Now Germany proposes to pay off part of its debt to the allies by borrowing the money from the United States. Isn't that simply too generous of Germany?

"Pussyfoot" Johnson is said to be intensely patriotic, and he should be. His native land is about the only place he can go to and stay with any degree of certainty.

With the problem of suppressing the Japanese invasion well in hand, the natives of the far Eastern republic of China has asked Japan to withdraw troops from Siberia.

The German mob which attacked two Americans tourists was composed mainly of women and children, the men evidently having learned a lesson from previous attacks on Americans.

In New York a building is being built which will accommodate sixty women's clubs in meeting at the same time. Now we shall finally learn for sure whether there is such a thing as soundproof walls.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who was content with a nickel's worth of candy? Nowadays he wants a two-bit ice cream sundae and the privilege of driving dad's car whenever he feels like it.

The retailer who seeks to hold up prices in spite of decreased cost and a sagging wholesale market is merely making trouble for himself. It is time for everybody to realize that they must pocket their losses.

Over in England the henpecked husband in two countries get together every year and hold a convention. The mystery is how they get away from home to go to the meeting, but that seems to be one of society's secrets.

HE COULDN'T ASK MORE FOR MONEY

Cedar Rapids Man Restored to Perfect Health by Tanlac After Suffering 3 Years.

"I couldn't ask more for my money than what I have gotten from Tanlac, and I want to let others know how the medicine has fixed me up," said Sidney D. Abbott, of 313 S. 2nd street, East Cedar Rapids, Ia.

"During the past five years I suffered terribly from indigestion and stomach trouble. I had a very poor appetite and the little I did manage to eat would lie in my stomach undigested. Gas bloated me all up, I had a disagreeable taste in my mouth constantly and often became nauseated. I couldn't eat meat at all and my heart palpitated so bad that often it seemed like I was going to smother. My work was an awful task for me and frequently I just had to sit down and rest.

"Well, this was my condition when I got hold of Tanlac. It has given me a splendid appetite. I can now eat meat and anything else I want without it causing me a bit of trouble. I've already gained eight pounds in weight, my breathing is free and easy and I am feeling just fine."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by P. G. Fricke and Company; in Murray by the Murray Drug Company, and the leading druggist in every town.

YOUNG MAN'S SHOT AT HOME TUESDAY NOON

JONAS BEARD, RESIDING JUST OUTSIDE OF WEEPING WATER, SUFFERS FATAL ACCIDENT

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon County Attorney A. G. Cole and Sheriff C. D. Quinlan were called out to the vicinity of Weeping Water by the report of the death of Jonas Beard, a young man of that locality who, it was stated had been shot.

On the arrival of the authorities it was found that the shooting was apparently purely accidental as the position of the body and the nature of the wound pointed clearly to the fact that the man had met death while working with his shotgun. It seemed that Mr. Beard had gone out to shoot some crows that were bothering around the house and he had apparently in some manner struck the trigger of the gun while it was pointed toward his breast as the wound indicated an upward turn, such as would result from the gun if it was resting with the stock on the ground and the barrel pointed upward and he had apparently been leaning slightly on the barrel to cause the bullet to penetrate the left breast.

The deceased young man leaves to mourn his death an aged mother of seventy-two years with whom he was residing and they have recently moved onto the small place just out of Weeping Water owned by Frank Valery.

Obituary, Leander W. Friend.

Leander W. Friend was born in Clinton county, Indiana, February 15, 1849. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Godbey, in Alvo, Sunday, April 24, 1921, at the age of 81 years, 2 months and 9 days.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Knight, and interment was made in the Alvo cemetery.

On March 27, 1860, Mr. Friend was united in marriage to Cynthia Ann Alley. To this union were born six children, one dying in infancy and five remaining to mourn his loss. The living children are James E. Friend, Alvo; Emmett B. Friend, Alvo; Mrs. Martha M. Godbey, Alvo; Mrs. Ivola Campbell, of Mitchell, S. D. and Arthur J. Friend, Alvo.

Besides his immediate family, he leaves two grandchildren, two sisters and one brother. The brother and one sister live at Springfield, Mo., and the other sister resides in Seattle, Washington.

In 1862 he enlisted in the Union army and spent three years as a soldier in the Civil war.

After the close of the war in 1870, in the month of March, they moved to Cass county, Nebraska. Here they took a homestead and for many years toiled and sacrificed as one of that sturdy band of pioneers who contributed so much toward making this state what it is now both in citizenship and commercial standing.

His wife heard the last call and departed this life March 12, 1910, at the age of 69 years. Since that time he has made his home with his children, and surrounded by sympathizing friends in this community of Alvo.

When a young man, Mr. Friend was converted and united with the Methodist church, of which he has been a faithful member for all these years. He was for many years an official of the church and assisted in its work through the trying days of its early struggle for an existence. He lived long enough to see the church he loved placed on a substantial and self supporting basis and doing an aggressive work in the community. And he rejoiced in this fact.

Mr. Friend was universally loved and respected, and leaves a wide circle of friends who mourn his departure, but also rejoice in the thought that his sufferings, which were intense and trying, are at last relieved, and that he is now enjoying the "rest that remaineth for the children of God."

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted us during the sickness, death and burial of our beloved father, Leander W. Friend; also for the many expressions of sympathy and for the beautiful flowers.—James E. Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett B. Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Godbey, Mrs. Ivola Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Friend.
