HAS AN OLD SEAL OF THIS STATE

A. Cooley, Pioneer of Cass County, Possesses One of the Original Designs of Great Seal.

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon one of the pioneer residents of Cass county, A. Cooley, now residing at Lincoln, was in the city, being called here to attend the funeral of his uncle, Justus Lillie, and while here was a brief caller at the Journal office and displayed a unique specimen of the great seal of the state which was designed by Isaac Wiles, one of the old and distinguished late residents of this county.

Mr. Cooley came to Cass county in 1867 and settled on a farm just east of Louisville and shortly after his arrival there his farm was visited by a rather distinguished appearing gentleman who requested lodgings and later asked Mr. Cooley to drive him to that locality where the present city of Lincoln is located.

Before the start was made for the west the party was joined by two other gentlemen and it was then Mr. Cooley discovered that his guest had been Governor David Butler and his friends consisted of Thomas P. Kennard, then one of the political leaders of the state and a gentleman who was interested in the location of the state capital at Lincoln. The party proceeded out into the Salt Creek bottoms and the site of the present capital was located and the preliminary plat prepared.

The tale of a dog with a moral

THERE'S AN old gag. THEY USED to pull. SO OLD that nowadays. PEOPLE THINK it's new. ABOUT THE man who had. TO SHOOT his dog. AND A friend asks. "WAS THE dog mad?" AND THE first guy. SAYS, "WELL, he wasn't. SO DANG well pleased." AND A chap told me. THAT THIS described. SOME SMOKES he'd tried. THEY DIDN'T exactly. MAKE HIM mad. BUT HE wasn't. SO VERY well pleased. OF COURSE that was.

MY CUE to slip him. A REAL cigarette. AND AFTER he'd taken. A GOOD pull or two. INTO HIS constitution. HE GRINNED and said. "THE ONLY way these. WILL EVER make you mad IS THE way. YOUR FRIENDS eat 'em up. I ONLY hope you've got. A COUPLE of packs. FOR THEM sure. DO SATISFY."

YOU'LL enjoy Chesterfields. There's something in their mild smoothness that goes right to the spot. Choice tobaccos, Turkish and Domestic—a blend that literally can't be copied—a special moisture-proof wrapper for their extra protection—on every count, Chesterfields "satisfy."
