for the night soon after his arrival home. Scarcely had he gone to bed when the telephone rang and Mrs. Puls announced that his brother Otto was at the store and wanted to get a set of harness which had been ordered for him.

Reluctantly Mr. Puls arose and dressed, going to the store and when he turned on the electric lights judge his consternation at finding the entire store filled with men and women who greeted him with good wishes and happiness, it being his 45th birthday. The assemblage adjourned to the hall above the store, where a royal feed being among the forms of entertainment. His brother failed, however, to take the harness home. The affair was very nicely planned and as well executed. Mr. Puls is highly gratified at the good feelings which were manifest in his behalf.

The Daughter Came to Stay

Joy was unbounded at the home of J. M. Vanhorn and wife southwest of Murray last Tuesday, when the brook of days, there came a bright little blue eyed baby girl to make her home with the fond mamma and proud father.

Revival Meetings a Success

The series of revival meetings that have been going on at the Christian church have been productive of much good in uniting the membership more closely together and will be reflected in increased attendance and greater co-operation.

Worth While Entertainment

Capt. W. G. Munson, of the University of Nebraska will give a two night program for the Community club Friday and Saturday nights, March 25th and 26th. This is the program that was billed a few weeks ago but was postponed on account of sickness.

Children over 7 and under 15, 25 cents. The first $25 goes to Mr. Munson and the remaining proceeds will be divided 50-50 with the Community club.
The object of this entertainment is to furnish a good program for our people. Mr. Munson comes highly recommended and it will be well worth while for us to make an effort to attend this program.

Library Supper

Mesdames G. M. Minford, John Farris, Joe Brown, Wm. Brown, Oliver Davis, Tom Tison, W. A. Scott, J. A. Scotten, T. S. Barrows and M. Bartlett helped out with the library supper last Saturday night, which was a great success. The price charged at these suppers is $1.25 to 25 cents and $55 was realized from this last one. Arrangements have been made to hold a supper each Saturday night for the next ten weeks, so make your plans to again eat supper in Murray, and thus aid the Library association, which is doing such a good work in our town. This supper was supervised by Mrs. Minford and the one next Saturday night will be in charge of Mrs. Long as chairman.

Last Sunday evening the pretty country home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Heil was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party, when the children of Mr. and Mrs. Heil came to help their father celebrate his 74th birth anniversary.
To say that Mr. Heil was surprised is putting it mildly, but he soon recovered and joined in the merriment. The evening was passed in music, games and social conversation. A large birthday cake decorated with seventy-four bright candles and which was baked by Mrs. John Heil, was presented to him by a granddaughter, Miss Elsie Heil.
