How many pigs have you lost already this spring because you didn't have a good place for them? You didn't think you would need it, but you did.

THINK!

If you will allow yourself to think, you will soon decide you are losing big money trying to save a little. Think it over.

Through the efforts of the Rev. Samuel Miller, there has been aroused an interest in the Boy Scout movement, some twenty-two of the boys of Union and near here taking part in the movement. The Rev. Miller has been selected as the scout master, while Halls Banning has been chosen as assistant.

Mrs. Mary Davis of Union, has not been feeling very well and his been so poorly that her daughter, Mrs. Mable Reynolds, has been compelled to remain home from her work at the Farmers store to look after and care for her mother. On account of the severe illness of Mrs. Pearl Wright of Anthony, Kansas, who is a niece of Mrs. Clara Davis, she and Mr. W. C. Carraber departed for that place last Thursday, where they have been remaining since, on account of her prolonged illness. Just how the lady is getting along is not known at present.

The contest which is being staged at the Baptist Sunday school, is being felt in the great increase of the attendance and the manner of working of those who are members of the school. For a long time there has been no regular minister, and the attendance at the school had considerably diminished, and from as low as twenty-five members which was the attendance during the later winter, the attendance has now been augmented to nearly a hundred, and ten interest still growing.

Ladies Enjoy Pleasant Time. The Ladies Missionary society of the Baptist church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roy Gerking, where they had a most splendid time. The ladies looked after the business matters of the society, then they had a most enjoyable program which was led by Mrs. Elizabeth Eaton, following a season of sociability, later at the closing of a very pleasant afternoon, they were refreshed by a most delightful luncheon, which all appreciated and were loud in their praise of Mrs. Gerking as an entertainer.

W. C. T. U. Ladies Give Meetings Last Sunday evening at the Baptist church the ladies of the Wo-

Purchases Historic Safe. The safe which was blown at the office of McCarthy and Sturm in the elevator some years ago and was thrown out by the side of the building, became the property of G. S. Upton in a trade and he attempted to take the bit of history to his home northwest of Union, a short time ago, which resulted in the breaking of his wagon. Speaking of the safe, it was first used in the office of the county treasurer at Plattsmouth some sixty years since and later was in the possession of some of the citizens of Plattsmouth for some time and later was brought to Union where it served the purpose of a strong box for a number of firms before it became the property of Messrs. McCarthy and Sturm and later, was consigned to the waiting list, remaining such until in the course of business it became the property of Mr. Upton.

Lozes First Home Game. Nehawka base ball fans and players also came in numbers last Sunday to the quiet city of Union, so peacefully nesting on the bosom of the valley of the Weeping Water, and arranging her warriors, gave challenge to the ball players of Union who picked up the gauntlet, only to find in it the mailed fist, for in it was defeat to the Union boys. The game which was played was a fine one from the beginning and showed at the end Nehawka ten runs, while the unaccountable boys of Union had nine.

The following is a list of the players and the places played by the Union team: R. Davis, left; Earl Hathaway, center; B. Wolfe, short; Earl Wolf, second; Reuben Eaton, center; Bob Eaton, pitcher; John Hoback, first; Clark, right, and Crawford, third.

Nehawka line up was: Kremilt, catcher; Rutledge, left; Mason, second; G. Johnson, pitcher; A. Johnson, first; A. Whiteman, right; and Leland Hodge, center. The ump was Thomas Mason, Sr., and Geo. J. Hungerford.

Will Move From Nebraska. Robert Eaton, who has done such heroic work for the Union ball team and has been the pitcher for so long, will move from his present home to a farm near Percival Iowa, where he will be employed by Mr. T. J. Sheldon on a farm. The boys here will miss his good work and genial disposition and popularity, but this is the way of the world.

Union Postoffice Robbed. Again the robbers have invaded the sacred precinct of Union, and have robbed for the second time the postoffice of Union, and got away with it this far. The entrance was made through a rear window of the room in which the office was kept and some $28 in stamps was taken. They then went to the cigar case and helped themselves to cigarettes and also candy, to the amount of about seven dollars, making a total of thirty-five dollars. The stamp books had been kept in a service box in the office and were not in the safe. This entails a loss on the part of the postmistress, which if they had been in the safe, and if were blown open, the government would have had to lose the same.

They wished Mrs. Garrens a most joyous journey through the years to come and as happy a time was had last Saturday evening. Those present to participate in the pleasant

Security Owners' Representative Believes All Viewpoints Should be Carefully Considered. New York, April 13.—Haley Fiske, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, and a member of the executive committee of the National Association of Owners of Railway Securities, informed A. H. Smith, president of the New York Central railroad, in a letter today that some railroads are making a mistake in their attitude toward labor. It was in reply to Mr. Smith's letter to S. Davies Warfield, president of the association, taking exception to the position of the association's executive committee in conferring with representatives of railroad employees.

"Your assumption," Mr. Fiske wrote, "that in seeking a conference with the labor representatives we were pretending to represent you or your board was quite unwarranted. We frankly put our real position before these organizations and the public. We think the truculent attitude of some railroad administrators toward the operatives and the unions a great mistake which may lead to disaster, and that it is time that all concerned should show some conciliatory disposition, at least to the extent of endeavoring to get the point of view of labor, and to seek some method of negotiation to end the present impasse."

Mr. Fiske stated that the Metropolitan Insurance company's financed interest in the New York Central railroad amounts to $22,000,000.

"Interest in your company is a vital one," he said. "It is very disturbing to read that you are desiring to ignore this interest. It is even more disturbing to find yourself and the board regret any action on our part to protect our interests."

"You are objecting, if you will pardon us for saying so, in an offensive, not to say impertinent way, to our endeavors to protect our own investments. We feel that we had a right to ask co-operation and help rather than opposition."

Locking After Starting a Paper. Geo. J. Hungerford of Scioti, was a visitor in Union for two days, coming with a view of establishing a paper for the town, and was also a visitor in Nehawka, Union, whenever one put up a paper worth the while, has always given the project a liberal support, but having been a city where the question of whether the venture would be one worth while or not, would probably have to be convinced that there was something in the matter before they took a great deal of stock in the institution. If a paper should come to Union and make good, the citizens would gladly give loyal support to the paper, but they will not be so swift to respond unless there is some certainty of success.

The Cat Came Back. The cat which was lost by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eaton at the time they moved some month or more ago, and which was supposed to have been dead, returned the other day, smiling as if nothing had happened.

County eighth grade examinations were conducted in the grammar room last Thursday and Friday, 24 pupils wrote, of which number district 31 furnished seven. No doubt the returns from the county superintendent's office will be looked for eagerly by many. Will they be pleasing or disappointing?

The Juniors gave a box social at the high school Friday night. An excellent program was given and the receipts amounted to over $50. W. B. Banning served as auctioneer, filling in for Mr. Lewis who was not able to be present. Miss Grace Borenrief was elected as the most popular lady present, thus receiving a box of candy; one vote was given for each penny.
