Take your own time in doing things if you wish, but don't take someone else's.

There are hundreds who believe a dollar in the pocket is worth two on the wife's head.

The proudest boast of the modern man, is that he can take prohibition or leave it alone.

The Bolshevik will soon be obliged to go to work or starve, and eventually means the end of Bolshevism.

It is now a crime to smoke in public in Utah. And this is the state that used to stand for polygamy!

Wool is getting so cheap that it will not be long until wolves are again appearing in sheep's clothing.

A new York poet has just married an heiress worth $100,000.00. And yet some folks say poets are impractical.

Increased charges for divorces add an appendix to high cost of living—town, the high cost of living separately.

Poor Eliza would have had a hard time making her escape across the Ohio river after such a mild winter as this.

Among the elements of unrest in Europe probably should be numbered the ex-emperors and ex-kings loose on parole.

Former President Taft called at the White house to sniff again the republican atmosphere in that storied structure.

A statistician has figured it out that America's tobacco bill would spring-and-summer-hat the whole world of women!

Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, is taking boxing lessons. Aha! This indicates an ambition to become president!

Queen Mary of Rumania, is coming to America to "see the cowboys and Indians." Boy, page Bill Hart and dig up a redskin some place!

Industrial peace seems almost as slow of realization as political peace between the nations. Has anybody thought of a league of industries?

When the book reviewers get through with him, Author Hohenzollern will think that the Allies have been relatively considerate.

Modern investigators say the story that the Puritans burning witches in New England is false—they never burned any witches. Then how come there aren't any witches there now? Answer us that!

Germany asks for the sympathy of the world. Germany ought to know that nobody sympathizes with the fellow who has a horde of bill collectors on his trail.

An apple blossom blighted in March is really no worse than an apple rotting on the ground in August, but the former always draws more editorial tears.

There are those who are opposed to a bigger navy, and they are fooled," says young Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy. Sounds like the old man.

The allies are busy drawing up a new set of penalties to be inflicted on Germany, which reminds that the world hasn't had any report yet on the practical results of the original set.

Anonymous writer in the Saturday Evening Post—(Mildoon?)—discussing physical fitness, says no man may hope to win any championships after 40. Respectfully submitted to Messrs. Dempsey and Carpenter.

The dues of the members of the league of nations have been paid in, with but two or three minor exceptions. It is reported from Geneva. It is understandable now why the secretariat is convinced the league is functioning perfectly.

That religious organization down in Mexico which sacrifices a few of its members by armifixion Easter, is described as "a fast disappearing sect." It's pretty hard for a stern religion like that to grow very rapidly without free love or some equal inducement.

Hope is the mother of disappointment.

Why try to shine shoes if you lack polish?

New York collected $21,259,640 in inheritance taxes last year.

Civilization has too much unfinished business on its hands.

Many a poor and humble family wouldn't change places with the Stillmans.

Where autocracy was strongest the fear of Bolshevism is most acute.

Champaigne cured a Denver man of hiccoughs. The same thing can start them. Extremes meet.

More than 800,000 women are employed in scientific and industrial pursuits in the United States.

Instead of worrying about foreign trade, business men might better get busy on the domestic situation.

Boarding houses are necessary evils intended to convince bachelors that they should have homes of their own.

The average farm wage in 1920, according to the bureau of crop estimates, was $42.89 a month with board.

Many diseases are spread by kissing, says an expert. Undoubtedly it is the primary cause of the acute housing.

A British sociologist says women are more economical than men. Wait until he gets the bill for his wife's Easter hat.

Some of the revenueurs are developing self-control, being able, on smelling home hooch, to raid it or let it alone.

It is a sad, sad thing for all of us that spring fever always attacks the productive worker and never, never affects the busy little agitators.

It doesn't take much to create excitement. For instance, you can stir up a whole lot of it by spilling a dish of tomatoes on the table cloth.

Harding has worn Wilson's shoes long enough to have calloused places all over his feet. And the longer he wears them the larger they will seem.

Our war with Germany is still on, and as the boys used to say, it's the only one we have, but it has never been the same since the armistice spoiled it.

Germany asks for the sympathy of the world. Germany ought to know that nobody sympathizes with the fellow who has a horde of bill collectors on his trail.

Rev. Scott returned on Monday from Chandler, Oklahoma, where he had been filling his new charge. He will remain here for a short time and then he and his family will move to that place.

On Tuesday Charles Stout and Robert Wilkes loaded a car and will ship to Canada, where they have land and will farm. They shipped there once before but did not remain for some reason. They have now secured different pieces of land.

A fine round baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Smith on Monday, March 25, 1921. The young man is a lusty fellow and Bryan is stepping pretty high. Congratulations are extended to the parents because of the happy event.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pentimian, who have had the measles, are getting along nicely now. It is reported that Less Shepard, who works for Mr. Pentimian is now sick with measles. The two children of Charles Fleischman are also just recovering from the measles.

One day last week a Henry Gerbeling was feeding his hogs he walked ahead with the grain and in some way the hogs became frightened and started to run one of the large ones colliding with him, hitting him a good one on the right leg which turned him over, almost resulting in a flip-top. At a result he was laid up for a few days with a lame leg.

On the early train Mr. Cleve, a banker of Nebraska City, came up to Elmwood Tuesday morning and engaged E. T. Comer to put down a well on one of his farms near Wyoming. There was some lousy work. O. M. King was employed and with his large Patriot truck he took the well machine and entire outfit to the farm that morning to commence work immediately.

Last week marked the 52nd anniversary of Mr. John L. Wood, Sr., upon coming to the state of Nebraska. Mr. Wood has seen a good many changes in the state since that time and in the meantime has acquired some eighty rood land lying between this place and Alvo. In a conversation with him last Friday he said that he was past seventy years of age and he asked him why he did not spend the winter in Florida this year and he said that he sort of had the premonition that it was going to be a warm winter this year and decided to stay at home. He has enjoyed the winter and says that he has gained in weight and is feeling fine. Mr. Wood is one of our good substantial pioneers and citizens and we are always glad to have a chance to visit with him for he always has something interesting to say and talk about.

THE PRICE OF CLOTHES

The price of our dry cleaning cuts down the price of clothes. Dainty Dorothy says that she has found out that we take most excellent care of the garments entrusted to us and that our charges should make friends for this house. Our dyeing proves satisfactory, as we use the latest approved methods and the best dyes.
