presence of mind of Mrs. Davis to quickly speed the message of danger is highly commendable. Although the country people did not get in until the blaze had been extinguished, there is a feeling of such gratefulness on the part of the town people for their coming, as it looked like a very serious conflagration might result at the time the alarm was given.

Nehawka's First Election
Nehawka's first election came off last Tuesday according to schedule. It will be remembered that the town was only incorporated a few months ago and that at the time of incorporation the county commissioners appointed a village board to look after the affairs of the town until the time of holding the election. There were two tickets in the field, which looked to hold the town in check and set them out to the polls. For members of the village board men from both tickets were elected, the successful five being V. P. Sheldon, F. P. Sheldon, J. W. Magney, W. S. Norris and J. H. Palmer. In the hands of these men will be entrusted the control of town affairs, and it is certain good selections have been made. The pool hall question was another matter that helped to arouse interest in the election. When the votes had been counted, it was found 71 had voted for Healding such a place of amusement and 63 for the pool hall. This gave a bare majority of 8 in favor of the proposition and the town board will act accordingly. With the narrow margin, the proprietors will be placed on their honor to conduct the best regulated place possible. By the way, the manner in which this place has been conducted in the past, leaves no cause for complaint by any one other than those who are opposed to pool halls altogether, for orderliness and strict observance of the law has been maintained at all times, and it looks as though the past efficient management will be continued.

Give Friends Royal Welcome
W. E. Lewis and wife, who formerly lived in this community, but who have for the past twelve years resided near Coleridge, in the northern part of the state, returned to again make their home near Nehawka a short time since, and on last Sunday a number of their friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Lewis to give them a most hearty welcome. The evening was spent in enjoyable manner with games, music and song. At a late hour the pleasures of the evening were heightened by a most magnificent feast, which had been prepared and brought along by the excellent housewives. Following the feast, the members of the party reluctantly took their departure, all feeling that a most enjoyable evening had been spent. Those present were A. G. Murdock and family, A. G. Crusey and family, C. Peck, wife and two children, Messrs. and Mrs. James Glen and Glen Kloden and families, Thomas Tison and Jack Douglas and wives, Will Troop and family, Jacob Smith and Frank Marler and their wives, Messrs and Mesdames Frank Hill, John Lloyd, John Davis and J. O. Quillen and families. Miss Ella Lobnes and Grace Bogenrich, Mrs. D. C. Braden and Mrs. Joseph Cook, Will Bruner and Paul Murdock.

Were Married in Plattsmouth
Robert Troop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will O. Troop and Miss Ella Lobnes, daughter of J. J. Lobnes, were united in matrimony last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. H. G. McClintock of the Presbyterian church at the county seat, officiating. The young people left for a wedding trip of a few days before settling down on the farm north of town. They are both well and favorably known by a large circle of Nehawka acquaintances whom the Journal is pleased to join in extending best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Will Have Some Apples
In talking with E. M. Pollard, the Nehawka orchardist, regarding the prospect of the late freeze, we learned that while some of the summer varieties of apples have suffered much damage and the Johnathans were also nipped to a considerable extent, the harrier and later maturing fruit is still safe and should the conditions remain favorable through the growing and maturing season, there will still be an opportunity to harvest a considerable apple crop this fall.

Celebrate Two Birthdays
Mrs. E. G. Hansen gave an elegant birthday reception for her husband, Mr. Shumaker, who had attained his 52nd year and who shared the honors of the occasion with Mr. Nicholas Opp, whose 65th milestone had been reached at the same time. The reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hansen on last Sunday and a large number of friends were present to enjoy the merry occasion. A most sumptuous supper was served and all those present showered congratulations and best wishes on the guests of honor. Those present were Mr. Shumaker and wife, Mr. Opp and wife, F. A. Bosleker, wife and daughter, Miss Helen, Ed Gansner and wife of Plattsmouth, Mrs. W. J. Philipoff and son Howard, Wm. Hunter wife and two daughters, Helen and Marie, of Plattsmouth, Jacob Hill, wife and daughter Catherine and son Arthur, William Obernattel Miss Nellie Dodds, F. A. Hansen and family, Clark Taylor, George Pollard, Earl and Ralph Opp, Wm. Peters, wife and daughters Mathilda and Edith and son Tim, Fred Hill, wife and son Henry and Harley Puls of Murray.

