Senator A. F. Sturm stole a few hours away from his business here last Monday, running up to Lincoln in his car to attend the session of the legislature and keep in touch with matters before the senate. Mr. Sturm has been kept pretty busy of late looking after his legislative duties at Lincoln and his business here, owing to the continued illness of H. P. Kropp, who has been the right hand man in looking after the business.

Gave Birthday Surprise
The friends and relatives of Mrs. Shrader living north of town, gave her a delightful birthday surprise last Wednesday evening.

Martin Ross Buys New Car
Fred Rhodewald and L. O. Minor were here from the county seat last Tuesday looking after the interests of the T. H. Pollock Auto company, and while here Mr. Rhodewald disposed of a Ford touring car to Martin Ross, who resides south of town, taking in exchange a used Ford as part payment. He also effected the sale of the used car, Clarence Kropp being the purchaser.

Would Organize De Moly
Last Wednesday Messrs. Vernon Arn and Ralph J. Haynie, of Plattsmouth, both active members of the Masonic order, were in Nehawka on business connected with the organizing of a De Moly chapter at the county seat, which is an organization sponsored by the the Masonic lodge and open to youths of from 16 to 21 years of age. At present it is being planned to organize but one chapter in each county and that at the county seat. Plattsmouth has received its charter and is ready to begin signing members. While the railroad connections are not conducive to members from here attending the meetings and participating in the work, the auto has largely removed that drawback and it is highly probable that a goodly number of the young men of Nehawka will become members of De Moly, which is intended as a stepping stone to admission into the Masonic order and founded to inculcate into the minds of the members the principles that are taught by Masonry.

last Wednesday evening, when they gathered to the number of about sixty and made the evening one of pleasure for her and her family. The evening was spent in games and music and a delightful supper was served.
Using Much Mill Feed
It might be supposed that with the Nehawka mill running practically full time much of the feed by-products received from the milling of the flour would have to be shipped out of town, but such is not the case, as the demand is very heavy for this feed right here at home. A large number of hog raisers in the vicinity are absorbing this product as fast as it becomes available and last week Mr. St. John was obliged to ship in a car load of bran and shorts for supplying his local trade.

Played in Hard Luck
Will O. Baker, the Avoca merchant, accompanied by Dr. J. W. Brendel started out Monday evening to attend the district Odd Fellows meeting here, leaving in plenty of time to insure getting here early, but had the misfortune to run onto a tack and were forced to make the greater part of the trip on the rim. As a result they arrived too late for the supper and a few minutes after the lodge session had reconvened. They had the tire repaired here and made better time going home.

Work Masonic Degrees
At their regular meeting on last Wednesday evening the Masonic lodge had work in the first and third degrees, two candidates in the former and one in the latter.

Would Organize De Moly
Last Wednesday Messrs. Vernon Arn and Ralph J. Haynie, of Plattsmouth, both active members of the Masonic order, were in Nehawka on business connected with the organizing of a De Moly chapter at the county seat, which is an organization sponsored by the the Masonic lodge and open to youths of from 16 to 21 years of age. The Nehawka-Murdock Game
The baseball game between the Nehawka and Murdock teams a week ago Sunday at Murdock resulted disastrously for the home boys, who, nevertheless put up a good fight. They speak in pleasant terms of the fine treatment accorded them at Murdock. Yesterday the home team was scheduled to play Julian at that place, but the result is not known at this time. The line up in the Murdock game was Kemlin, c.; A. Johnson and Glenn Whitman, p.; H. W. Griffin, ss.; Tom Mason, 1b.; F. Miller, 2b.; H. Johnson, 3b and E. Rutledge, L. Hodce and L. Carper in the garden.

Installing a New Engine
In order to have more power for propelling the machinery in his blacksmith shop, T. E. Fulton is installing a new and more powerful engine, which he expects to have running in a few days.

