THE OPEN DOOR!

At this Bank the door to the officers' room is always open, and this, in a sense, is typical of the spirit which pervades the entire place. Austerity, that professional coldness which one sometimes connects with financial institutions, is forgotten here in the general desire of every officer to meet the people of this vicinity as fellow citizens and to serve their needs, regardless of whether they be little or large, with courtesy and consideration.

If we can serve you in any capacity do not let the relative smallness of your possessions prevent you from consulting us; rather let it encourage you to do so.

If you wish to open a savings account our facilities are at your command. Our advice and experience are yours to draw upon.

YOU'RE ALWAYS WELCOME HERE

Business is Good, Thank You!

We surely appreciate the excellent business that has been ours since we have been handling cream, butterfat, eggs, poultry and all kinds of produce. We are continuing to pay the highest cash prices. Call us on the telephone (No. 31) when you want to know the price of anything we handle. Again we thank you.

SMITH CREAM STATION,

UNION NEBRASKA

Mr. Louis Kreckler with his truck and Mr. Frank Glautzitz in Union last Monday.

R. M. Taylor, son of Mr. Taylor, was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday.

Miss Bernice Elin was a visitor for some Sunday at her home in Weeping Water, where she spent Easter with her parents.

Miss Grace Beckstead, one of the teachers in the Union schools, spent the Easter week at the home of her parents near Elwood.

Samuel Trauber was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday between trains, when he was looking after some business matters.

County Commissioner P. Harris, was a visitor in Plattsmouth Tuesday, where he met with the board of county commissioners.

Mr. Damer is doing some carpenter work at the home of Mr. G. McQuinn, making some wooden repairs to the roof for spring.

Mr. Albert Kerve and Frank Glautzitz will have charge of the motor race which is to work on the "D" street road between Union and Avoon.

Leonard Baskett, who is attending the state university, arrived home last Thursday evening and will remain a guest of his parents for the entire week.

Miss Angie McCarroll, who is teaching in the school at Syracuse, was a visitor at her home in Union for over Easter and was the guest of the home of her parents.

John A. Dougan and August Ost of near Newark, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Union last Monday morning, driving over in the car of Mr. Dougan.

Walter Anderson has a very sore hand which was injured while working the other day. The injured member is keeping him from his daily duties, but is now showing some signs of improvement.

Mr. Ray Franks, manager of the Frans Brothers Lumber yard at Union, says that business is showing some increase and while no large buildings are as yet being constructed, there has been many small jobs.

Misses Verna Harris and Edith Franks, who are employed at the Sheldon Manufacturing company of Nebraska, spent Easter at their respective homes in Union and returned to their work last Monday morning.

V. G. Schriener, of west of the village of Wyoming, was visiting in Union a short time last Monday, bringing a load of wheat to market and at the same time taking home with him some needed farm machinery.

A. L. Becker, who has been in the east for several days, returned last Saturday from a business trip to Chicago, where he made purchase of a large invoice of drygoods, which he is able to offer a very flattering price.

Miss Naomi Mauley, who is a student of the Wesleyan university at Lincoln, is spending a week at the home of her parents north of Union, on account of a vacation of that extent at the school where she is attending.

James Bordman, brother of Chas. Bordman, who has been making his home in Wyoming for some time, has returned to Union and will make his home here for the present and has moved into the house just vacated by Orville McQuinn.

Frank Glautzitz and family recently moved to Union and are making their home in the J. A. Talkington house. Mr. Glautzitz has accepted the position of driver of the truck on the mainline which is to have headquarters in Union.

Last Saturday afternoon W. A. Taylor and wife, accompanied by Mesdames Dan Lynn and John Ledgett, made a trip to Nebraska City in the car of Mr. Taylor, where they visited with friends, and looked after some business matters as well.

ECONOMY!

YOU SHOULD USE ECONOMY AS NEVER BEFORE—WHY?

As all products decline, especially farm products, it will be necessary that nothing be wasted if your average income is to be maintained.

Therefore you should provide barns and sheds for the stock and machinery.

The big declines in Lumber and Paint make it possible for you to "Build Now" very economically.

How about your own comfort and that of your family?

A new home would bring joy supreme to all concerned. Let us furnish you estimates and price.

We appreciate your patronage.