Received Severe Injury
Last Saturday while corn chaffing was in progress at the home of A. G. Murdock, and during an interval while the workers were waiting for a wagon to return to haul the grain, the younger ones of the crowd were studying up "head stunts" and some of them had stretched themselves over two wires across the inside of the crib, holding their bodies taut in the form of an arch. Mr. Kettling attempted to assist one who had slipped from the support allowing him to fall to the bottom of the crib and as a result he was quite severely injured, being unable to work for several days. He is now improving, although he still feels the effects of his experience.

Judged Stock Last Week
The team selected from the agricultural class of the Nehawka consolidated schools, went to Lincoln last week to participate in the stock judging contest at the state farm. Members of the team included Fred Griffin, Ralph Kramer and Leonard Carter, and they were accompanied by Supt. H. E. Paine. Teams from twenty-four high schools were entered in the contest, the York team winning first honors, while the Nehawka team were graded seventh in the list.

Making the Business Go
H. M. Griffin who took hold of the hotel and restaurant some weeks ago, is making the place very popular with the traveling public as well as an excellent place for the farmers to eat. The village of Nehawka has needed a good hotel for a long time and it would be a fine thing if a building adequate could be secured for such a business. However, Mr. Griffin is making the best of the circumstances and providing the public with good hotel accommodations.

Uncle Malcolm Pollard Poorly
Uncle Malcolm Pollard, who some time ago fell breaking one of his hip bones, is still confined to his bed. On account of his advancing years he is not able to overcome the effects of his fall although he is receiving the best of care, both medical attention and nursing. The many friends of this splendid old gentleman are hopeful he may recover his health and get out to enjoy the fine spring weather in the near future.

Gave Friend a Surprise
Surprises seem to be the order of the day and no one could be expected that they are surprises. The many young boy friends, whom Miss Creamer of the Bank of Nehawka organized into a jolly company, called on Miss Genevieve Rough one night last week, where a very pleasant evening was spent. Miss Rough, who formerly attended school at Maple Grove, is now attending the college at Crete and was home for the Easter vacation at the time. The surprise was cleverly worked out and the young ladies enjoyed themselves with games and music as well as a splendid luncheon which was served near the conclusion of the pleasant evening.

Appreciates Confidence
In the recent election where the people have had abundant opportunity to say whether or not they desire an amusement parlor in Nehawka, there has been expressed approbation of the manner in which we have conducted our pool hall and we wish to thank everyone for this expression of confidence and assure you that it will be our aim to always conduct the place in the best possible manner. We cordially invite anyone to come in at any time and investigate for themselves any rumors which may be circulated as to our manner of conducting the business.

B. O. Tucker, manager of the Farmers elevator, has been shipping considerable wheat during the past few weeks and reports the price is getting lower each week. Baseball Season Opened
The baseball season is now on. A game was played Sunday between the local team and the Eagles team of Nebraska City. The earliest of our report prevents giving details of the game scheduled for next Sunday with the team from Wabash, which will also be played on the local lot, and which promises to be evenly matched and hard contested. This is open season for baseball fans. Let's see you out next Sunday rooting for the home boys.

Nehawka Has a Fire
Nehawka experienced a near serious conflagration at an early hour Tuesday morning, caused by the contact of some electric light wires with the tin roof of the J. M. Stone Stone building occupied by the post-office. The wires had become stripped of their insulation and the electric spark through the tin, setting up intense heat sufficient to ignite the sheathing underneath. Had it not been for the fact that Morris Pollard occupies the rear rooms as being apartments, the building would have been a mass of flames before discovered. As it was, he was awakened by a bit of falling plaster and smelling smoke, hastened to turn in the alarm. Mrs. Lucile Davis, the telephone operator on duty, called the town and surrounding country people and in a short time a large number were present at the scene. The church bell was also rung. On the arrival of the first ones at the scene, the shorted light wires were cut and a bucket brigade formed to extinguish the blaze that would have soon gained great headway had it not been effectively checked. The strong wind that was blowing would have carried the fire to the store of F. P. Sheldon and from there it might have spread to other buildings with most disastrous results and the