Saw Mill is Running
Elsewhere on this page is an ad of the Sheldon Manufacturing company, announcing their saw mill is in operation and ready to do custom work for those having logs they wish to convert into dimension lumber. The latter part of May, the mill will be shut down temporarily on account of farm work needing attention at that time, and for this reason they are urging all to have their work done now.

A Safe and Sound Institution
There is a great deal of satisfaction in knowing you are doing business with a safe institution, be it a mercantile establishment, manufacturing concern or commercial enterprise. More especially is this true when applied to the banking business. You will find the Nehawka Bank always safe and sane.

HOWAT DEFIES ORDERS OF EXECUTIVE BOARD
Pittsburg, Pa., April 28.—Alexander Howat, head of the Kansas Miners' union, has rejected the demand of the international union that he put back at work the striking employes of the Dean Coal and Mining company. The demand was delivered to Howat yesterday by the committee of the international executive board sent here by John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, to investigate the strike.
The use of a loading machine by the Dean company without working the day men employed at the mines, Howat said, was an absolute violation of the custom, and the Kansas union would not agree to it. The operators contend that under the contract the company had a right to use the machine while day men were idle.

REPORT OF ODD FELLOWS MEETING

District Gathering in Nehawka Last Monday Proves Most Successful—Many Present.

Great preparations were made for the district meeting of the Odd Fellows and Rebeckas held here on last Monday afternoon and evening, and so well did the plans work out that everything went off without a single hitch. There was a large crowd present from other towns over the district and the meeting proved one of the best that has been held in a good number of years.

Delegates were present from the lodges at Weeping Water, Elmwood, Greenwood, Avoca, Louisville and Plattsmouth, which with Nehawka include the list of towns in the county having lodges. There was also present, Grand Warden R. N. Gillan, of Auburn, who gave some excellent talks during the meeting.

The convention was called to order early in the afternoon following a pleasing musical number by the orchestra. Rev. E. C. Moore, of the Methodist church, who is an active member of the order, delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mr. Gillan following another musical selection. Mr. Gillan's address was along the line of "Fraternalities," and met with enthusiastic applause. After this there was more music, followed by the playlet, "Does it Pay to be Popular?" given by the Rebeckas. This struck a popular chord and made a great hit with the visitors.

At 6 o'clock came the banquet, which was served by the Nehawka Rebeckas and which was replete in all its appointments. Dr. J. W. Thomas acted as toastmaster and with keen wit and repartee introduced the various speakers. The first to respond was Cyrus Livingston, of Prairie lodge No. 25, of Weeping Water, who spoke on the subject, "Show Your Ticket." Mr. Livingston, who is himself possessed of no small amount of wit, handled his subject in masterful style and received hearty applause.

"Watch Your Step" was the topic assigned to J. E. Hallstrom, Avoca's young banker, and in his response he urged that the brothers work in unison and each do his full share toward furthering the objects sought by the organization. "Step Lively" was the advice of C. S. Aldrich, of Elmwood lodge, and in his address he put pep into the order as well as imbued all who heard him with a desire to move at a faster gait.

J. L. Armstrong, of the Greenwood lodge, had as his subject, "Move up Forward Please," and he too handled it in most excellent manner, giving his fellow members a good bit of helpful advice.

Then followed an address by the grand warden, which was good.

Joe Wurga, of Platte lodge No. 7, at Plattsmouth, responded to the toast "Friendship," which he handled in a masterful manner, linking into his talk the story of the friendship that existed between Jonathan and David, and around which is founded the cardinal principle of Odd Fellowship. Mr. Wurga's address was well received and was applauded loud and long.

Following the banquet, Nehawka lodge No. 214 exemplified the work of the first degree, C. W. Christweiser and William Shockey being the candidates. At the conclusion of this work those present were given opportunity of witnessing the Rebeckas drill team put on one of their fancy drills.

It was a late hour when the evening's entertainment was over and the visitors, most of whom came in automobiles, were safely on their way home.

Members of the local lodge have just cause to feel proud over the success of the meeting and the fine entertainment provided for those from other lodges attending the convention.
