Think and Act for Yourself!

Some people are Methodists, and some are Presbyterians — because their mothers were.

Some are republicans and some are democrats — because their fathers were.

But in opening a bank account — think for yourself and make your own decision where you will transact your banking business. The bank with a reputation for careful, conservative dealing should appeal to you.

Your business will be appreciated — be it great or small.

cific at this place. The people of Union are welcoming this young couple and will make their stay here one of much pleasure.

Is Making the Home Smile.

Earl Merritt, the painter and decorator, this week is busily engaged in painting the residence of Mrs. E. A. Taylor, and is making the already beautiful home look much better, and is also placing an insurance in the home with the cost of paint, for it is being protected from the onslaughts of the elements from the blistering sun and the soaking rains and is preventing the deterioration which comes to all homes where they are not protected by a good painting occasionally.

Makes Long Trip.

Little Leona Stoll, the eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stoll of Wayside, and granddaughter of T. E. Fulton and wife and H. H. Stoll of Nehawka, made the trip from the northwestern portion of the state last week by herself and changed cars at Union for Nehawka. The grandparents were greatly pleased as well as the little one and is assured a very pleasant visit.

Are Selling Rapidly.

The shipment of shoes which were recently purchased by Mr. A. L. Becker, and received but a short time ago, are being absorbed very rapidly, they being special price, very low, and have appealed to the trade. Better see about them before they are all gone.

Elect New Manager Last Week.

The Farmer's Co-Operative Merchandise Company of Union at a meeting which was held last Monday evening, elected Mr. W. H. Porter as their manager, who immediately took charge of the store and will in the future look after the matter for the association. Miss Mable Reynolds is being retained as a saleswoman, and with the two the business should be looked after. With the new management, a number of changes in the plans of conducting the business will be inaugurated. Heretofore there has been no publicity made of the business, but in the future they will do some advertising, and especially when special bargains are to be offered, as they will be as the business will be expected to be conducted on a progressive plan.

Union Loses to Eagle.

The Union boys journeyed to Eagle last Sunday and there played with the Eagle football, a very fast and snappy game, in which the boys from this place suffered defeat, notwithstanding both sides put up a faultless game during the first eight innings, but a fumble in the final play brought victory to the Eagle team and did not allow the Union boys an opportunity to bring home the bacon.

Next Sunday's Game.

A game is scheduled for the coming Sunday at Union, in which they will try issues with the team from Perceval, Ia., which has a good snappy team and those who shall attend the game at Union the coming Sunday will be assured their full moneys worth.

Has Moved to the Farm.

Robert Willis and family have during the past week moved to the farm which he traded for a short time ago. (Continued on Page 5)
