

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS!

Owing to the fact that we have a short lease and are unable to get an extension, we are forced to close out our entire stock and fixtures, regardless of cost or value, as Mr. Gobelman wants his room for his own business. We are indeed very sorry to have been compelled to make this announcement, as we have enjoyed a good business from the day we opened our doors. But, under the prevailing circumstances we are compelled to vacate.

Here Is Where a Great Opportunity Awaits the People of This Vicinity!

In spite of the fact that capacity crowds have taken advantage of the many wonderful bargains we are offering, there are still countless bargains that are too numerous to mention—bargains you absolutely can't afford to overlook. Please bear in mind that this battle of slashing prices has just begun. This sale will continue until every dollar's worth of merchandise is sold.

We are open evenings. Bring in your eggs. We will pay you the highest market price for them. Remember, we have just received a most elegant line of silk and wool dresses, spring coats, skirts and gingham dresses and aprons which go unreservedly into this closing out sale. Everything must go—Nothing reserved.

Prices Smashed! Act Now!

Our entire stock of high class merchandise has been unmercifully cut and slaughtered. In this ad are but a few of the many bargains we are offering. One entire issue of this paper would not permit of complete enumeration. Both winter and summer goods must go. Get your share of the bargains while the getting is good. Extra salespeople to wait on you during this closing out sale.

ROYALIST PLAN FOR COUP DYING AWAY

Lokal Anzeiger Announces There Will Be No Monarchist Demonstration When Ex-Kaiserin is Buried

Berlin, April 12.—The first wave of royalist bitterness that followed the news of the death of the former German empress appeared to have subsided today. Even the most aggressive adherents of the old imperial regime seemed to realize that it would not be wise to face, but universally condemned throughout Germany if the event were made the occasion for attempts at a reactionary coup.

The royalist organ Lokal Anzeiger announced that no monarchist demonstration would be held on Saturday when the ex-empress is to be laid to her final rest in the mausoleum of the Antiken-Tempel at Potsdam.

Arrangements were begun to transfer the body of the young Prince Joachim, who committed suicide last year, to the Antiken-Tempel and place the casket beside that of his mother. This will be done in fulfillment of one of Augusta Victoria's dying wishes.

The various Hohenzollern princes decided at a conference held at Potsdam, to send Prince Oscar in Doorn to escort the empress' body to Potsdam. The other princes are to await their mother's body at Potsdam.

Court Pastor von Dryander who for more than a quarter century was the spiritual advisor of William Hohenzollern and his family, will conduct the solemn burial rites. This mausoleum, a structure of unique simplicity, is just off the historic Sans Souci palace, built by Frederick the Great.

Special invitations to the funeral are being issued by the head court marshal, Count von Eulenberg.

London, April 12.—In response to inquiries from the British government, Holland has officially notified Britain that every precaution has been taken to prevent a dynastic coup by the Hohenzollerns incident to the death and funeral of the German ex-empress.

At the British foreign office confidence was expressed that the Berlin government is strong enough to deal with any attempted uprising in Germany.

Comment in the leading English newspapers on the death of the ex-kaiserin is generally sympathetic.

"No hard words will be said of her," says the Daily News. "It was her misfortune that she had to share the miserable ignominy which befell the arch betrayer of the peace of the world."

WOULD PULL CONVICTS OFF THE ROAD

Dr. Harry Foster, Douglas County Representative Not For Such Competition.

Dr. Harry Foster of the Douglas county delegation, introduced in the lower house Monday a resolution urging that so-called "free" labor be not required to compete with convict labor in road work the coming season. He alleges that employment of convicts when thousands of men are idle is contrary to the best interests of the state. While there are probably in the neighborhood of 200 penitentiary inmates available for road work and fit physical specimens for such work, Mr. Foster finds that there are thousands of laborers outside the prison walls who are seeking employment. The resolution which, under the rules, went over for a day, is in the following:

"Whereas, there are now in the Nebraska state penitentiary a total of about 600 convicts, and

Whereas, it is estimated that between 150 and 200 of these men are in fit physical condition and sufficiently trustworthy to be placed upon road work this summer, and

Whereas, thousands of free laboring men in Nebraska are now out of work and seeking employment, therefore,

Be it resolved, that this house believes the employment of convicts in competition with free laboring men seeking employment is contrary to the welfare of our society, and we recommend to the governor and board of control of this state that no convicts be employed in road work so long as there are free laboring men seeking that kind of employment."

TALKS TO CUBA BY TELEPHONE

Presidents Harding and Menocal Exchange Renewed Assurances of Friendship.

Washington, April 11.—Direct telephone communication between the United States and Cuba was inaugurated today by President Harding and President Menocal of Cuba exchanging renewed assurances of friendship. Completion of the circuit was marked by a ceremony at the pan-American building, where Mr. Harding, several members of his cabinet and other high officials gathered while a similar group participated at the Havana end of the wire.

As an added feature Washington and Havana, as well as many other cities, heard a report from a wireless telephone operator at Catalina Island in the Pacific ocean, Catalina is 5,700 miles away from Cuba, and the feat was said to have established a new distance record for transmission of the human voice by radio, wire and cable.

The ceremony here was in charge of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and the National press club, and the invited guests, numbering several hundred, were provided with telephone receivers connected with the new circuit. The message of Mr. Harding follows:

"I want you, President Menocal, and the government and people of Cuba, to know how gratifying it is to participate with you in this ceremony, which signifies so much in the establishment of more intimate and understanding relations between Cuba and the United States. This time is especially auspicious for the friendship between our two republics are bound together by indissoluble ties of sympathy and interest. Our fortunes have been linked together in two history-making struggles, and today, when Cuba stands under the shadow of a national misfortune, I want you to know that the United States is determined, as always, to prove itself the true and help friend."

POLES CLAMORING FOR U. S. PASSPORTS

In a Hurry to Get to America Before Lid is Clamped Down on Immigration.

Warsaw, April 9.—Crowds of from 2,000 to 3,000 persons have been besieging daily the vice bureau of the American consulate here to obtain the consul's visa for their passports to the United States. For months there have been large numbers of applicants waiting at the bureau every morning, but since the latter part of February, the crowds have increased, owing to the vague and disturbing rumors which have been circulated throughout Poland of restrictive legislation pending in the United States congress.

Herded together by relatives or organizations endeavoring to get permission for these persons to enter an American port before the rumored legislation became effective, the hopeful emigrants invaded Warsaw by every train. They were mostly women and children. They came not only from various parts of Poland, but some of them were refugees from the Ukraine and other nearby parts of Russia.

Unable to obtain accommodations in lodging houses or hotels, owing to the crowded condition of the city, many of them made their headquarters in the railroad stations where they slept upon the floors or on benches or chairs.

The number of visas granted by the Americans here is about 200 a day. This much less than formerly, and the reduction is due to the Polish passport frauds uncovered some time ago and also to the frequent presentation of fraudulent documents of identification.

For a time it was possible to purchase a counterfeit Polish passport for a few dollars, but most of the ring leaders of this fraudulent plan have been arrested and are awaiting trial in the Polish courts.