UNION NEBRASKA

Luther Mead and son Frank were busy last Monday constructing a rack on their truck for the purpose of handling hods to the market. Mr. Mead also had the Journal man send him the paper, which will make regular visits at his home in the future.

Messrs. Robert Roddy and C. Gainly, both students in the Creighton medical college, were the guests at the home of the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roddy, east of Union and returned to their studies at Omaha on the train last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Bauer, who has been sick at her home for some time past, and whose ill health has been reported in these columns, is reported as being much improved at this writing and it is expected that in a short time she will be able to be up and around again.

There will be services at both the Methodist and Baptist churches next Sunday at the usual hours, both morning and evening. The Bible schools and auxiliary services of both churches will also be held and those not worshipping elsewhere are invited to other church services.

Mr. and Mrs. John Banning of Lindsay, Neb., arrived in Union last week, called here on account of the illness of the sister of the former, Miss Carrie Banning, who has not been enjoying the best of health for some time and has been rather seriously ill for some time past.

W. H. Marks departed last Friday for Lincoln, where he was looking after some business matters and returning in the evening to Weeping Water, where he was joined by Mrs. Marks and they remained for a visit at the home of Mr. Marks' brother, George M. Marks and family.

Mrs. A. W. Finney and children, who have been visiting in Union for the past few days, left Monday afternoon for their home in Auburn, being accompanied by Mrs. Fred Berne, at whose home they visited part of the time while here. Mr. Finney is working for the Missouri Pacific near Plattsmouth.

Last Sunday, L. G. Todd and family drove to Louisville, where they attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Wood, mother of George and Clifford Wood of that place, which had been arranged to have been held on Saturday, but on account of the unfavorable weather the interment had been postponed until Sunday.

Forrest Franks and wife departed last Friday for Burlington, Colo., where they will make their home in the future and where they will engage in farming. The best wishes of their host of friends and that of the Journal go with them to their new home in the west. We are hoping that they may both have happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Ed Shaw, who has been visiting at the home of C. H. Puller of Nevada, Mo., returned home last Friday and went to work at his old position at the Missouri Pacific station and has to say of the place where he was visiting, that the spring has really come there, and that the peach and all fruit trees are out in bloom and farming is going ahead nicely.

Doing a Nice Business

H. A. Smith, the new produce dealer, is having a very nice business at this time and is distributing a large amount of money among the farming community and is paying the top price for what he gets. Last Monday he delivered a mixed truck load of poultry, cream and eggs to the Omaha dealers.

Did Not Know His Friend

Through Jack Neizel of Plattsmouth, Thomas Murphy, coming from Eagle City, was informed of the fact of Nels Martin living in Union and called on his old friend whom he had known for a long term of years. When Mr. Murphy called upon Mr. Martin the latter did not know his friend and some fun was had with the good natured caterer on that account.

Are Building a Barn

With lumber which was bought at the reduced prices at the yard of Frans Brothers, Elmer Withrow is having a barn constructed on the home place a few miles out of Union. Mr. W. L. Crawford is doing the work. The price of lumber has been placed where the farmer can now go ahead with the needed building.

Motor Cycle Vaulted Road

One day last week while Carl and Kemper Franks were riding a motor cycle along the road south of town, the driver lost control of the machine and consequently it ran in the ditch, completely wrecking it. The boys were real lucky and escaped without injury.

Was His Busy Day

F. H. McCarthy, who is a jolly old soul, is kept busy these days receiving grain. Last Monday he had to look after the storing of four different kinds of grain. Bert Everett brought rye, while corn was delivered by Charles Dysart, wheat by Mr. V. C. Schriener, and oats by the reater on the farm of Jack Chalfant. With all it was a very busy day.

Want a Base Ball League

Last week Manley was expressing itself as desirous of having formed a base ball league to include the teams of the county, and now comes Union expressing the same desire. With Newark already organized and working and a probability of Louisville getting in and an assurance that Greenwood will have an excellent team, and Weeping Water already to play ball, and Murdoch, Eagle and Avoon all with the fever, and Plattsmouth waiting for the collection of the other clubs, it does not look unfavorable for the consummation of the much desired object.

The way is to just get after the proposition and the conclusion of the work of organizing can soon be accomplished.

