The baseball season has opened, and now is the glad time at hand when the crowd says it to the umpire with pop bottles.

"Kissing is merely germ swapping," says a Chicago doctor. Maybe so, but it is one form of trade where the demand will always exceed the supply.

If you want to make your wife hot under the collar just tell her what a beautiful dress her neighbor had on.

Illustrative of just how badly this old world is out of gear, gasoline sells at 22 cents per gallon in Chicago and 27 cents per gallon in Plattsmouth. Worse still, moonshine sells for $2 per quart in Virginia and $15 per quart in Nebraska.

THE PRICE OF CLOTHES

The price of our dry cleaning cuts down the price of clothes. Dainty Dorothy says that she has found out that we take most excellent care of the garments entrusted to us and that our charges should make friends for this house. Our dyeing proves satisfactory, as we use the latest approved methods and the best dyes.

Goods Called for and Delivered

Jess Willard admits he's not able to pick the winner of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight. That's not remarkable perhaps; he wasn't able to pick the winner of the Willard-Dempsey fight either.

With the French armies preparing to march into Germany, probably it is natural that Germans should be apprehensive lest French soldiers should forget themselves and act like German soldiers.

As far as he knows, there is but one article in the world that cannot be bought on the installment plan. That is a woman's hat, which would be out of style long before the installments were paid.

Gilbert K. Chesterton picked up $500,000 on a lecture tour of the United States, and he didn't stay long, either. We are always willing to part with our money when a smooth-spoken stranger comes along.

If you think the job of making America safe for the Americans is not a serious one, it will be worth your while to study the census report showing that we have 13,703,987 foreign born persons in this country.

Aboston woman says that twenty years hence mankind will be too civilized to shoot birds and wild animals. You're too optimistic, madam. We will not even make a good start towards being civilized until men quit shooting each other.

After pondering over the subject for several years we have finally reached a satisfactory conclusion regarding that Garden of Eden incident. Eve plucked the apple to satisfy her curiosity and Adam ate it to satisfy his appetite.

Germany intimates that she would like to borrow about one hundred billion marks from Uncle Sam. Nothing doing. We have too many folks at home who would like to negotiate loans—and all of them are willing to take less than the amount sought by Germany.

Next to the fellow whose second hand Ford burnt up while driving home with his new insurance policy, the luckiest man lives in Uniontown, Pa. Robbers stripped him of his money, jewelry and valuable papers, and then gave him back everything except some oil stock.

EDGAR JOHNSON VERY LOW WITH APPENDICITIS

From Thursday's Daily.

A message was received here last evening announcing the fact that Edgar Johnson, son of the late J. E. Johnson, was very low at the hospital in Lincoln. Mr. Johnson has been with his mother in California for several months as his health has been very poorly as the result of a serious heart affliction and on his return to the home at Lincoln he developed a severe case of appendicitis. He was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital Monday morning and an operation performed when it was found that the appendix had burst and the condition of the young man was very serious. Harry McCoy of this city, an uncle of the young man, was present at the operation and returning home yesterday was called back this morning by the announcement that Edgar was much worse.

THE TRAGEDY OF A DAY IN MAY

Welcome early days in May. Breezes through the branches play. Country roads are hard and dry, motors swiftly pass me by. Over the rails to reach the crossing, see that train come roaring—tossing. Let us see how autoists act—are they using sense and tact?

Things are looking very good—drivers stopping as they should. Guess these fellows read the papers—know what comes of cutting capers, in this place where people ought to practise safety, as they're taught to. Careful driving saves your hide and your motor car beside.

Who is this, then, comes this way, speeding in his motor car grey? His pace—he runs in high—soon that train will thunder by. Judging from his manner brisk, he's inclined to take a risk. He is like some others—are fond of deeds spectacular. Watch him as he makes today, his blood curdling grandstand play.

See him, as he dashes comes—listen how his motor hums. Not one sign of hesitation—just a look of proud elation. That hold stunt he's done before, he intends to try once more.

Drivers look the other way, if there's time for some one pray. Naught availed your sigh or groan—death has claimed him for his own. Gone he is—left all his self—God helps him who helps himself. Yes, one more has paid the price—What a needless sacrifice!

Where the road the highway crosses, death gloats while we count the losses. In the year passed, 1920, he had chance to gloat a plenty. Killed an even hundred score; injured some three thousand more.

