Do you remember when you used to see $5 gold pieces in circulation?
 The sewing machine industry is centered largely in Indiana and Illinois.
 The Republicans promise to protect home industries. Does that apply to home.
 Say what you please about the Missouri mule, his business end is always up lifting.
 The plutocrat of today is the man who is able to pay both his income tax and his lawyer.
 Here's a joke on the children, they think when they grow up they will have their own way.
 And now comes the season of the trowel blister, the hoe lumbago and the carpet beater's wrist.
 The average man reasons things out by trying to find excuse for having it done in his own way.
 Bridgroom Sam Gompers says he's "too happy for words." Well, a married man doesn't need words.
 When a girl tells a young man he can have a kiss if he catches her she generally manages to get caught.
 Has your coal pile reached that stage where if you want to fire the furnace you have to use sugar tongs?
 Ever notice how happy a clothes-presser looks on a rainy day? What's one man's meat is another man's poison.
 An optimist may be a man who carries a corkscrew, but your true pessimist is never found without an antidote.
 We don't see why father takes such an interest in helping the girls put up the porch swing. He'll never get to sit in it.
 Besides liquidating its war obligations, the world is taking a great deal of the water out of the inflated stock values.
 A New York judge has ruled that a man who steals a doll has a weak mind. But how about the man who marries one?
 Advertising has been known to ruin business—when the advertising was done by competitors.

Despite the movie regulation, we hold that the proper way to measure a kiss is with the thermometer not the yardstick.
 Perhaps some of those recent attempted robberies in Omaha were inspired by a belief that there was hootch in the cellar.
 The five cent cigar is back with us. Most of 'em taste like an old fur coat that has been exposed to the weather during a long winter.
 That "elastic" reparations proposal of the Germans probably will be regarded by the French as stretching a point too far for sound logic.
 If we are permitted to manufacture just a little home-made wine, this should not be such a dreadfully hard year on women and song.
 "Doctors don't bleed us as they did a few generations ago," says the Montgomery Advertiser. It all depends on what you call bleeding.
 We hear a lot about selling something for a song, remarks the man at the nearby desk, but we've never been able to buy anything that way.
 One of the most discouraging tasks in the world must be praying for Congress. One chaplain prayed for congressmen 25 years and look at them now.
 If it is true that Japan is preparing to announce an "Asia for the Asiatics" policy, she can count on the enthusiastic support of California in maintaining it.
 The soviet government has decided, Washington hears, to reorganize the Russian navy. Merely that. Does not it intend to reorganize the principles of navigation too?
 A Washington woman killed her husband the other day, and then knelt beside the dead body and begged his pardon. Why can't all women be polite and thoughtful.
 A lady subscriber writes us to quit saying unkind things about lip sticks and rouge rags. All right. Until the ladies change their minds nothing can be done on this subject.
 The reason the courts do not have so many cases of drunks to handle as they once did is that the stuff they handle as they once did is that the stuff they now drink sends them to the undertaker, instead.

Bon Ton CORSETS

That Gowns May Fit the Form Modishly correct corseting is essential.
 To the woman who appreciates this need, we suggest BON TON Corsets. Their graceful lines enhance the charm of any figure. Their correct design ensures corset comfort. The new models are now being shown.

PRESIDENT LEAVES FOR ATLANTIC FLEET REVIEW
 Washington, April 27.—President Harding left late today on the Mayflower for Hampton Roads, where tomorrow he will review the Atlantic division of the American fleet and later hold a reception aboard the flag-ship Pennsylvania for the officers of the 68 ships. He was accompanied by Mrs. Harding, his military and naval aides and a party of senators.
 Secretary Denby, Admiral Coontz, chief of naval operations and members of the house naval committee also left aboard the naval yacht Sylph for Old Point. Just before the review begins they will join the presidential party aboard the Mayflower.

LEGISLATURE ASKS MEMBER BE NAMED DISTRICT JUDGE
 Lincoln, April 27.—Petitions are being circulated and signed by members of the legislature asking Governor McKelvie to appoint Representative James A. Rodman of Kimball, judge of the district court in the 13th judicial district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge H. M. Grimes at North Platte Monday.
 The Rodman petitions were started by Senator B. K. Bushie of Kimball. All of the members of the senate and 80 members of the house signed the petitions.

WHAT'S NEW!

Carter's
 Silk Topped Vests
 —AND THE—
 New Confiner Vests

Just arrived are these lovely flesh colored silk topped vests, made in the bodice style and in the usual Carter exactness as to quality. The silk tops, nine inches deep, are made of fine thread silk and are very elastic. Sizes 34 to 38 are $1.50, larger sizes are $1.75.

Quite the latest thing in vests is this "Confiner" vest, so called because of the patented Carter Tab, which permits of fastening the supporter to the hose and vest at one fastening, thus preventing the vest from slipping up. This vest is made of a fine quality of combed yarn, in the bodice style, and in all sizes. Prices are $1.00 and $1.25.