Excellent Services Sunday

At the Methodist church last Sunday was had two very interesting services delivered by the district superintendent, the Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick, of Omaha. There was a full complement of services by the auxiliaries of the church. The Rev. R. C. Bohman of Council Bluffs, was also in attendance and in company with Mr. W. H. Foster and they visited at Wyoming where a basket picnic dinner in the church building had been prepared following which the district superintendent delivered an address and served communion. The district superintendent will conduct quarterly conferences at the Methodist church of Plattsmouth. At the morning service in Union there was an Easter anthem sung by the chorus, and in the evening a solo by the quartette, all of which were enjoyed.

Popular Young People Wed

Last Wednesday at the home of the mother of the groom, Mr. John Franks of Union, and Miss Lena Klarens, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Nicholas Klarens and wife of Newark, were united in marriage by the Rev. Samuel Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church of Union. The young folks are very extensively and popularly known by hosts of friends in both communities. Mr. John Franks is engaged in business in Union and for the present the young people will make their home here. Until they can arrange for a home in which to dwell they are staying at the home of the groom's mother.

The Journal joins with their host of friends in wishing them a most pleasant and profitable journey through life and that they may have friends and happiness attendant.

Union Schools Well Conducted

A representative of the Journal made a visit at the Union schools during this week and found the work of instructing the youth of this city and community going forward without a hitch and making excellent progress. The institution which is under the charge of Superintendent C. E. Sawyer, has some hundred and thirty students who are all interested in the work of acquiring an education and have abundant facilities for this work. Miss Florence Reed, who is principal, has charge of English and history and has much interest in the scholars in the work. Miss Mable Johnston has mathematics and science and with the work of the superintendent comprises the high school. Miss Grace Bogenreif has charge of the seventh and eighth grades, while Miss Eva Sackley has the fifth and sixth grades, Miss Bonnie Ellis the third and fourth grade, while Miss Nettie McCarrall has the first and second, making the total of the faculty, and an excellent compliment of instructor. The work of the school is going along nicely and the students making excellent progress.

Were Married at Lincoln

Last week Mr. C. S. Stottler and Mrs. Carrie Shepherd, who had been in the car of Mr. Stottler and turning the car west on O street, soon found them entering the city of Lincoln where they secured a permit to wed, and were made man and wife. They returned to surprise their friends here and sure enough it was indeed a surprise, for many failed to give credence to the rumor, but were convinced only after repeated avowal of the fact. They have gone to housekeeping at the home of Mr. Carey S. Stottler, while the other home has been rented to the son of Mrs. Stottler. The friends of the newly wed are extending congratulations and many of their friends gathered last Monday night and gave the happy couple a grand old time serenade. They will make their home east of Union and will engage in farming.

Returned from Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robb and their little daughter Donnelly, who have been at the institute at Kirksville, Mo., where the little one underwent an operation some weeks ago, returned home last week and report some improvement in the condition of the daughter, which hopes are entertained will eventually entirely recover her wanted health.

Union School Notes

Second Primary Room— Louise Foster and Helen Warden were absent Monday on account of illness. This is examination week in our room. Everybody is busy reviewing. Intermediate Room— Blanche Shotts has been absent the past week on account of illness. Roy Garrens has been absent this week. Margaret and Frank Chase are new pupils in the 6th grade. High School Items— A spelling match was held last Monday morning between twelve representatives from each of the high school and 7th and 8th grade rooms. Pearl Eaton was the final victor. Mrs. Alma Dennis visited the high school on Monday morning. Our new song books have arrived. Fern Deles Bernier, Winona Dysart and Edna Franks took the "teacher's exams" in Plattsmouth on Saturday. Florence Thacker was absent Thursday morning. Mr. Munson visited school on Friday afternoon and gave a very humorous and interesting talk. This has been examination week and the students are now patiently waiting the return of the dreaded papers.

Economy the Watch Word!

Yes, it is true economy to purchase your implements of the Farmers Co-Operative Elevator company. We purchased an exceedingly good line of John Deere farming implements some time ago in anticipation of this year's needs and can save you money on them.

We carry a good line of horse drawn implements, which we are offering at a very narrow margin on account of the prevailing high prices. We can supply you needs in plows, (walking and riding) harrows, discs, cultivators and listers.

If you want power machinery we can also furnish it, as well as home power plants. Let us know your wants—we'll do the rest.