FRANK THOMAS HERE

Frank B. Thomas of Chicago of the "Safety First" department of the Burlington, arrived in the city today for a few hours stay and to dispense the doctrine of better be safe than sorry, of which movement he is one of the pioneers. Mr. Thomas has been in this line of work for a great many years and was one of the first to travel over the Burlington system advertising and preaching the doctrine of "Safety First" and the result of the work has been to cut down to a very low figure the injuries and accidents on the railroad. At present Mr. Thomas is urging safety first methods in driving over railroad crossings, where the greater part of the accidents nowadays occurs. Personally a clever and genial gentleman, Mr. Thomas has been very successful in his work and his many friends here were more than pleased to meet him and enjoy the opportunity of a visit.

RECEIVES WORD FROM GREECE

George Conis, proprietor of the Palace shining parlor, has just received a letter from his father who resides at Hattadea, Greece, and in which the father urges George to return home for a time at least as the father and other members of the family are very desirous of seeing the son and brother again. It has been eight years since Mr. Conis left his native land to find a home in the new world and many changes have come not only into the life of his country, but to himself as well. While feeling a desire to mingle with the loved ones again Mr. Conis now has such extensive business interests that he finds it hard to get away if he desires to return to the old home for a visit.

GYPSIES IN TOWN

From Friday's Daily.

The morning for the first time in many months a pair of wandering gypsies visited this city seeking to raise a few stray dimes and quarters and visited the stores of the city to play their vocation of fortune telling. One of the descendants of the wandering tribes of Europe, attracted by the dashing form of ye reporter approached and attempted to tell the future of the pencil pusher but was gently but firmly repulsed as the present is bad enough without attempting to peer into the future.

RAIL BUILDER'S WIDOW HELD ON ARSON CHARGE

Spokane, Wash., May 5.—Mrs. Anna L. Corbin, widow of the late D. C. Corbin, northwestern railroad builder, was held in the city jail today following her admission, according to Prosecuting Attorney W. C. Meyer, that she set fire to her palatial home here last Friday to collect the insurance. The house was damaged about $10,000, it was estimated.

SLOWLY IMPROVING

Mrs. Henry Dooley is reported as being somewhat better at the hospital in Omaha, but her progress is very slow and her condition still remains quite weak, but her family and friends are hopeful that she may soon show decided improvement.

FIVE SEEK TO FILL SHOES OF DAHLMAN

Applications Four in for Vacant Marshalship—An Early Selection Predicted.

Washington, May 5.—The election of James C. Dahlman as mayor of Omaha will put the choice of a United States marshal up to the Nebraska delegation at an early date, as it is understood Mr. Dahlman has resigned his commission as marshal which would not otherwise have expired for some time. Past experience makes the members inclined to settle the appointment as soon as possible before any protracted contest has an opportunity to ensue for the candidates. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Dahlman's formal resignation has not yet been received, five candidates have already filed and more are expected now that the result of the election is known. The list includes Thomas A. Barton of Kearney; Geo. T. Lowman of Columbus; J. O. Huddleston, A. J. Donahue and J. B. Nickerson, the latter three of Omaha. Mr. Donahue is president of the central labor union of that city and Mr. Nickerson is present chief deputy marshal, having served in that capacity for the past sixteen years.

Friends of S. M. Mellick of Lincoln have written on his behalf.

It is taken for granted that in view of the fact that there are not enough major offices to go around, that those congressmen who have not yet had an opportunity will be favored for the marshalship. The first district got the collectorship, the second the district attorneyship and the fifth the prohibition director. The marshalship, which pays $4,000 a year, is the last important office.

The commission of Charles W. McCune, collector of customs at Omaha, a position which pays $3,500, does not expire until June 30, 1924.

BRYAN'S FRIENDS MAY USE RECALL

Disgruntled Over the Fact that He Probably Will Not be Mayor —Threaten Retaliation.

Lincoln, May 4.—Friends of C. W. Bryan are today threatening the recall as a retaliation for the refusal of the members of the newly-elected city council to elect him mayor of Lincoln, which refusal now seems likely. Bryan, who was a candidate for mayor and nothing else, was fourth on the list of five commissioners elected.

Frank C. Zeuhring, the other candidate, was fifth on the list. The three old commissioners who were re-elected have declared that the threat of the recall would not influence their vote on the mayoralty.

A proposition to vote $900,000 worth of municipal bonds for the purpose of erecting a competing municipal gas plant carried at the election yesterday by a small majority.

Treatment of Common Colds.

"If all who catch cold could be persuaded to remain in bed for the first twenty-four hours of such an attack," says a well known physician, "there would be fewer cases dragging on with distressing symptoms for weeks and often ending in some more serious disease." To make sure of a prompt recovery you should also take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Whether sick or well the bowels should move each day.
